THE REV. THOMAS L. HARRIS, M.A., Rector

No. 1 October 1, 1937

MY DEAR PARISHIONER:

Mr. Rightmyer's departure to become Rector of St. Peter's, Lewes, necessarily places upon me a load of detail which for the past three years he managed so competently. There are at least two ways in which every parishioner can help to lighten that load.

First, by letting me know where a pastoral call is needed. It is very easy in a large parish to neglect, through ignorance, cases of sickness or sorrow. Both Mr. Rightmyer and Miss Wurtele were invaluable in keeping me in touch with individual members of the parish. Without their help I must count more upon the parishioners themselves to keep me informed.

Secondly, you can help by using the regular office hours whose schedule is printed immediately below. If it is inconvenient for you to come during these hours please telephone the office (Pen. 2883) for a definite appointment.

My office hours will be as follows:
Every morning (except Saturday and Sunday), 11–12.30.
Monday afternoons and evenings until 9.30 P. M.

I am planning to send out a parish leaflet each month during the winter to keep you informed about the program at the Church.

Will you please keep for reference the calendar which follows?

Sincerely yours,

THOMAS L. HARRIS.

THE REV. ALLEN EVANS, D.D., Dean of the Philadelphia Divinity School, will be the preacher at 11 o'clock on Sunday, November 21st. Dean Evans had the courage to give up a very successful parish in Long Island to take charge of the reorganization of the Philadelphia Divinity School. Under his leadership the School will, we believe, break new ground in the training of men for the ministry. Philadelphia has the reputation of neglecting its own pioneers. Let us disprove this charge by attending the 11 o'clock service on November 21st and hear what Dean Evans has to tell about his work.

CORRECTION

The Hallowe'en Dance is to be held in the Parish House, 330 South Thirteenth Street, on October 29th. NOT at the Farm.

ALL SAINTS' DAY AT THE CATHEDRAL

It is rarely that the diocese gathers together for worship. On All Saints' Day, Monday, November 1st, the Bishop will be the celebrant at the Cathedral, Ridge Avenue, Roxborough, at a celebration of the Holy Communion at 11 o'clock. At this service the names of those in the diocese who have died in the past year will be remembered.

ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Thursday, November 25th, services will be held in the church at 8 and 10.30 A. M.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING

Will have their Thanksgiving Dinner in the Parish House on Wednesday, November 24th.

THE GIRLS' CLUB

Is planning to give a dance in the Parish House on Monday, November 29th.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The next meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held in the Parish House at 2.30 P. M., on Tuesday, November 9th.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

Has made a most promising start. They meet immediately after the musical service on Sunday afternoons. A light supper is served for 25 cents. Miss Kinsman, Personnel Officer at the College of Liberal Arts for Women of the University of Pennsylvania, is to be the speaker on Sunday, November 7th, at 5.30 P. M.

WE WELCOME Mr. Myron Hulse, of the Philadelphia Divinity School, as a part-time assistant. Mr. Hulse is preparing to be ordained to the ministry. He has already been lay reader in charge of a mission church, and now, as part of his practical training at the Divinity School, is going to give part of his time to various activities in the parish.

CANVASS OF THE PARISH

The canvass of all parishioners is almost complete, but there are still some replies outstanding. In order that the Vestry may have a reliable picture before them in their consideration of the parish's future, it is necessary that every parishioner should be reached. If you have not sent in your answer to the brief questionnaire that should have reached every parishioner by now, will you please do so at once. If through some oversight no canvasser has called upon you, or you have not received a questionnaire, will you please get in touch with the Church Office, Pennypacker 2883, 330 South Thirteenth Street?

DR. MATTHEWS RESIGNS

For many years this parish has enjoyed a great reputation for its music. This reputation stands almost solely to Dr. Matthews' credit. For twenty years he has admirably filled the post of Organist and Choirmaster. His resignation is a great loss to the parish, and a matter of congratulation for St. Stephen's, where Dr. Matthews will continue his fine work.

Dr. Matthews' last Sunday in St. Luke and The Epiphany will be January 30th. At the afternoon service he will conduct the performance of Holst's "Two Psalms" and "Te Deum". Let us show our appreciation for Dr. Matthews' loyal and splendid work for this parish by attending the afternoon service on Sunday, January 30th, at 4 P. M.

CONFIRMATION

The Bishop of the Diocese will come here for confirmation on February 6th. Classes are being formed immediately after Christmas. Will you please let the Rector know the name of any person who desires to be confirmed?

Envelopes for 1938 will be placed in the room adjoining the church following the services on Sunday, January 2nd. You can save the expense of postage by asking for your envelopes at that time.

GUEST PREACHER

The Reverend Vincent C. Franks, D.D., Rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, will be the guest preacher at Choral Evensong, January 16th, at 4 P. M.

THE REV. THOMAS L. HARRIS, M.A., Rector

No. 3 December 1, 1937.

MY DEAR PARISHIONER:

We have a special responsibility at Christmas time, just because many people outside the Church celebrate Christmas Day and welcome the Christmas message of "Peace on earth, good will towards men." Our responsibility is to make both the message and the day real.

Accordingly, I hope that you will be present in church for at least one of the Christmas services announced in this bulletin. Your presence in church is the best testimony you can give to your belief that Christmas Day commemorates something more than man's natural kindness and good intentions, for on Christmas Day we commemorate God's gift to man.

Furthermore, I am sure we all wish to make Christmas a happy day for others as well as for ourselves. Some part of any contribution you make in the enclosed envelope goes towards the decoration of the church, the remainder goes to assist members of this parish that their Christmas may be brighter through your generosity.

With all good wishes for a Happy Christmas, I am,

Cordially yours,

THOMAS L. HARRIS.

THE PILGRIM

Will not our hearts within us burn
On the darkening road,
If a White Presence we can discern—
Despite an ancient load?

Whither goest Thou, pilgrim Friend?
Lone Figure far ahead,
Wilt Thou not tarry until the end—
And break our bread?

Follow we must amid sun and shade,
Our faith to complete,
Journeying where no path is made—
Save by His feet!

Offertory Anthem — Peter Cornelius

Three kings have journeyed from the eastern land
A star hath led them to Jordan's strand
And in Judea inquire the three
Where the new born infant King may be?
With gold and myrrh and incense sweet
They bring the Holy Child an offering meet.

And brightly shineth the guiding star;
Unto the manger the kings repair,
With rapture on the boy they gaze,
And bow before him in joy and praise.
With gold and myrrh and incense sweet
They bring the Holy Child an offering meet.

O Child of Man! hold Thee firm and true;
The kings come hither, O come Thou too.
The star of mercy, the star of love
Shall point Thee the pathway to Heav'n above;
And fail thee gold and incense sweet,
Lay thou thy heart at the Saviour's Feet!

O'er the waters soft and clear

And now breaks upon the ear.

Jubilate Amen!
Now like moonlit waves entreating,
To the shore it dies along,
Now like angry surges meeting,
Breaks the mingled tide of song.

Jubilate Amen!
Hush again like waves entreating,
To the shore it dies along.

PRAYER FOR LENT

"Command what Thou wilt; give what Thou commandest."—St. Augustine.

Lord of all Good Life, be Thou our Master and Saviour every day, our nearest Friend when we are alone, our Teacher and Guide in all that we think and do. Thou who lovest the best in us, accept nothing less than the best from us. Demand everything of us, Lord, for our own sake; demand so much that we can keep nothing back. Touch us with a searching sense of Thy nearness; give us so much of Thyself that we cannot think of our little selves. Make us strong before trials come, quiet and confident in the daily round of duty and care, faithful in obedience and happy in Thy service; and though we part with many things along the way, may we lose nothing of the gift of life; in Thy holy name, Amen.

A LIFE-PRAYER

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

My Master was so very poor,
A manger was his cradling place;
So very rich my Master was,
Kings came from far to gain his grace.

My Master was so very poor,
And with the poor He broke the bread;
So very rich my Master was,
That multitudes by Him were fed.

They nailed Him naked to a cross;
So very rich my Master was,

Into the woods my Master went,
Clean forspent, clean forspent;
Into the woods my Master came,
Forspent with love and shame.

Out of the woods my Master went,
And He was well content;
Out of the woods my Master came,
Content with death and shame.

But the olives they were not blind to Him,
The little gray leaves were kind to Him,
The thorn-tree had a mind to Him,
When into the woods He came.

When death and shame would woo Him last
From under the trees they drew Him last
'Twas on a tree they slew Him last
When out of the woods He came.

A trembling, flush'd and wondering morn!
When long ago 'mid shadows drear,
Sad hearts awoke to hope and fear,
As pass'd the word that whisp'ring said,
"Lo, Christ is risen from the dead!"

From lip to lip the tidings flew,
From heart to heart the gladness grew,
From east to west the message spread,
Till, like a deep'ning light it spread,
And passing doubt caught up the strain
"Aye, Christ the Lord is ris'n again!
Alleluia!"

And now, behold, to all the world,
A banner borne aloft unfurl'd;
That message floats o'er land and sea,
Its tidings ringing, glad and free,
Till Earth's great heart repeats the lay
"Aye, Christ the Lord is ris'n today! Alleluia!"

11 A. M. MORNING PRAYER AND SERMON

Hymns: 520, 170

Benedictus Es Walter Hall

Jubilate Horatio Parker

Offertory Anthem—"Easter Song" Paul Fehrmann

Christ is arisen!
Tell it from the mountains.
Christ is arisen!
Sound it thro' the valleys.

Sin now is conquered,
Christ doth atone,
Death now is vanquish'd,
Victory won.

When to the dark tomb women came sadly,
Angels there told them their tidings gladly;
Join we the angels, glad heart and voice,
Christ is arisen, Christians rejoice.

EASTER ECHOES

"He that hath this hope purifieth himself."

No radiant delusion,
No flitting, fond illusion,
Or love-worn confusion
Can truth reveal
To hearts bowed down.

Life's star brightens,
The weary load lightens,
And all joy heightens,
By truth's appeal
To hearts lifted up.

Why yield to doubting,
And dark fate's clouting,
A high faith flouting,
If truth's yield
Is a heart purified?

The Collect, Epistle and Gospel for today are on pages 171, 172

Hymns: 519, 303, 542

Communion Service — John Stainer

Offertory Anthem — David D. Wood

"There shall be no more night there"

And He showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal;
Proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.
In the midst of the street thereof
And on either side of the river, was there the tree of life,
And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.
There shall be no more curse, nor pain, nor death.
But the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be there-in;
And His servants shall serve Him, and they shall see His face.

There shall be no night there;
And they need no lamp, nor light of the sun,
For the Lord God shall give them light;
And they shall reign for ever and ever.

Solo Sung by Miss Irene Frack.

Jubilate — Schubert-Buck

Offertory Anthem — Edward Elgar

"Light of the World"

Light of the World, we know Thy praise,
The angels and arch-angels raise
And all the host of Heav'n
More worthily than our faint hymns,
Whose jarring sound that glory dims
Which God to Thee has giv'n.

But Thou did'st not disdain to take our low estate,
Or e'en to make
The tomb Thy resting place;
So Thou might bring into our night,
The dawn of Thine Eternal Light,
To shine upon our face.

Nor death, nor hell, nor sin is Lord,
But Thou, O Son of God. Thy Word
Is now our sov'reign law.
Therefore we thank Thee, and we pray
Thy Light may shine unto the Perfect Day
On us for evermore.

REVELATION

"God comes to us in little things."

I went seeking an unutterable Word
To lift me out of my gloom,
And heard a mocking-bird singing
On an apple-tree in bloom.

I sat longing for ineffable things
To satisfy my deep hunger,
And saw a mother-bird hide a brood
From lightning and thunder.

I prayed asking a Divine revelation
To illumine my way to God,
And at my feet a shy little violet
Lifted its face from the sod.

I sought too high for what is nearby,
Standing aloof and apart:
God is found in love and beauty—
"The word is in thy heart."

A PRAYER FOR PEACE

"Give peace in our time, O Lord."

O God, our help in ages past, our hope today and forever, have mercy upon our humanity in its blindness, its bitterness, and its confusion. Thou who hast granted to our age to discover such wonders of Thy mind and such mysteries of Thy handiwork as to give man such vast power for good or ill, let us not use Thy beautiful power for cruel and unworthy ends. Stay our hands, and teach us to use Thy power to serve Thy holy will on earth. Bring the peoples of humanity—bring each of us—to a sound mind and a kind heart; restore good will and mutual trust. Visit not upon our children the horror of an age whose spirit was not steadfast with Thee. Lead us in the ways of justice and honor, in the paths of truth and brotherly kindness, till we are delivered from the bondage of hate and fear into the light of love. In the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sweet is thy mercy, Lord!
Before Thy mercy seat,
My soul adoring pleads Thy word,
And owns Thy mercy sweet.

Wher-e'er Thy Name is blest,
Wher-e'er Thy people meet,
There I delight in Thee to rest,
And find Thy mercy sweet.

Light Thou our weary way,
Lead Thou my wand'ring feet;
That while we stay on earth we may Still find Thy mercy sweet.

Thus shall the heav'nly host
Hear all our songs repeat;
To Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
My joy, Thy mercy sweet.

Strong Wisdom, Spirit of the Holy God.

O Sov'reign Lord, Thou master of man's soul,
Inspire we pray Thee, by Thy human name,
Man's feeble will with Love's perpetual flame,
And hold the wheels of life, with strong control.

O steadfast Spirit of the Holy God,
O come, be near us, guide us day by day,

And they that behold it,

Benedictus Es — J. Christopher Marks

Jubilate — C. Villiers Standford

Offertory Anthem — Edward Shippen Barnes

I know not where the road will lead
I follow day by day,
Or where it ends: I only know
I walk The King's Highway.

I know not if the way is long,
And no one else can say,
But rough or smooth, uphill or down,
I walk The King's Highway.

And some I love have reached the end,
But some with me may stay;
Their faith and hope still guiding me,
I walk The King's Highway.

The way is truth, the way is love,
For light and strength I pray,
And through the years of life to God,
I walk The King's Highway.

The countless hosts lead on before,
I must not fear or stray:
With them, the pilgrims of all creeds,
I walk The King's Highway.

Through light and dark the road leads on
Till dawns the endless day
When I shall know why in this life,
I walk The King's Highway.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS

St. Luke's Church is one hundred years old this month, having been dedicated October 16th, 1840. We celebrate a noble history; we treasure a rich tradition; in a troubled day we look forward with courage, confidence and hope. For a century, amid light and shadow, war and peace, this Church has stood, a House of God in the City of Man, a witness and prophecy of Divine reality.

Only some great Angel could tell the story of a Christian Church, tracing its influence and inspiration from one generation to another, as a center of faith, fellowship, worship and work. Here multitudes have found help for today and hope for the morrow, healing for the hurts of life, and strength for its tasks, in a simple faith, a free spirit, and a radiant and gracious friendliness.

In the future, as in the days agone, may St. Luke's Church be a shrine where the Unseen breaks into the seen, where God becomes Man and men and women become divine; where, together, we reach out and touch the life of the city and nation in hope and prayer and service; where we grow in knowledge of noble ways of living, seeking the beauty of holiness and the holiness of beauty; where God is known and where the dearest friends are found whose love lasts all down the years and beyond.

Behold the ark of God,
Behold the open door;
Hasten to gain that dear abode
And rove, my soul, no more.
There safe shalt thou abide,

THE HOUSE OF FAITH

The Church is the most precious thing in the world today. It is a House of Faith, and without faith all the higher values of life grow dim and unreal. According to our faith, so life will be to us and for us. Fear, futility and loneliness are the demons that torment us today; and in the Church of Christ we find courage for life, meaning in life, and a fellowship of faith, hope and love. To forget or neglect the House of Faith is to omit from life the one thing that makes meaning in its mystery and music of its discord. How to live, how to love, how to hope, how to pray are the finest of all arts.

THE MEANING OF ADVENT

While yet humanity was in its infancy, there appeared One who in His life exhibited perfect manhood, whose heart was full of the completest inner harmony, liberty and peace. He realized that toward which the whole process of history had been tending. His advent, which is the greatest fact in history, is of the same order as the appearance of personality in animality; it marked a new era of time. In Him life moved from a self-regarding basis to an other-regarding basis. Love came for the first time to perfect expression, with the result that His personality and teaching have acted as a transforming elemental energy in the world. In relation to Him men of all races have found that they are freed from inner disunity, and become masters of themselves through the moral energy that is in Him.

Offertory Anthem — Sullivan

O taste and see how gracious the Lord is, blessed is the man that trusteth in Him. O fear the Lord, ye that are His saints, for they that fear Him lack nothing.

The lions do lack and suffer hunger, but they who seek the Lord shall want no manner of thing that is good.

Come ye children and hearken unto me, I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

Offertory Anthem — Steane

The night is far spent, the day is at hand.

Now it is high time to awake out of sleep.

Let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

Let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God which passeth all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Jesus Christ.

O come Redeemer, come and free Thine own from guilt and misery. The gates of heaven again unfold, which Adam's sin had closed of old.

All praise Eternal Son, to Thee, whose Advent set thy people free, whom with the Father we adore and Holy Ghost for evermore.

Hosanna in the highest. Amen.

O Light of life, O Saviour dear,
As now we pray bow down Thine ear:
Through dark and day, O'er land and sea
We have no other hope but Thee,
O Light of life, O Saviour dear.

Oft from Thy royal road we part
Lost in the mazes of the heart!
Our lamps put out, our course forgot,
We seek for God, and find Him not,
O Light of life, O Saviour dear.

Through day and darkness, Saviour dear,
Abide with us, more nearly near,
Till on Thy face we lift our eyes,
The Sun of God's own Paradise,
O Light of life, O Saviour dear.

SILENT WISDOM

From the silence of Time
Time's secret we borrow;
In the heart of today
Lies the world of tomorrow;
And the builders of joy
Are the children of sorrow.

From the silence of God
God's patience we learn;
In the heart of each man
Lies the truth he must earn;
And the makers of beauty
Are the souls who discern.

From the silence of Death
Death's silence we defied;
In the heart of our faith
Lies the vision to decide;
And the prophets of hope
Are sons of the Crucified.

"Love Came Down at Christmas" — Candlyn

Offertory Anthem — Franck

"The Virgin by the Manger"

In a new white gown was the infant drest,
The Virgin her Jesus would lull to rest;
He prattled on like a nest-ful of starlings,
But she rock'd Him soft while she sang Him low
Such songs as we sing to our little darlings.
But the infant Jesus to sleep would not go.

"Jesus, dear," pleaded His mother in distress:
"My lamb, go to sleep, my pretty white lamb.
'Tis late, go to sleep, your brow burns with fever,
Weary are your limbs and the lamp burns low.
So sleep, precious love, safe and sound as ever!"
Ne'er-the-less, to sleep Jesus would not go.

Sweet Mary then, and her eyes grew dim,
With fear in her heart bent down over Him:
"Ah, you can not sleep, yet your mother's weeping."
"Must your mother weep?" The tears overflowed from her eyes:
There sleeping little Jesus lies. He has gone to sleep,
Has fallen asleep.

Ye that have spent the silent night
In sleep and quiet rest,
And joy to see the cheerful light
That riseth in the east;
Now lift your hearts, your voices raise,
Your morning tribute bring
And pay a grateful song of praise
To Heaven's Almighty King.

And as this gloomy night did last
But for a little space;
As heav'nly day, now night is past,
Doth show his pleasant face;
So let us hope when faith and love
Their work on earth have done,
God's blessed face to see above,
Heaven's better, brighter Sun.

Truth imparting, gives salvation;
Thine be praise and adoration.

TOWARD LENT

"Jesus knew that fear is often the deep-seated cause and origin of sin, its tap-root and spring. He said more about fear than He said about sin. 'Why are ye so fearful? Where is your faith?' He asked His disciples, when they were frightened by a sudden storm. Two little by-words were often on His lips, 'Fear not,' and 'Cheer up;' He did not lose hope for any man, and He did not allow any man to lose hope for himself. Jesus knew no fear—here is the chief fact about Him; He knew—nay, He was and is—the truth that sets us free from fear, and when fear ends life begins."

"Evening and Morning"

Comes, at times, a stillness as of even,
Steeping the soul in memories of love,
As when the glow is sinking out of heaven,
As when the twilight deepens in the grove.

Comes, at length, a sound of many voices
As when the waves break lightly on the shore;
As when at dawn the feather'd choir rejoices,
Singing aloud, because the night is o'er.

Comes, at times, a voice of days departed,
On the dying breath of evening borne,
Sinks then the trav'ller faint and weary-hearted,
"Long is the way," it whispers, "and forlorn."

Comes, at last, a voice of thrilling gladness,
Borne on the breezes of the rising day;
Saying, "The Lord shall make an end of sadness,"
Saying, "The Lord shall wipe all tears away."

Suddenly rise, though the sky is still cloudless,

Far off at their fountains;
So hearts that are fainting,
Grow full to o'erflowing,
And they that behold it
Marvel, and know not
That God at their fountains
Far off has been raining.

A PRAYER FOR LENT

Lord of all Good Life, be Thou our Master and Saviour every day, our nearest Friend when we are alone, our Teacher and Guide in all that we think and do. Thou who lovest the best in us, accept nothing less than the best from us. Demand every thing of us, Lord, for our own sake; demand so much that we can keep nothing back. Touch us with a searching sense of Thy nearness; give us so much of Thyself that we cannot think of our little selves. Make us strong before trials come, quiet and confident in the daily round of duty and care, faithful in Thy service; and though we part with many things along the way, may we lose nothing of the gift of life; in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Turn back O Man, forswear thy foolish ways.
Old now is Earth, and none may count her days,
Yet thou, her child, whose head is crowned with flame,
Still wilt not hear thine inner God proclaim
"Turn back O Man, forswear they foolish ways!"

Earth might be fair and all men glad and wise,
Age after age their tragic empires rise.
Built while they dream, and in that dreaming weep.
Would man but wake from out his haunted sleep.
Earth might be fair and all men glad and wise.

Earth shall be fair, and all her people one,
Not till that hour shall God's whole will be done.
Now, even now, once more from earth to sky
Peals forth in joy man's old undaunted cry
"Earth shall be fair, and all her fold be one!"

HIS RESURRECTION AND OURS

"I am the Resurrection and the Life. Because I live, ye shall live also. I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life. I am the Light of the World. I am the Good Shepherd. I am the Door. Before Abraham was, I am. Behold, I am alive forever more."

Here speaks the Lord and Giver of Life, the Master of Death, the Revealer of the Truth, a Voice not merely of comfort but of command. Here shines a Light that never was on sea or land, fairer than the prophet-vision, brighter than the poet-dream.

"And Life is eternal, and Love is immortal, and death is only a horizon; and a horizon is nothing save the limit of our sight. Lift us up, Strong Son of God, that we may see further; cleanse our eyes that we may see more clearly."

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who His own Self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus. Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation—that ye should shew forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into His marvellous light.

I beseech you brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

Voice of Mankind sing over land and sea!
The long, long night is gone from Calvary.
The cross, the thong, the thorn,
The sealed tomb yields up its saintly guest,
No longer to be burdened and oppressed.

Heart of Mankind, thrill answer to His own!
So human, yet divine! For earthly love He left His heav'nly throne—
For love like Thine and mine—
For love of us, as one might kiss a bride,
His lifted lips touched death's—all satisfied.

Soul of Mankind, He wakes, He lives once more!
Oh soul, with heart and voice sing!
The stone rolls slowly from the door!
Our Lord stands forth.
Rejoice O garden-land of song and flow'rs, our King returns to us, forever ours!

SPIRITUAL STRATEGY

The words of St. Paul sum up the strategy of the spiritual life: "This mortal must put on immortality"—not in some dim far time beyond time, but here on earth. The natural man must become spiritual; then the spiritual man must become natural. If we are immortal we are immortal here, now. To discover that truth, and order our lives in the light of it, points the path for our soul. It means that "mortal mind"—the word is new, the fact is old—must be subdued, mastered, transcended by the immortal mind within us; "Christ in us the hope of glory." The "mortal mind" accepts sin, sickness, sorrow, death as the rule, if not the reality; and health, goodness, victory as the exception, the abnormal—if not actually an illusion. Thus life becomes a negation, a defeat, a form of death. Our religion, if it means anything at all, ought to change our negatives for positives; it must alter this dark inner bias which expects evil, and thus helps to create it. When we affirm the good and trust it, something happens—the defeatist spirit is defeated, by "a queer little turn of the heart."

JOSEPH FORT NEWTON.

Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light,
Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might;
Thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

To all, life Thou givest—to both great and small;
In all life Thou livest, the true life of all;
We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree,
And wither and perish—but nought changeth Thee.

Great Father of Glory, our Father of Light,
Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight;
All laud we would render; O help us to see,
'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee.

NOW IS THE TIME

"These are the times that try men's souls," wrote a great patriot when liberty seemed lost, and hope was at a low ebb. He remained undiscouraged in desperate days; he refused to be defeated no matter the odds—he appealed to faith and courage!

Once again, we live in days that try our faith and fortitude. New ideologies mock at religion, deride liberty, and defy reason. A filthy tyranny crawls across the earth; human beings are treated as no decent man would deal with helpless dumb brutes.

Therefore, now is the time for brotherhood, when brutality reigns. Now is the time for faith, when hearts are full of fear. Now is the time for love, when hate is supreme. Now is the time for hope, when many are ready for despair. When the odds are ten to one, attack!

11 A. M. MORNING PRAYER AND SERMON

Hymns: 212, 223

Venite	Chant
Te Deum	Matthews
Jubilate	Hall
Offertory Anthem	Holst

By weary stages the old world ages,
By blood, by rages, by pain sown seeds.
By fools and sages, with death for wages,
Souls leave their cages and man does Deeds.

In mire he trudges, in grime he drudges,
In blindness judges, in darkness gropes.
His bitter measure yields little pleasure,
For only treasure he has his hopes.

The hope that sailing when winds are failing
Above the railing a coast may rise,
The thought that glory is not the story,
But Heaven o'er ye and watching eyes.

Behold us bringing with love and singing
And great joy ringing and hearts new made,
The Prince, forspoken by seer and token,
By whom Sin's broken and Death is stayed.

Now by His power the world will flower,
And hour by hour His realm increase,
Now men benighted will feel them righted,
And loved and lighted to spirit's peace.

Our God is wearing man's flesh, and bearing
Man's cares, through caring what man may be;
Our God is sharing His light and daring
To help men's faring and set men free.

All you in hearing assist our cheering
This soul unfearing who enters earth,
On God relying, and Death defying,
He puts on dying that Life have birth.

(From the Coming of Christ—JOHN MASEFIELD.)

11 A. M. MORNING PRAYER AND SERMON

Hymns: 226, 232

Venite	Chant
Benedictus Es	Thiman
Benedictus	Chant
Offertory Anthem	Banks

But where shall wisdom be found?
And where is the place of understanding?
Man knoweth not the place whereof;
Neither is it found in the land of the living.

The depth saith, it is not in me;
The sea saith, it is not with me.
It cannot be gotten for gold,
Neither shall silver be weighed with the price thereof.

Whence then cometh wisdom?
And where is the place of understanding?
God understandeth the way thereof
And He knoweth the place thereof.
But where shall wisdom be found?
And where is the place of understanding?

Man knoweth not the price thereof;
Neither is it found in the land of the living.

June 29th—Third Sunday after Trinity

11 A. M. MORNING PRAYER AND SERMON

Hymns: 243, 247

Venite	Chant
Benedictus Es	Noble
Benedictus	Chant
Offertory Anthem	Parry

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon these our mountains green?
And was the Holy Lamb of God
On these our pleasant pastures seen?
And did the Countenance Divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among those dark Satanic mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental fight:
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand
Till we have built Jerusalem
In this our green and pleasant land.

FOR CLEARER VISION.

(Here are words from an ancient prayer, parts of which are a thousand years old, befitting our need on Ascension Day and Whitsuntide.)

O God, teach our hearts to know that Life is eternal, and Love is immortal, and Death is only a horizon; and a horizon is nothing save the limit of our sight. Lift us up that we may see further; cleanse our eyes that we may see more clearly; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

But not a resting place above the cheerless waters found;
O cease, my wandering soul, on restless wing to roam,
All the wide world to either pole has not for thee a home.

Behold the Ark of God, behold the open door,
Hasten to gain that dear abode, and rove my soul no more,
There safe shalt thou abide, there sweet shall be thy rest,
And every longing satisfied, with full salvation blest.

And when the waves of ire again the earth shall fill,
The Ark shall ride the sea of fire,
Then rest on Sion's hill.

BONDS OR BONDAGE.

The Third War Loan crusade has ended; let us hope that each did his full part. We were not asked to give but to invest in the faith and future of our country, its liberty and its safety.

But War Bonds are not enough; we must have other bonds too—bonds of insight, understanding, and co-operation between races, nations, classes and creeds. Today we have proximity but not community; the world is a neighborhood, but not a brotherhood. Bonds of unity are needed.

These bonds cannot be bought with money, but with good faith, goodwill, good fellowship; and these ties must begin and be woven by our religion. The church must be a new fellowship of faith, if we are not to fail.

Else we may find ourselves still bound by bondage to old prejudices, bigotries, and confusion. The time has come for the liberty of a great faith.

THE GREAT PRAYER.

"Father, not my will, but Thine be done," was the prayer of Jesus in His hour of agony, as it had been the spirit and passion of His life. He came, He said, "to do the will of God," in the book written of Him.

Alas, this prayer on our lips may be only a pious wish or an empty phrase. We have made no such final dedication, no such "unconditional surrender," as He had made to the way and will of God for His days and years.

For us the prayer should be, "Father, Thy will be done, through me," putting our name and address on the prayer; not mere resignation, but acceptance, commitment, at once a consecration and a challenge; a program of life.

"It is not mine!" cried Blake, when he had written a great poem; he was only the instrument, the channel of a genius, a grace greater than his own. It is thus that great art and character are achieved.

GOD AND OUR WORLD.

George Frederick Watts has a great painting, The All Pervading, which hangs in the Tate Gallery in London. It is a daring and reverent attempt to show us our tiny troubled world in the lap of God, held by His swift, strong hands in a kind of caress. God is a massive, majestic figure, His face almost hidden, except for a suggestion of His piercing eyes, His form encompassed by flowing robes and poised wings. He holds our wayward world in His hands, His wings surround it, His eyes are fixed upon it. It is His world, He made it, His love and power completely pervade it, it is utterly safe in His keeping. Here is the first truth and the last, the security of man in his life and his confidence in death—he and his world are in the hands of God, the Eternal, held and guided by His Eternal Wisdom and Goodness. As a sweet voice said, speaking to our spirits: "Let not your hearts be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in Me,"—that is, believe that He is like Me, here upon the earth, moving in the often strange medley of our lives.

YOU ARE CAPTAIN.

God built and launched this year for you;
Upon the bridge you stand;
It's your ship, aye, your own ship,
And you are in command.
Just what the twelve months' trip will do
Rests wholly, solely, friend, with you!
For weal or woe this year is yours;
Your ship is on life's sea;
Your acts as captain must decide
Whichever it shall be;
So, now, in starting on your trip,
Ask God to help you sail your ship.

CHURCH SUPPORT.

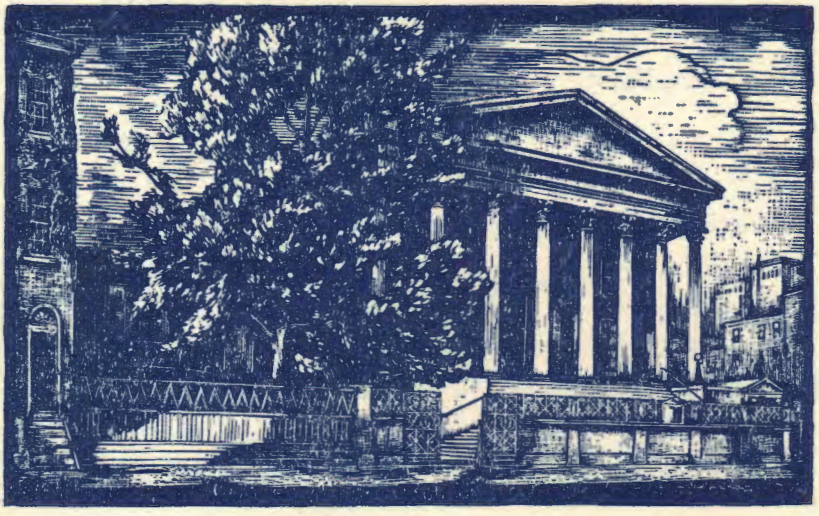

St. Luke's Church is supported only in small part by its endowments. For the rest it depends, (1) upon those who take pew sittings; (2) those who take weekly envelopes to aid the System of Offerings; (3) the loose offerings at the services; (4) special offerings at Christmas and Easter. Everyone can help in one of these ways, in return for the beauty and blessing he receives.

The Reverend Joseph Fort Newton, D. D., Rector

Clarence K. Bawden, Musical Director and Organist

Even the death of Jesus, majestic and revealing, without His empty tomb, would be the final and most tragic of all frustrations. It would mean that Jesus and Judas sank into the same blur of dust, under the Syrian stars, all moral values erased, every high faith false. It was not the Cross of Jesus, but His victory over the Cross, that set the world singing, and brought into the soul of man a new hope, a new and haunting kind of goodness.

Death, the dark mystery of life, lay behind Him, below Him, transcended, outsped. "He hath abolished death," said St. Paul, as the radio abolishes distance. Death as a physical fact remains—life without it would be intolerable; but death is no longer a terror, it is a trophy, a tool, a testimony that our little infinite human souls have value for God and to God. O, my soul, remember and rejoice!

A DESIGN FOR LIVING.

We must take time, take pains, have a plan, form spiritual habits, if we are to keep our souls alive; and now is the time to begin. A man to whom religion is a reality, and who knows what is meant by "the practice of salvation," keeps his balance, because the living center of his life is spiritual. He cannot be upset, nor shaken. The same hard knocks come to him as to others, but he reacts to them by the central law of his life. He suffers deeply, but he does not sour. He knows frustration, but he goes right on in his kindness and faith. He sees his own shortcomings but he does not give up, because a power rises up from his spiritual center and urges him to the best.

The latest book of Dr. Joseph Fort Newton, twelve years Rector of this Church, called "EVERYDAY RELIGION," will be on sale at Philadelphia Book Stores on April 10th. One aspect of immortality is that our Blessed Departed still live with us in their works. All of Dr. Newton's writings breathe a peculiar personal something direct from himself. Even those who never met him sense his personal charm through his writings. For those who have met and known Dr. Newton, his latest volume, "EVERYDAY RELIGION," will keep his gracious person in what Streeter called "The Immortality of Influence."

IMMORTALITY AND ETERNAL LIFE.

Immortality must be more than mere endless existence to be desirable. Many people dread the prospect, as Leuba's questionnaire proved. Buddhism offers so bleak a picture of the future life that his followers prefer the Nirvana of extinction. Here Christ does us a vast service by bringing "Immortality and eternal life to light through the Gospel." Through Christ death means liberation from the prison of the body, the abandonment of selfism which is the source of all our grief and the attainment of spiritual selfhood in a Community of souls, and eternal progress in the Love of God.

Christian Immortality will prove more glorious than we dared to hope. Golden streets, pearly gates, wings, halos, only faintly suggest the wonders of Eternal Life with God. In our noblest moments of prayer, music, hope and love we get intimations of this transcendent life as it shall be in a Community of Souls like Christ. "Eye hath not seen and ear hath not heard, nor has it entered into the heart of man to conceive" what the world of pure Light and Love shall be. Our Holy Religion offers us more than mere immortality, Eternal Life in God through Christ.

THE TWO GARDENS.

The Garden of Gethsemane was a sad spot that many people might deliberately avoid. It holds memories of betrayal and tragedy. St. John mentions another garden. "At the foot of the cross was a garden" where Jesus was buried in a rock tomb. Mary came there with flowers at dawn. It was the Resurrection Garden that ushered the great Transcendent Life into the World.

Since Christ God has created many, many spiritual resurrections. Millions of Christ's followers have been resurrected to newness of life. Paul and Stephen, Francis and Ignatius, you and I and many another have emerged from the burden-bearing and the crosses into gardens of spiritual renewal.

Look for it and you will find always at the foot of your cross a Garden Do some lovely act of genuine sacrifice. Not mere compulsory sacrifice such as life exacts of us all, but some act of voluntary sacrifice. Conceive and execute as a deed of your own will a visit of love, a gift of your best self to another's good. There, right at the foot of the cross, you will find a Garden of renewal and a Resurrection within.

CHURCH SUPPORT.

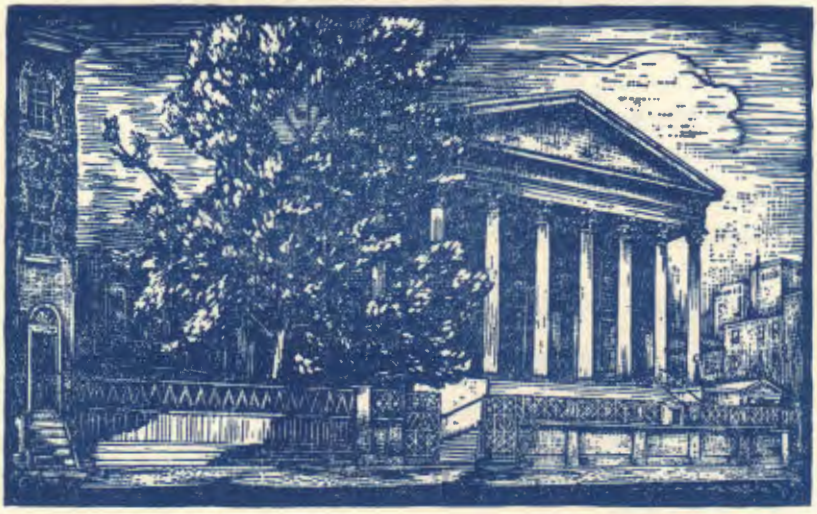

St. Luke's Church is supported only in small part by its endowments. For the rest it depends, (1) upon those who take pew sittings; (2) those who take weekly envelopes to aid the System of Offerings; (3) the loose offerings at the services; (4) special offerings at Christmas and Easter. Everyone can help in one of these ways, in return for the beauty and blessings he receives.

SPRING FLOWERS.

Gallio is identified in "The Robe" as the young Roman soldier who threw the dice at the Crucifixion and inherited the Robe of Christ. A year later curious to know more about Jesus, he accompanied Justus into Galilee. One spring day under a fig tree near Cana they reminisced about the Friend. "I never noticed flowers much," said Justus, "until He spoke of them. He seemed to know all about flowers, the lilies of the field and how they grow, wild flowers and garden flowers. He never spoke of dead things but growing, living things like sheep and grass, and babies and flowers."

God's extravagance has been remarked often by theologians and nowhere is this more in evidence than in the floral creation. Billions and billions of them of rare perfume and color were never seen by man and were obviously not made merely for man. Roses, orchids, forget-me-nots and a thousand other flowers are as pure an expression as we know of the sheer Glory of God. Don't miss the deeper significance of the Springtime. Grow a few flowers, enjoy their fragrance and beauty. Also, see in them the symbol of a Resurrection of ourselves from the mud and mire, and ourselves made into a reflection of the Glory of God. As Justus and Gallio did in the long ago under the fig tree in Galilee as they remembered the Friend.

EVENTS OF THE PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Presentation Service for the Lenten Offering of the Church Schools of the Diocese occurs at the Episcopal Academy at four o'clock, on June eleventh. The entire Service will be televised. Bishop Armstrong is the speaker. An assembly of the Junior Choirs will furnish the music. Miss Lois Bahm will present for this Church, an offering of above $200.00.

The Conference on Church Education of the Province of Washington meets at Hood College, Frederick, Maryland, from June 11th to 17th. Mrs. David Hershberger will attend as a delegate from this Church.

The Summer Conference for the Diocese for young people will be held at Haverford College from June 25th to July 1st. Bishop Hart is Chaplain; Bishop Remington has the orientation period; Bishop Armstrong gives the doctrine lectures. Able leaders have been chosen for discussion groups. The fee for attendance is $21.00. Some scholarships are available.

Three Diocesan Meetings were held in the Church of Saint Luke and The Epiphany during the month of May. At the Thank Offering Service on May 10th the Auxiliary of this Church made an offering of $300.00.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese announces a Prayer and Worship Retreat at St. Margaret's House, 5419 Germantown Ave., beginning at 5:00 P. M. on Wednesday, May 31st and concluding on Thursday, June 1st at 3:30.

For the beautiful Church Reception given to the Rector and his wife on April 28th, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Sinkler, Dr. and Mrs. Haushalter express heartfelt appreciation. This heartwarming event will linger always in our memories.

Membership in the Church of Saint Luke and The Epiphany is a subject the Rector will gladly discuss with you at any time. It may involve your Baptism, Confirmation or Transfer from some other parish or church. You may be a visitor or friendly attendant at this Church and as such are as welcome as its members. Under no circumstance does this Church seek members who are active in another parish. But if you are a visitor or friend not actively associated with another Church we urge you to enter the inner circle of active service in the communal life of this Church. You should have definite membership in the Body of Christ, and share in all the duties and privileges of Christ's Fellowship. What is a Church member? The eye, the hand, the foot, is a member of the body because it partakes of the life of the body, contributes to the welfare of the body, and is organically inseparable from the body. So it is with the member of the Church which Paul calls the "body of Christ." You may receive Confirmation at the annual Visitation of the Bishop to this Church or at frequent private Confirmations during the year. The Rector will welcome inquiries.

IN THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

An exquisite allegory of seven centuries ago throws a beam of light on the Kingdom of God. While the Cathedrals were being built in Europe a poem was published in Persia called "Mantiq ut-Tair." It was written by Farid-Ud-Din when one hundred years old. "Mantiq ut-Tair," which means "The Parliament of the Birds," is still read after seven hundred years because it speaks truth. In this ancient allegory the birds longed for a King. But when they came before their King each bird lost its identity and became something else.

When you lend yourself to the Kingdom of God you will experience some loss in the realm of self-will, self-direction. The Christian is not free as a bird to follow his own whim and caprice. It is the kind of loss one experiences in marriage where both husband and wife resign something of selfhood. But it is a blessed loss where we attain a higher selfhood on a higher level. The Christian calls Christ Master because Christ is Master of Life and His masterful insights lead to more abundant life. By taking Christ as Lord our bodies, minds and souls gain vastly in realization and life in God.

AWARENESS OF GOD.

During a Christmas Service in the Cathedral of Chartres a woman sat reading a novel. When the audience knelt for prayer she nonchalantly marked the book and soon resumed her reading. Most of the worshippers prayed with tearful eyes; one read a novel. This case of religious imperviousness is related by Margaret Halsey in With Malice Toward Some. But the equivalent of that event occurs often with ourselves. How many a time we pass a sunset, are deaf to music, or blind to a colorful garden because we are bent on lesser things.

Poets have been trying to tell us that God is immanent in nature, that He tries constantly to pry our eyes and ears open to the spiritual glories of all visible things. What is wanting on our part is Love. When a young man or woman falls in love the world is glamorous. "When the soul falls in love with Christ," says Saint Augustine, "the radiance of God is seen everywhere." The Presence of God in life and events is never brought home by logic. Logic is an impertinence. The Presence is realized by Love and then we become aware.

EVENTS AT ST. LUKE AND THE EPIPHANY.

Mrs. David Hershberger has been engaged by the Church as Parish Visitor. This was officially done at the meeting of the Vestry in June. Mr. and Mrs. Hershberger have been members of the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany for years, and are known to most of us. Among her other duties and activities Mrs. Hershberger will act as assistant to the Church Secretary, Mrs. John J. Riedinger. The Congregation may feel free to call upon the services of this new member of the Staff. You are asked also to receive her visits with cordiality. A Dedication of Mrs. Hershberger to this Service will be given at the Visitation of Bishop William Remington on October 15th.

A Confirmation Class is now formed by the Rector for presentation to Bishop William Remington on his Visitation on October 15th. The Class is now formed with an interesting group and will welcome additional members. The Rector offers instruction in the meaning of the Christian life and membership in the Episcopal Church. The Class will hold its first session at the Chancel at 9:45 on Sunday October 1st.

A Guest Book will be found on a special stand at the entrance to the Church, where all guests, visitors and friends are asked to register their names and addresses. Mrs. Hershberger will usually be in attendance at the registry. Our desire is to come to know our visitors, to include them in our mailing list, and to receive from them invitation to call.

The Church School holds its Autumn Opening on Sunday morning, October 1st. Mr. John Bahm as Superintendent has the assistance of a competent and devoted Staff of Teachers. The School offers the best of instruction in the Christian Life for all grades of youth. A Class for adults is offered by Mr. Alfred N. Redding of the Divinity School. A Division of the School is conducted from 11:00 to 12:15 so that parents may place their children for care and instruction while they attend the Morning Prayer and Worship.

The Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary, with representation from all the Episcopal Churches of this Diocese, will meet in this Church on October 11th and 13th. The Sessions will be held at various hours during each day. This Church is increasingly being used for Diocesan meetings, three of them being held here last year. Welcome.

The Woman's Auxiliary of this Church, with Mrs. Warren C. Mercer as President, has an Evening Branch, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth G. Nuss, President. The Woman's Auxiliary assumes that all women of the Church are members of this organization, and it hopes to include in its activities all ladies whose names are on the Church list.

The Red Cross Unit of this Church, with Mrs. Charles Stewart Wurts, Sr., as Chairman, holds its weekly session on Wednesdays from 10:00 morning to 4:00 afternoon. This Unit continues a distinguished service it has rendered for years.

GOD'S PERSISTENCE.

A poet traveller records the charm of a repeating clock in a quaint village of Switzerland. At noon he would hear twelve strokes from a Church tower. After a brief silence the bell tolled twelve strokes again and more emphatic. As though to say, for those who missed the first proclamation we will give a second chance. Nature, which Brierly said is organized on forgiveness, is generous in this manner. God has equipped His world with a million repeating clocks to recall His erring creatures to goodness.

The first time one violates his better nature with drink, nature drubs him and makes him sick. He is warned again and then again, and if he delays not he will be healed. The Divine Courts are easy on first offenders. So let us give thanks for the Angelus from the Church belfry. To us who stand like Millet's bent people in the open field, to those who toil in office, shop or home, comes the music from a bell in the Church tower. If we are obtuse, preoccupied or dull, the Angelus will sound again. If we hear it the second time we are on the road to understanding the persistent Love of God.

EVENTS AT ST. LUKE AND THE EPIPHANY.

The United Thank Offering. Presentation Service will be held on Thursday, November 9th, at 10:30 A. M., in St. Augustine's Church, 2026 Columbia Ave. Bishop Oliver Hart will be the Celebrant of Holy Communion, and the Rev. Seth C. Edwards, of Cuttington College, Liberia, will preach. You are urged to have a vital part in this Missionary Gift and Service. Cash may be given to Miss Grace Hewett or your check, made to "United Thank Offering," can be placed in the Church plate. The Offering is made by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese.

The Thanksgiving Offering, at the Service held in this Church on Thanksgiving Day, November 23rd, eleven o'clock, will go to the continuing ministry of the Episcopal Hospital. Although the Hospital is now run by the University of Pennsylvania, this offering will be used for the continuance of our Chaplaincy Service, and the care of patients sent from our various parishes. Twenty-five thousand dollars was given last year; more than that sum is needed for the continuance of Episcopal activities there this year. Give generously.

A Special Communion will be celebrated by Episcopal Churches of the Diocese on All Saints' Day, November 1st. The one in the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany is at 12:15 noon, the Rector being the Celebrant.

The House of Rest for the Aged, invites you, through its Board of Trustees and Managers, to attend the Sixtieth Annual Donation Day, Tuesday, November 7th, two to five, at 5919 Wayne Ave., Germantown. CHURCH SUPPORT

St. Luke's Church is supported only in small part by its endowments. For the rest it depends, (1) upon those who take pew sittings; (2) those who take weekly envelopes to aid the System of Offerings; (3) the loose offerings at the services; (4) special offerings at Christmas and Easter. Everyone can help in one of these ways in return for the beauty and blessing he receives.

Whoever thou art that entereth this Church, leave it not without kneeling down and saying a prayer to God for thyself, for those who minister, and for those who worship here. Surely the Lord is in this place.

MADONNA AND CHILD.

A famous art critic offers a rare insight concerning the paintings of The Madonna and Child by Correggio. The artist had done many paintings of the Sacred Event. Those done in his early years were cold and formalized. Those done after 1520 were sweetly human and suffused with love. It was in 1520 that Correggio experienced love and was married. The art critic attributes the transcendent glow of the later pictures to the elevation of Correggio's heart through love.

Among the most valued paintings of the world are those of The Madonna and Child. Raphael did fifty of them. Other notable ones are Pastoral Madonna by Titian, Madonna of the Cloister by Borgognone, Madonna Enthroned by Weyden, Madonna and Child with St. John by Perugino. You and I must also paint in our minds the likeness. May we see the event in its true colors. Let us see in the First Advent the beginning of a new creation and the promises of His Second Advent. This glow emanates from the birth of Christ for us because our hearts have been warmed by His Love.

EVENTS AT ST. LUKE AND THE EPIPHANY

A Music Hour of distinction is offered the Congregation and the public on Sunday Afternoon, December 3rd, at four o'clock by Mr. Clarence Bawden, Director, and the St. Luke and The Epiphany Choir. The Rector will also speak and the one-hour program will be broadcast over Station WFIL, 560 kilocycles. A Social Hour and Tea, with cordial invitation to the public, will follow. Other Musical Hours by the Choir are to follow throughout the year with possible radio broadcast.

A Special Christmas Offering has for many years been a feature of this Church. The Rector sends a letter with envelope for contribution to every member and to well-known friends and the response has always been in the generous Spirit of the Christmas Season. May it be so again this year. This Church has many worthy charities in its list of administrations. You can help the Rector and his assistants in those Mercies which mark all true Churches by making a generous gift to the Christmas Offering.

A Mission, with participation of the entire Diocese of Pennsylvania, will be held in Holy Trinity Church (19th and Walnut) from December 3rd to 10th. The evening meetings will be conducted and addressed by Bishop J. Gillespie Armstrong and The Rev. Dr. Thorne Sparkman, Rector of the Church of the Redeemer. The meetings will be held in Holy Trinity Church each evening at eight o'clock, excepting Saturday from December 3rd to 10th.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew's holds its Day Assembly Meeting on Nov. 30th, at six-thirty, in St. Luke's Church, Germantown. After dinner the Assembly will be addressed by its Chaplain, the Rev. Dr. S. Tagart Steele, and by its National President, Samuel S. Schmidt. A group from St. Luke and the Epiphany will be present to explore possibilities of a Chapter in this Church.

The Mendelssohn Club presents the first of its Concerts of Distinction in this Church on December 13th. The Presentation is Handel's "Messiah." The Mendelssohn Club is Philadelphia's oldest Mixed Chorus and their superb Choral renditions have won the acclaim of Philadelphia and New York papers. The Club and its Director, Mr. Harold W. Gilbert, cordially invite you to attend.

THE GOOD SHEPHERD.

Among Bedouin shepherds of the East sheep were herded in the open. Under the stars a fold was improvised by stakes and ropes and the sheep were driven into the inclosure. The shepherd would lie down for sleep across the entrance. He himself was the door to restrain wandering sheep, and repel wolves. Jesus knew well the uncritical, supine human trait of following some energetic leader and He often named His disciples sheep. And He proposed Himself the Good Shepherd and the Living Door into the fold.

It is amazing what price people will pay for protective security. For economic security nations will pay dictators heavily in the coin of liberty. We live in a wolfish world and we crave a Fold with door that protects us and excludes our enemies. Christ provides that spiritual security for His followers. If we, our Church and Nation, have the courage to trust the Good Shepherd, quit hankering for the open spaces and the wolves, accept the restraints of the fold, He will protect our deepest interests. Christ as Good Shepherd becomes in the time of danger the alert, dependable Living Door into the Fold.

EVENTS AT ST. LUKE AND THE EPIPHANY.

A Memorial Service for Dr. Joseph Fort Newton will be held in the Church on the Sunday nearest his Passing to the Higher Life, January 21st, 1951. Dr. Newton, who had served this Parish for twelve years, died on January 24th, 1950. The Service will be held from four to five o'clock. This Vesper will be addressed by Bishop Oliver Hart, Bishop of the Diocese, Dr. Russell S. Boles of the Vestry, and Dr. Walter M. Haushalter. At this time a Memorial Cross in Dr. Newton's honor will be presented to the Church by the Vestry. The Memorial will be broadcast over Station WFIL.

For the Many Beautiful Christmas Cards the Rector and his wife express heartfelt appreciation to the members and friends of the Church in the devout hope that all your wishes for Peace may be realized.

The Christmas Appeal for an offering to the Church and the Rector's Fund brought forth a generous response. The amount contributed will be published in the February Calendar.

The Financial Needs of the Church were presented to all members of the congregation more than a month ago asking everyone to make a definite pledge for Saint Luke and The Epiphany, and Missionary purposes. This was in keeping with a practice in all Episcopal churches. It is the spiritual duty of Christians to include the sacred causes of the church in their budget of spending. If you have not signed your card will you do so at once, so that your Church may appoint its gifts and expenditures for 1951.

In Anticipation: The Choir of St. Luke and The Epiphany, under direction of Mr. Clarence K. Bawden, will give its next Special Musical Service early in April.

The Mendelssohn Club will render "The Beatitudes" on February 21st and "Children's Crusade" on April 18th or 25th. The Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary holds an all-day and evening meeting in this Church on April 30th.

The Woman's Auxiliary: Mrs. Henry C. Biddle, MEMBER, THE COMMITTEE OF RESEARCH FOR THE UNITED NATIONS, will speak at the regular meeting to be held on Tuesday, January 9th.

The House of Rest in Germantown, announces that a new wing will be dedicated by Bishop Oliver Hart and Bishop William Remington on Friday, January 26th at four in the afternoon.

THE CROSS

Through all the varying moods and fashions of Art for 1900 years, the Cross has held highest place as the Symbol of our Faith. It has been exalted by the Hymn-writers; Stainer, Baring-Gould, Watts. Exquisite rhapsodies could be recited on the Cross from Paul, Thomas a Kempis, Shelley, William Penn. Language is hardly equal to the task of praise. Near to the best of all that has ever been said are the words of Thomas Drake, in the Biblioth: "The Cross is the only ladder whereby we can ascend to heaven."

Certain iconoclasts, from a fancied height of intellectual elevation, have decried images and symbols. These very persons will be devotees of paintings and sculptures in art galleries. If they went to a lecture on flower arrangement they would welcome demonstrations with actual roses and lilies in vases. Most of us are picture minded and visual education is on the way. So, when we go to our Churches we love to look upon the great Symbol of Calvary at the Altar and in the stained glass windows. It was once outside the Church in the streets, and on the Hill, and we must take it there too.

EVENTS AT ST. LUKE AND THE EPIPHANY

Lenten Observance. Churches of the Episcopal Communion make a great deal of the Forty Days before Easter. Historically Lent has been used to great spiritual advantage by the Church. For us it must mean an intensification of the devotional life, the elimination of certain distracting and useless pleasures of the world, and the commitment of ourselves to the way of prayer and sacrifice. Beginning on the opening day of Lent, this year, February 7th, you are asked to make a special place in your heart and calendar for the services of the Church, for daily meditations and Lenten readings, for a more rigorous and vigorous devotion of yourself to your duties as a Christian. The world is in one of its worst historical crises; the Observance of Lent may be the spiritual medicine it needs to bring it back from disaster.

The Memorial to Dr. Joseph Fort Newton on Sunday afternoon, January 21st, culminated in the presentation to the Church by the Vestry of a Memorial Cross. This is in Memory of Dr. Newton, and will be used in the Church Processions in conformity with the beautiful practice of nearly all Episcopal Churches.

The Christmas Offering by the Congregation, in response to the Christmas appeal for gifts to the Church and the Rector's Fund, was Fifteen Hundred Fifty-eight Dollars. With appreciation to every giver the Church accepts this gift and shall endeavor to administer it with strict stewardship for spiritual ends and the relief of need.

Mr. Edwin G. Strang has served the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany for many years as Verger. This service he has performed with unusual grace. His is the difficult task of recognizing members and friends of the congregation, helping to seat them in the short space before the service. Please lend every co-operation to Mr. Strang, so that the Divine Worship may be conducted with quietness and reverence.

The Red Cross organization of this Church, in the ten years of its services, has produced and given away more than 25,000 articles. The Red Cross comprises about 25 ladies of the Church with Mrs. Charles Stewart Wurts, Sr., as Chairman.

The Choir, under direction of Mr. Clarence K. Bawden will give its next Sunday afternoon Special Musical Service early in April. The Mendelssohn Club offers "The Beatitudes" on February 21st.

Copies of the Lenten Forward, an Episcopal hand book of Lenten prayers and meditations, can be secured at the desk in the entrance to the Church. These are free, but if you wish, deposit a small coin in the basket to defray cost. This manual of devotions, in your pocket or purse, will be an inspiration as you ride in bus or train.

CHRIST IS BEST.

An ancient Chinese Emperor was informed that there were three widely popular religions in his country, Buddhism, Confucianism and Shintoism. Thereupon he announced to his people that he was a Buddhist, a Confucianist and a Shintoist. Supposedly, if Christianity had had a wide following in his land the amiable Emperor would have been a Christian also. Desiring to please all men and having a political cast of mind he was a sort of Fusionist.

The early Christians preached that Jesus Christ is the only name under heaven among men whereby we can be saved. They had a sure foundation for this in the teaching of their Lord that He was the Way, the Truth and the Life, and that no man came unto the Father except through Him. What would be achieved by trying to be a Communist, a Democrat and a Republican all in one? While Christianity is friendly to all good religions it admits equality with none. Cultivate for yourself a distinctive Christianity. Make Christ supreme and elevate Him to the First and the Best.

SIGNIFICANT PARISH EVENTS.

A Parish Chapter of the international Episcopal Brotherhood of St. Andrew is in immediate prospect in the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany. This organization of men and boys is coterminus with the Anglican Communion in all parts of the world. The Brotherhood is governed by two Rules, the Rule of Prayer and the Rule of Service. It aims to revitalize the spiritual life of the Laity and to win loyal adherents to the Church of Christ.

Lenten Noonday Services are conducted from the Chancel by the Rector each Wednesday until Easter. The time is 12:15. The object is Spiritual Refreshment by fellowship in Prayer and Meditation.

The Woman's Auxiliary cordially invite the Women of the Parish to a Special Lenten Meeting, Tuesday, March 6th at 3 P. M. at the Parish House. We urge all women of the Parish to meet our guest speaker Mrs. William Remington, wife of Bishop Remington, and have a cup of tea with us.

The Annual Election of Vestrymen for this Parish occurs on Tuesday, March 27th. The names of those proposed to fill vacancies on the Vestry are read from the Chancel on Easter Day. The Election Judges will be at the Church on Easter Monday from 4 to 5 P. M., March 26th.

The Choir in Retrospect and Prospect. The Choir, under direction of Mr. Clarence K. Bawden, were honored with invitation to sing in the Grand Court of the Wanamaker Company on Wednesday afternoon, February 14th. On April 8th they will render another Sunday afternoon Musical Service, with Community Social Hour to follow.

The Evening Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, President Miss Edith Ann Snodgrass, invites you on Wednesday evening, March 7th, to the showing of pictures by Dr. Nevin Elwell Funk, "Our Canadian Neighbors, from the Pacific to the Saguenay." Refreshments—offering at the door.

The Holy Week, from Palm Sunday through Easter, can be a means of enrichment, joy and stability to you in this time of world anxiety. Attend your Church on Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter. Read some good book of spiritual inspiration, preferably the Gospel of John. Make the conclusion of this Lent spiritually significant, and then see things and events improve in every department of your life.

CHURCH SUPPORT.

St. Luke's Church is supported only in small part by its endowments. For the rest it depends, (1) upon those who take pew sittings; (2) those who take weekly envelopes to aid the System of Offerings; (3) the loose offerings at the services; (4) special offerings at Christmas and Easter. Everyone can help in one of these ways in return for the beauty and blessing he receives.

Whoever thou art that entereth this Church, leave it not without kneeling down and saying a prayer to God for thyself, for those who minister, and for those who worship here. Surely the Lord is in this place.

ACTIVATING THE IDEAL.

In his Madonna of the Future Henry James introduces an artist, Theobald, who dreamed and dreamed of painting a glorious picture of the Madonna. He idled away his life in Florence, lounging in the chambers where Angelico had toiled. He would rhapsodize to friends of the supreme Madonna with which he would dazzle the world. But the noiseless years ebbed away and his dream evaporated into pious wishes. Let us not discourage dreaming. Such incubation is necessary for the engineer, the architect, the creator of a house, a poem or a good meal.

But ideals that are divorced from reality and unexpressed in action are cheap. Sentimentalists, drunkards and opium-eaters have dreams aplenty, but their moony, sugary dreams seldom get into action. The hard work of the Church calls for Idealists who touch the world of reality and are not afraid of action. Particularly in politics and religion we must rally more Christians of exalted ideals who can face privation, dirt and scars to get Christ's ideals effected. Civilization is one long search for the Constructive Idealist, and when one appears the world stands in awe and makes way for him.

EVENTS OF THE PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Choir of St. Luke and the Epiphany, under direction of Mr. Clarence K. Bawden, brings another Sunday afternoon Musical Program on April 8th, from four to five o'clock. These events are largely attended by music lovers and afford the Church opportunity to make new friends. The program will be enriched by Marie Purnoy Ramsay at the piano, and the Rector will bring a Message. Following, from five to six o'clock, the Church entertains in a social hour at Tea with ladies of the congregation acting as hostesses.

To Membership on the Vestry the following were elected on March 27th: Mr. John Bahm, Dr. John L. Redman, Dr. Russell S. Boles, Mr. William Curren. The first three named continue service on the Vestry; Mr. William Curren is elected to fill the vacancy made by the death of Mr. Walter Price.

A Corporate Communion for the women of the Diocese is celebrated April 2nd at 8 o'clock A. M., in Christ's Church, with breakfast following.

A Retreat for all the Rectors of the Churches of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will be held at Buck Hill Falls from April the 9th to 13th. This is a fellowship for quiet spiritual intake, cooperation in work, for planning, meditation and strength. The Rector will attend but will return if necessary for any important service for any family of the parish.

Mrs. Walter (Mabelle) Price brings honor to this Church by being made the 1950 recipient of the famous Gimbel Award. The award was made this year because of the long and eminent service of Mrs. Price for the blind. Two members of the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany have now received this distinction of the Gimbel Award, Mrs. Walter Price and Mrs. Ephrem Zimbalist.

The Mendelssohn Club, which regularly presents its programs in this Church, offers on April 25th at eight o'clock Gabriel Pierne's "The Children's Crusade." The Club in 1947 presented this oratorio in New York City, and won the acclaim of the New York Times. The boys of St. Peter's famous Choir will again form the nucleus of the Children's Chorus. The public and members of this Church anticipate this event with unusual pleasure.

Baptisms: James John Albright, son of James J. and Edna A. Albright.

SELF-CRITICISM: Prelude to Saintliness.

Unless you have a stout heart do not read the following, or attempt its recommendation. It is concerned with self-criticism. The virile, idealistic, "perfectionist" type of mind will often make itself thoroughly disliked by harpooning into other people's affairs with harsh criticism. When next the perfectionist mood moves you to criticism, undertake the following spiritual exercise. Stand before your mirror. Point your finger at the reflection, and overhaul yourself from top to bottom, inside and out. You will find it very difficult to name yourself for what you are. But try. Try to make an honest estimate of the bad and good points.

Once you do this and continue it day after day, an amazing change will take place in you. A sense of humility will flood your mind, and out of that you will get power. The people with whom you associate will notice the change. Instead of brash intrusion into others' affairs will come a quiet, gentle, kindly concern. There will actually come about a change in the lines and expression of your face. Your influence will be sought after and one after another obstacles will disappear from your line of advance. You have a right to criticise President, Bishop, Rector, wife, husband, anybody, anything. These criticisms hardly ever win acceptance unless they come from minds that have burned their own dross in the fires of self-criticism.

EVENTS OF THE PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Diocesan Advancement Fund, asking for $400,000. presents its campaign to all Parishes of this Diocese on Whitsunday, May 13th. These funds are to be distributed to a Conference Center, the Divinity School, and new Missions. Givers may designate their gifts to any of the institutions of the Episcopal Church in this Diocese. The 80,000 communicants ought not to find it difficult to raise this sum for these high spiritual ends.

The sum suggested for this Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany is $8,400. Three of our Vestrymen have assumed posts of leadership in the campaign: C. Stewart Wurts, as Vice-Chairman, T. Johnson Ward as Chairman for the South Philadelphia Convocation, Dr. John L. Redman as Chairman for this Parish. You will soon be in receipt of a letter inviting your gift. Each giver will receive acknowledgement of his gift. Whether this Church receives the full amount asked, more or less, is not so important as that every member shall make a gift. This is the emphasis of the Campaign that every communicant shall give.

The Baccalaureate Services of the Jefferson Medical College Hospital, School of Nursing, are held in this Church on Wednesday evening, May 2nd, the address being delivered by the Rector.

The Church Announcements appearing on the bulletin board at the entrance are the work and the contribution of Mr. Harold Goodwin, of the Mendelssohn Club. The beautifully illuminated letters of the sermon announcements bring many favorable comments from passersby.

The Easter Offering was one of the largest in recent years. It totalled $2,046.24. The Vestry and Rector desire to thank every person who helped to make this gift possible. We believe that if you knew fully the details of the spiritual administration of these monies you would be happy in the consciousness of your own personal part in "doing good in Christ's name."

A Confirmation Class, now about ten in number, meets with the Rector and will soon be presented to the Bishop. It is not too late for you to enter this class for instruction in the steps and the path that lead to membership in the Episcopal Church.

The Episcopal Hospital at Front and Lehigh Ave. invites the public to a Garden Fete on Wednesday, May 23rd, from eleven A. M. to nine P. M. Eighteen colorful booths will provide entertainment and Lunch and Dinner are served.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which for 80 years has existed as a Worldwide Fellowship of the Evangelicals of the Episcopal Church, will shortly have a Chapter in this Church. It will start with about fifteen men. If you are interested, inquire of the Rector.

In honor of the Rt. Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Remington, on Tuesday, May 15th from 3 to 5 P. M., Bishop and Mrs. Hart request the pleasure of your company at tea. The reception takes place at the Church Farm School, six miles west of Paoli on the Lincoln Highway, Route 30 at Glen Loch.

Baptisms: Frank Wayne Baldino, son of Frank and Jean Baldino.

James Mark Mitchell, son of Louis and Darcker Mitchell.

THE STRONG MAN THAT IS GOOD.

"Imbecility," said Emerson, "is the key to all ages, imbecility in the vast majority of men at all times." Knowing themselves to be weak the multitude distrust their own minds, their own resources, their own abilities. They hunger for some great man to appear who will lead them to what they vaguely desire. Gladstone described English society as a gradation of souls the apex of which is the Throne. Only in theory is there human equality. In school-room and church, on athletic field, in labor movements, politics and war is one vast gradation of souls looking for the Strong Masterful Soul.

America went well nigh hysterical recently at the return to our shores of one of the Great Strong Men of our generation. Millions of the multitude lined the streets of the great cities to applaud and pay tribute. Many feel it is good to have this great man back on American soil as a stabilizing factor. It is fortunate for the multitude when the strong man who wins their adulation is also a Good Man. If we could examine and surely know all about the strong-good man we would find him deeply devoted to God. In these times of crisis let us pray God that the strong men who are to shape our destinies may know and love God and Jesus Christ.

EVENTS OF THE PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Diocesan Advancement Fund, asking for $400,000. was launched in this Diocese on Whitsunday. It was presented from the Chancel of this Church for a series of Sundays preceding. The sum asked of the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany was $8,400. Under the Chairmanship of Dr. John L. Redman the appeal was presented to all members of the Church. The results achieved thus far are far short of the goal. As soon as we believe the giving of the congregation is completed a statement will be made from the Chancel of the total contributed. Many members have not yet been heard from, and if you are among this number please make your contribution at once.

Services of Worship for the Summer will be conducted in this Church on every Sunday of July and August. Because of the downtown location, the vacations of the Choir and Organist during July and August, the absence of most of the congregation during these months, the Sunday services will be curtailed. A Communion will be celebrated on the first Sunday of each month, July, August and September. Most of the services will consist of Morning Prayer. The Rector will be available during most of July. Provision will be made and announced as to any further personal or family services needed by the Congregation. The first full formal Service of the Autumn will be on the second Sunday of September.

The Social Services rendered by this Church to the Community and the Diocese are many. The Golden Age Club, under the direction of Miss Grace Hewett makes use of the Church on Thursday afternoons. The Mother's Club, under the direction of Mrs. W. C. Turney, continues on Wednesday nights during the year. The Mendelssohn Club rehearses on Monday nights throughout the year, and renders three great Recitals in the Church. The Cerebral Palsy Group, under direction of Jack Comerford, uses the Church on Friday nights. The meetings of the Red Cross, the Woman's Auxiliary, the Altar Guild are listed in the calendar. Nearby schools often hold social fellowships. The Diocese at present makes use of our equipment for as many as five meetings a year. The Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany is delighted to help all causes devoted to lifting up God in our City.

New Members: Mrs. F. D. McCormick, from St. Paul's, Beloit, Wis., Miss Emma Goodfellow, from Good Sheperd, Kensington, Mrs. June J. Miller.

By Confirmation: Mrs. Pierce Furber, Miss Mary Furber, Mrs. William A. Hentz, Mrs. W. J. Peterson, John Emory Barnes, and Mrs. Elizabeth Sarah Barnes, Miss Lucie Knies, A. Fred Forster.

By Baptism: Nancy Jane Theresa Miller, Mark Charles Gallagher.

In Memoriam: Isabella H. Oberteuffer.

I wish to thank all the members of the Parish for their heart-warming response to the appeal of the United Thank Offering. Each year this fine work is winning greater support. All the women are urged to take part in this worthy cause. What it has done for others it can do for you.

G. E. HEWETT,
Treasurer.

LOOKING AT THE ALTAR.

The remains of a once lovely church, long ago destroyed by lightning, still adorn a height two thousand feet above Lake Lugano in Italy. The Altar and the image of the Patron Saint were untouched, and still afford the chief ornament of Lake Lugano. The Ascent is steep and toilsome. Wordsworth climbed to the summit more than a hundred years ago, and wrote a poem to the "Church of San Salvador" as his tribute of worship. He called the climb rewarding. The view of the Alps gave more "beauty and sublimity" than any other point in Europe.

Pay frequent visits to your Church. Maybe you live some distance away and the climb is arduous. But the journey for you can be rewarding, as the climb was that day long ago for Wordsworth. In the quietness of your pew gaze at the altar, and the image of our patron Saint Luke. Beyond anything intoned by minister or choir you may hear a Voice that will lend you guidance, comfort and courage. And when you leave the Church you will find that the world looks less sordid and more sublime. May you experience here that reward Wordsworth knew for climbing to the Altar high above Lake Lugano in the long ago.

EVENTS OF THE PARISH AND DIOCESE.

"Let us make resound the sweet Song of Home."

(Concinamus, O sodales—sung at Winchester and other English schools.)

Home-Coming! September the 9th, Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity, is the date of the annual autumn Home-Coming of the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany. Something comparable to the homegathering has been observed by this historic Church for more than one hundred ten years. Each member and friend is asked to make special effort to be present. And more than bringing yourself, bring and diffuse the spirit of friendliness, the essence of the Church. There are many lonely people in this great city. We especially welcome strangers, and hope you may be moved to become a part of our fellowship and our family of Communicants. After vacationing in far-away places, we thrill again at the prospect of Home and the busy program of another great Church Year.

Visit of the Bishop. In keeping with the Episcopal custom of an annual Visitation of the Bishop this Church will welcome Bishop J. Gillespie Armstrong on October 14th. On this occasion the Bishop will preach and confirm. If you are not a member of the Church you are invited to inquire of the Rector the steps leading to Confirmation. Give your name to the Rector and the times of meeting of the Confirmation Class will soon be announced.

Midweek Communion will be celebrated by this Church on each Wednesday of the Church year, beginning the 12th of September at 12:15 o'clock. This is part of a Diocesan program in which the Holy Communion will be celebrated in down-town Philadelphia from Tuesday to Friday successively by Holy Trinity, St. Luke and The Epiphany, St. Peters, and St. Stephen's Churches.

Appreciation is hereby given for the summer services rendered the Church during July, August and September. The services of Morning Prayer were conducted by Professor George T. Davis, Teacher in the Episcopal Academy and the Rector's Warden at St. Andrew's, and Alfred Redding, Lay Readers; the Communions were celebrated by the Rev. Dr. Percy Stockman and the Rev. Thomas A. M. Barnett.

The Bryan Green Mission, to be held in the Municipal Auditorium for ten days during the early part of December, should enlist the enthusiasm of every member of this Church. This evangelist comes from England and is presented by the Bishops of this Diocese. He is sponsored by the Episcopal Communion. He has drawn crowds of twelve thousand in the New York Cathedral. This Church can realize quickening and intake of membership from this Spiritual Mission. Anticipate it and become a part of its Evangel.

CHURCH SUPPORT.

St. Luke's Church is supported only in small part by its endowments. For the rest it depends, (1) upon those who take pew sittings; (2) those who take weekly envelopes to aid the System of Offerings; (3) the loose offerings at the services; (4) special offerings at Christmas and Easter. Everyone can help in one of these ways in return for the beauty and blessing he receives.

Whoever thou art that entereth this Church, leave it not without kneeling down and saying a prayer to God for thyself, for those who minister, and for those who worship here. Surely the Lord is in this place.

INSPIRATION.

Mohammed claimed for the Koran that it was written in rays of light in the beginning of time on alabaster at the right of the Throne of God. A copy of this book, bound in gold, silk and jewels, was conveyed to the lowest Heaven by the angel Gabriel. The event occurred in the blissful and mysterious night of Al-Kadr. Portions of the book were revealed to Mohammed by Gabriel to the sound of bells. No human tongue or pen assisted the Prophet. The Sacred Book is never to be touched without previous purification. Copies are often written in gold and bound in precious stones.

The Holy Scriptures of the Christian come to us by inspiration of God and also by human tongue and pen. They were worked out in the storm and stress of life, uttered often in heartache and again in joy. The story they tell of Redemption in Christ has been a source of inspiration to humble and great for many, many generations. Paul startles us by saying that Christians are miniature Bibles. "We are epistles read of all men." When the hurrying world neglects and forgets the Bible, when they read your life, may they find reflected the Inspiration of the Sacred Book.

STEADFAST FAITH.

The Cathedral of Seville is the largest Gothic structure in existence, vast enough to contain several other Cathedrals. It was begun a century before Columbus and took a century to build. Adjacent to the Cathedral and much older is the tower of La Giralda, which is the only building in Spain to rival the Alhambra in beauty. On the top of the tower of La Giralda is a dome that lifts its head nearly four hundred feet into the sky. A golden statue of Faith thirteen feet high surmounts the top of the dome. This statue can be seen resplendent in the sunlight from all parts of the city and it moves freely in the wind like a vane.

This golden Statue of the Faith has conveyed its message to generations of men and women much like ourselves from the searching age of Columbus to the scientific age that is ours. If the Statue could open its lips and speak it would tell us of a peculiar characteristic of Faith. Faith turns in many directions and adapts itself to the winds of time and circumstance. But its foundation reaches deep down to the rock. Long after the storms about Communism and humanism have blown themselves out our Holy Faith will shine and stand firm for it is founded on those most precious and eternal values revealed in Christ.

LIBERTY ONLY THROUGH CHRIST

The words of Lyman Abbott concerning Russia, as quoted below, are so fantastic as to be unbelievable. To resolve your doubts we offer the documentation. In "Christ Alone Upon the Cross", Dr. Abbott, a preacher of liberalism and humanism, praises the Russian Revolution, its overthrow of the Church-State, the noble masses who would bring a better liberty than "supernatural intervention." And then!—"never in the future will the liberties of the Russian people be subject to the whims of a cruel and corrupt bureaucracy."

Our Lord Jesus Christ did not expect, and the Apostles did not expect, and genuine Christians do not expect freedom from chains by revolutions of the masses. Only Christians corrupted by the world could indulge such fantastic, humanistic delusions. What Dr. Abbott would better say is that Russia will be free from chains by elevating Christ and His Church. The chains are tightening on many of us, and you and I shall be free of chains not by political contraptions, but by the spiritual grace of Christ through His Church. Lend your best energies to the Church, its purification, its regeneration, and its power in America.

EVENTS IN THE DIOCESE AND PARRISH.

The Christmas Letter from the Rector will soon be in your hands. Your generosity in years past has greatly aided our spiritual work for the needy throughout the year. Plan to give with generosity and to you—a Happy Christmas.

The Bryan Green Mission begins in Convention Hall on the evening of December 2nd and continues for ten days. The Missioner is a distinguished Evangelist of Birmingham, England, who has held phenomenal Missions recently in England, Australia, Canada and the United States. He has a peculiar spiritual compulsion. This Mission is Episcopal, planned by our Bishops, and for all Parishes of our wide Diocese. But it cordially invites the public. May many members of this Church attend often and carry its fervor and grace home to our needs.

On the Third Sunday of December at eleven o'clock two beautiful vases for flowers for the Altar will be consecrated. They are presented by Miss Eliza Olsen in memory of her mother, Mrs. J. Ivan Olsen. The Donor of the gift and the entire Altar Guild, President Mrs. Warren C. Mercer, are asked to attend this Service.

Each Wednesday at twelve-fifteen, as part of a downtown Diocesan program, the Rector celebrates the Holy Communion with invitation to business men and women.

Little Children will be cared for during the Sunday Morning Service, from eleven to twelve-thirty, by teachers of the Church School. Speak to Messrs. Kniley, Bahm, Strang.

The Evening Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, President, Miss Edith Snodgrass, meets for December on Thursday evening, the 13th, at seven o'clock. This group recently presented Mrs. Muriel Pfhaler with scenic pictures of Mexico and a charming lecture. They specially invite young women of the Parish.

The Many Social Services of this Church, performed by volunteer workers and by the staff, will be published shortly in an issue of the Diocesan News. Many of the members of this Church, and of the Diocese will be agreeably surprised to know the extent of these Social Services. We are told to let our light shine that men may see the good deeds and glorify God. This Church is also interested in the extention of the Diocesan News. You will soon be asked to take this splendid paper into your homes and keep informed of the events of Christian progress in the Diocese and the part played by St. Luke and The Epiphany.

The Overwhelming Response to the appeal for the United Thank Offering was most gratifying. Our final total was $339.66. To all these dear friends Miss Grace E. Hewett, Treasurer, extends a hearty thanks.

The Woman's Auxiliary: The regular meeting will be postponed until Tuesday, December 11th at 2 o'clock. The date is changed to make way for a special meeting for women of the Bryan Green Mission, which will be held in Holy Trinity Church from 2:30 until 4 o'clock on Tuesday, December 4th.

The Mendelssohn Club presents in this Church, on Thursday Evening, December 27th, the "Messiah."

THE CHALICE OF CHRIST

An ornate silver Chalice with beautiful carved portrait of Christ was unearthed by Arab workmen digging a half century ago in the ruins of ancient Antioch of Syria. This reliquary of silver protects an inner cup, a crude egg-shaped vessel of tarnished metal. Certain authorities on early Christian Art have concluded that the inner cup was used by Christ when He instituted the Holy Eucharist. This Chalice now resides in America. It was acquired by the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and is on exhibit at the Cloisters.

The pursuit of the Holy Grail, or the Chalice from which Christ drank at the Last Supper, was a favorite interest of Knights of the Round Table in the Middle Ages. The Parsival theme and many another romantic legend grew up around the pursuit of the lost Holy Grail, and the attempt to restore the precious vessel to Christendom. By making a visit to the Cloisters you might actually look upon the Chalice of the Last Supper. Maybe yes, maybe no. What you can surely know is that when you kneel at your own Altar you can touch with your lips a Chalice that the Real Presence of Christ extends to you.

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

Contributions for relief in the stricken areas of Europe, specially in Holland and Belgium, are being invited from many sources. Members of this Church may place monies designated for Relief in the plates or send checks to the Church, and we shall see that they get to the needy people most effectively.

A Beautiful Piece of Fairlinen was dedicated to the Service of the Mysteries of the Sacred Altar of the Church on the first Sunday of February at the hour of the Holy Communion. This lovely addition to the many beautiful adornments of the Altar was given by Miss Mildred Lee, in Memoriam of her sister Florence Lee, who once served on the Altar Guild.

On Recent Observance of Theological Sunday this Church made gift to the Philadelphia Divinity School of Seventy-five Dollars.

At the Woman's Auxiliary Meeting, on Tuesday afternoon, March 3rd, at two o'clock, Mrs. Haushalter will speak on the subject, "Liberia."

The Board of Directors of the House of Rest for the Aged elected Miss Elsie A. Stauffer, of the Evening Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary of this Church, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Warren C. Mercer. From their recent Donation Day appeal, the House of Rest collected Two Hundred Five Dollars in this Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany.

The Mendelssohn Club presents the famous Lenten number, "Parker's Hora Novissima," in this Church on the evening of March 3rd, at 8:30.

On Wednesday Noons, throughout the period of Lent, the Holy Communion will be celebrated at twelve ten o'clock. At each of these Lenten Celebrations, the Rector will offer a Meditation on some aspects of our Lord's Prayer. This Service is specially designed to fit into the lives of busy men and women in the business district.

The Holy Week Services of the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany are usually the high spot of the Christian Year in point of attendance. Last year twelve hundred fifty people attended the Three Hour Service of Good Friday. The Holy Week Services this year begin with the Palm Sunday (March 29th) Communion and Preaching, then Wednesday Communion and Preaching, then Holy Thursday Corporate Communion and Preaching. At the Good Friday Three Hour Service the Rector presents eight addresses on The Unending Passion Play for Christ, the Church and the Christian. The week concludes with the Easter Communion and Easter Message. Every member of this Parish is asked to deepen his Christian life during Lent, and attend his Church more faithfully. Then, expect a buoyant, yes, the most satisfactory Easter you have ever known.

AN AWARD OF THE FREEDOMS FOUNDATION

was made to Dr. Haushalter in February for the outstanding magazine article of 1952. The article or articles appeared in the Freeman Magazine of New York on the Communist situation in American churches.

LITTLE OLGA AT EASTER

While in Moscow a brief time before the second World War, I met little Olga, and she comes to my mind unbidden at this Eastertide. I had left the International Hotel, strolled through the Red Square, and sat down on a bench under the walls of the vast Kremlin. Then came little Olga, a bundle of winsomeness of five years, poorly dressed, but happy, in the care of a young Russian couple. Wanting to give her a present I nodded and smiled. Her parents, evidently warned against foreigners and the clergy, jerked her along, and she disappeared smiling and waving back. Little Olga by this date must be twenty years of age.

Possibly Leo Tolstoy once walked along the Red Square, and he too might have sat on a bench under the walls of that ancient Kremlin. Although a Nobleman, he left all his material possessions, and walked barefoot through the streets of Russia, preaching Jesus Christ. He wrote a soul-searching book called "Resurrection." If only, instead of the ominous Lenin and Stalin, they would elevate the tomb of Tolstoy in the Red Square, the world would be safer for you and me, and for Olga too. Let us hope that Olga will hear about Tolstoy and the Resurrection, and smile as I once saw her smile. And let us hope that men and women everywhere shall learn what great good is possible for our world through the Light and Love of Christ's Easter.

FOR THE GLORY OF GOD.

One of the rarest and most prized books of the world, the "St. Cuthbert Gospels", is possessed by the British Museum. They date back to the Eighth Century and were written by an unknown monk in the Monastery of the Holy Isle off the Northumbrian coast. It is in perfect condition embellished in color and gold. Scholars indicate that those early copyists did such exquisite work because their motive was not money nor fame but only the Glory of God. In their quiet retreats in the monasteries these good men were conscious of no eye but the eye of God and no glory but the Glory of God.

Is it possible to bring this spiritual motivation of the Glory of God into your and my workaday world? It is. Kipling tells of a realm where no one shall work for money or fame but shall paint as unto God. If you have a meal to prepare or a room to dust or a duty to do for the Church try doing it purely for God. You will find a glow and a glory in the deed and deep satisfaction and peace in yourself. There have been moments when you did this very thing and they are sweet to recall. If we could have known that old monk in the Holy Isle of twelve hundred years ago, who transcribed the gorgeous "St. Cuthbert Gospels", we would have seen in his face also the Glory of God.

EVENTS OF PARISH AND DIOCESE.

June in the Anglican Calendar is made specially significant by the Commemoration of the three Saints, St. Barnabas, St. John the Baptist, and St. Peter. By his preaching from the pulpit the Rector will devote all four Sundays to commemoration of June as the month of the Saints.

During the Summer months of July and August the Church will be open as always, but with modified services. Because of absence of most of our communicants the following schedule will be followed. A Service of Holy Communion will be observed each First Sunday of the month at eleven o'clock. On all other Sundays a Reading of Morning Prayer will be conducted by our Verger and Lay Reader, Mr. Edwin G. Strang, at eleven o'clock. The Church offices will be open each day and through the Secretaries, members and friends of the Church can secure necessary services for funerals, marriages or baptisms. Watch the papers for usual announcements of the Church.

Miss Isabel H. Johnson was inducted into her office as Assistant Secretary and Parish Visitor in the Chancel last Sunday with a special service of Consecration. The Congregation are asked to accord Miss Johnson a cordial welcome in her visits from the Rector.

An Autumn Buffet Supper is being planned at which it is hoped that the entire Congregation of the Church can be gotten together. An unusual program will be presented that will recall something of the great history of the Church in our Parish, Diocese and City.

The Evening Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, President Miss Edith Ann Snodgrass, holds its concluding business meeting of the year in the Church on Monday, June 1st, at seven fifteen.

The Annual Strawberry Festival, sponsored by the Mother's Club under direction of Mrs. Wm. C. Turney, occurs in the patio and the Parish Hall on Wednesday evening, June the 10th, at eight o'clock. The entire community is invited.

In Downtown Philadelphia in nearly a straight line between the two rivers the Episcopal Communion has nine old historic Churches. They survive a vast exodus of population from the center to the suburbs of the City. Twenty-five years ago, under the Rectorship of Dr. David M. Steele, a long article appeared in the Bulletin concerning a proposal to merge St. Luke and The Epiphany with another down-town Church. Dr. Steele explained that the Parish of St. Luke and The Epiphany had been deserted by removals to the suburbs. That was in 1932. This Church still exhibits many flourishing features. All communicants are asked to prayerfully and realistically explore the future for the fullest service of this historic Church to our Diocese and City.

BELIEVING THE BEST

Easter Meditation.

The Walter Scott's The Pirate, a fortune-teller made a rich living from the superstitious wish-thinking of sailors. Out of the seaport of Stromnes in the Orkney Islands sailors went on dangerous voyages to the seven seas. They craved assurances of a happy voyage and safe return. For a sizeable fee the fortune-teller would sell them this pleasant information that the voyage would be a happy and prosperous one, and the return speedy and safe. A vast deal of wish-thinking is done by us all, and we use as our fortune-tellers astrologers, or friends that bolster up our beliefs.

We have a right, a spiritual and a religious right, and without any self-deception, to believe the best. In fact this is the essence of Faith to have the assurance of things hoped for. We have a right to believe in the continuance of good health, in prosperity as a reward for earnest effort, in a long life of peace and happiness, and fullness of Life in the Higher World. We don't need to go to the fortune-teller for these assurances. We go for this information of the happy voyage to God. Here is something far better than the superstitious wish-thinking of the sailors of Stromnes. On whatever voyage you set out, work with God and let God work with you, and your best dreams can come true.

EVENTS OF DIOCESE AND PARISH.

Your Easter Offering for many years past has enabled your Church to discharge the Grace of Charity in its Parish and community. If you could see the administration of your gifts, as your Rector who has to dispense them sees it, you would know the great good you do for Christ's cause among the needy. Give generously this Easter—and a Happy Easter to you!

The Election of Vestrymen occurs this year on Monday afternoon, till five o'clock, in the Church, April 19th. The Vestry commends to the Congregation for election for a term of three years: John Bahm, John L. Redman, M. D., William G. Curren, Russell S. Boles, M. D.

The Musical Organizations, Choruses and instrumentalists, of Haverford and Bryn Mawr Colleges, will present a Festival of the works of Heinrich Schultz on Friday evening, April 9th in this Church. Schultz has been called the greatest Composer before Bach, and the world's most spiritual musician.

The Church will entertain three Convocations, our own South Convocation included, at a dinner to be served by caterers on the evening of April 22nd. The dinner will be in the interest of the coming Episcopal National Campaign, Builders for Christ.

Builders for Christ is a campaign launched by the entire Episcopal Communion of America in behalf of all its interests throughout the world. The goal to be achieved is over four million Dollars, and these funds will be used by Seminaries, Colleges, Missions, Hospitals, and all other Episcopal Institutions. Definite sums are allocated to each Parish to be raised if possible. The sum asked for St. Luke and The Epiphany, is three thousand Dollars. The Rector is anxious that all members participate in the gift, and that the Church even exceeds its allotted quota.

The Special Musical Service offered by the Organist and Choir for half hour preceding the Morning Service on the concluding Sunday of the month may become a permanent part of the Church program. We will know your interest by your attendance.

During the Past Two Years the Rector has published five articles as relating to Christianity in the nation in the Freeman, Ave Maria, the National Republic and American Mercury. Another article is appearing this autumn in the National Republic on the Safeguarding of the Republic through a powerful Renewal of Christianity.

MEDITATION—"OBEDIENTLY YOURS."

In several Monasteries of England of the Middle Ages groups of spiritual priests were assigned the special task of praying incessantly for the King. Scott makes mention of these holy men in his Mediaeval romances. They were called "Beadsmen." They were so called from the ancient Saxon word "bead," which meant prayer. The beads of the Rosary signified so many prayers to God. Thus the Beadsmen kept their vigilance day and night, telling off the beads of the Rosary for the life and health of the King.

Good men and women some generations ago often concluded their letters to friends and even strangers, "Obediently yours." Our first President usually signed his private and State correspondence, "Obediently yours, Geo. Washington." Scholars might dispute our tracing the word "Obediently" to the beads of the Rosary, but philology often gets tangled up in the long centuries. Quite possibly Washington and our forefathers had in mind "Prayerfully yours," when they signed their letters. We may not imitate the monastic Beadsmen, or Washington's style of letter-writing, but we can imitate what was in their hearts. The Christian will display an attitude of prayerful concern for the welfare of all others.

EVENTS OF DIOCESE AND PARISH.

Planning The Christian Year for the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany is an enterprise not only for the Rector and the Vestry. It is an enterprise in which you may share, and in which you ought to have a vital interest. In caring for the property, the public services, and in innumerable other ways the Vestry and Rector attempt to discharge their responsibilities for the progress of the Church. What can you, as a lay-member do? You can do what one great churchman exemplified: He used to say he was always in his pulpit on Sunday morning. He looked upon his place in the pew as a pulpit from which he helped preach Christ. Too many laymen today look upon Church attendance in a shallow way. For my part I would require for good Church membership a certain number, and the number would be quite high, of attendances at the Holy Communion, and the regular services of worship. Another thing you can do as a layman is to interest someone else in attendance at your church. Invite others and make the invitation really cordial and pressing. Also, you can give of your monies for the Church at home and abroad. You can hold your own personal service of devotion—these and many other things you can do.

A church located as your church is, in the center of the city, needs the loyalty of all its family even to hold its own. If we are to make progress we shall have to make a greater investment of devotion than other churches in populous suburbs. But the reward is worth it.

Bishop Oliver Hart makes his annual visitation to this Church on Sunday morning, October 31st, on which occasion he preaches to the congregation and Confirms. The Rector announces the formation at once of a Confirmation Class. If you are interested in membership in the Episcopal Church, indicate to the Rector at the door any Sunday.

The Choir, during the ensuing year, from October to May, plan to give an introductory Musical Service from 10:30 to 11:00, on the final Sunday of each month. During the year past these special Choir numbers have assisted in the Church Attendance.

Appreciation of the Congregation for the summer services is due to Dr. Percy Stockman in the conduct of the Holy Communion Services on the first Sunday of each month, and to Mr. Edwin G. Strang, Verger and Lay-Reader for the reading of Morning Prayer on all other Sundays of the vacation period. Mr. Wm. C. Leyshon presided at the organ, and Mr. George P. Boggs, of the Choir, led the music from the Chancel.

MEDITATION.

Care in Selection of Your Saint.

When the Communists captured Madrid in the Spanish Civil War they cast down from a huge pedestal the figure of Christ and elevated a statue of Stalin. In many Russian cities enormous paintings and medallions and statues of Stalin decorated the public squares. Now that Stalin has been convicted by his friends of the blackest crimes, the communist Saint is unmasked. What now of 187 little boys in Italy, fondly named by their parents at birth Stalin! What can the 187 little Stalins do with a name so black and abhorrent?

The Christian families of Italy for centuries have loved to name their infants after the Saints—Francesco after St. Francis, or Maria after the Mother of Jesus, or Theresa, or Catherine, or Mark. They knew that Holy Church was slow in giving the hard-won title of Saint, and that once the Church canonized a Saint it did not topple him over for some new idol of the masses. Thus, confidently the Italian parents came to the Altar and heard their little ones named after the Saints, and saw them baptised into the Holy Church that makes Saints that endure. Since we humans just have to have Great Ones to adulate and follow and build monuments to, be careful, very careful, how you select your Saint. The reliable ones are those who expressed the Glory of Christ.

EVENTS OF DIOCESE AND PARISH.

During the Summer Months we hope your travels have enriched you, and that your vacation has rested and renewed you. Many members of this Church have traveled far into Europe and Asia and we trust you return with new vision of the mission of Christianity and of America. During the ensuing ten months St. Luke and The Epiphany offers an intense program of activities and fellowship and worship. After the summer absences most of us are hungry for the Table spread at St. Luke and The Epiphany.

The House of Rest for the Aged invites you to their Annual Donation Day and Tea on Monday, October 8th, from two to five o'clock. Bishop Oliver Hart will dedicate the new wing at three-thirty o'clock. The Home is located at 5919 Wayne Ave., Germantown.

The Red Cross Chapter of St. Luke and The Epiphany, under the leadership of Miss Leonora Hewitt, Chairman, has had during the past year one of the best in its long and splendid history. The results are a truly phenomenal expression of the devotion and talent of women who perform a Mission. From September, 1955 through June, 1956, the record reads:

Red Cross Unit: Hospital linen supplies, afghan squares, children's garments 1141. Episcopal Hospital: linen supplies 863. Good Shepherd Mission (Arizona): children's garments 81. St. Thomas Mission (Alaska): 4 boxes children's garments. Seaman's Church Institute: ditty bags 553, needle books 205. The grand total of items is 2876. The number of hours of service not including home work was 2118. The Church takes pride in this idealistic yet practical expression of Missions.

Bishop Oliver Hart makes his annual visit to St. Luke and The Epiphany on Sunday morning, December the 16th, for the Bishop's message and for Confirmation. This advance notice is given in order to invite men, women or children desiring membership in the Episcopal Communion to speak to the Rector concerning the Confirmation Class.

Dr. Haushalter's New Book, "The Mystery of the Cross, As Illumined by the Great Thinkers", is receiving many reviews in the journals of a dozen or more denominations. Dr. Poling recently gave it an encouraging review in the Christian Herald. The book, from the analysis of the reviewers, gives promise of coming to its own as a spiritual study and Inspiration for Lent. Copies can be secured in the Church office. Any profits of the book accrue to a benevolence of the Church. Its publication was sponsored by the Vestry and a Benefactress for the purpose of extending the influence of the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany.

The Unique Genius of St. Luke and The Epiphany. Every Church has a unique tone, personality, genius, and this Church of ours has a speciality in unusual degree. You will soon be invited to share in an Essay Contest to express in 100 words the Essence of this historic Church.

MEDITATION:
FORGET-ME-NOTS AND TRUMPET FLOWERS.

Now comes to America from Europe Monsignor Krupavicius, head of the Lithuanian Committee of Liberation, and he exhibits a unique Church vestment. It is beautifully adorned with small crosses and hundreds of tiny forget-me-nots. It was secreted out of Russia from a Soviet slave-labor camp at Vorkuta. Devoted women had embroidered the symbols in hours snatched from sleep after their labor in the mines. From the "Silent Church" behind the iron curtain, as Gussoni calls it, comes this pathetic appeal that they might not be forgotten. They said it with those flowers named forget-me-nots.

The Lord has given us in nature another flower called the "trumpet flower". Its shape suggests the trumpet and its color is a deep flaming red. A look at it rouses you from sleep and indifference. It might be well to decorate our altars with these arousing flowers and to embroider them on the sacred linens and vestments. Are you a member of the "Silent Church"? That is, do you prefer to hold silence about your religion, to keep mum on the one thing of importance, to bear no testimony for Christianity? Wordsworth says there is a "language of flowers". The sad creatures at Vorkuta could only say it with forget-me-nots. Before it is too late let us speak our Faith boldly and say it with trumpet flowers.

The paper on which you may write your Essay, with instructions, has been sent you through the mails. Your Essay must be limited to 400 words and returned by December 1st. The Judges of the Contest are Mrs. Chas. Waterbury, Mrs. Max Bieberbach, Miss Edith Weber. The five best Essays will be published over the names of the writers and widely distributed for extending the influence of St. Luke and The Epiphany. This Church has a unique character, and its history reaches far. Write it up. Every member is asked to participate.

The Board of Managers of the House of Rest for the Aged thank this Church, and individual members, for contributions on Donation Day of considerably over three hundred dollars.

Church Service Clothing Drive, for Korea, Germany, Austria, Japan, Middle East, ask your gifts of clean used clothing, shoes, bedding, and sewing equipment to be received at the Church from November 4th to 12th.

The Woman's Auxiliary, President Miss Bertha Laws, invites you to hear a series of Lectures on "The Old Testament" to be given in the Parish Hall each first Tuesday of the month, 12 to 1 o'clock, from November 6th to June 4th. The Lecturer is Dr. Edgar C. Young, Professor of Old Testament Literature in the Philadelphia Divinity School. The First Lecture, November 6th, is on "The Old Testament Covenant". Dr. Young is a gifted lecturer; the invitation is to all.

A Series of Lectures on "The Spiritual Meaning of the Episcopal Communion" will be given in the Chapel from the third Sunday of November to the last Sunday in December, from 10:00 to 10:45 o'clock, at the Bible School Hour. The Lecturer is Dr. Vincent F. Pottle, Professor of Greek and New Testament in the Philadelphia Divinity School. The Class is open to all. Dr. Pottle as well as the Rector do not wish you to make this a substitute for the Morning Worship. Let it be an hour of inspiration that leads you into the Church. Mr. Milton Mitchell's class co-operates by lending its attendance for the six week's course.

A Member of the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany, who insists on remaining anonymous, makes a gift of Five Thousand Dollars to the forthcoming Bishop's campaign for nearly Two Million for the Diocese. The only designation of the gift is that it comes from this Church and is to go to the Divinity School. There are various orders of Angels; we think the Highest Order of the Angels are those who insist on their good gifts remaining anonymous.

"So long Thy power hath blessed us,
Sure it still——"
For 1957.

An European Government of the 18th century throws a strong beam of light on the true nature of Faith. With the coming of a new party to power the impression was given the public that the nation had a vast reservoir of gold secreted on a distant island. There it was kept to guard it from robber nations and as a safeguard to the currency and solvency of the nation. Forty years later it was disclosed that there was no gold on the island. Gold or no gold, for forty years the nation prospered because the men who governed were men of character. It is the character of personality that is the basis of faith.

You will have faith in members of your family, in your friends and business associates, not because of their wealth or possessions, but always because of their character. You will trust your government with your loyalty not because of billions of gold in Kentucky, but because the President, Judges, rulers, are persons of honor, integrity and character. And that must be the basis of your faith in God. In the laws of dependable nature, in the harvests, in the thousand rewards for goodness, God has shown His dependable character. If we trust Him further He will not fail, for God's character is love, truth and dependability. Looking into 1957, and remembering God's unfailing goodness let us commit ourselves with John Henry Newman: "So long Thy power hath blessed us; Sure it still will lead us on".

EVENTS OF PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Diocese Campaign for Capital Funds now makes appeal to all parishes of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, calling for gifts of more than a Million Dollars. This sum will go in part to Episcopal institutions, as the Divinity School, and in major part to promotion of the Episcopal Communion in Missions, Chapels and Churches. The appeal for Advance Gifts is now being presented. The Chairman for this Campaign in St. Luke and The Epiphany is Mr. John Bahm. One advance gift of Five Thousand Dollars has already been made by a Communicant of this Church. Special appeals may be addressed to you, and the entire congregation will later be asked to contribute. Prayerfully consider your part in this appeal for the advance of your great Episcopal Communion.

Communicants coming to the Holy Communion for the first Sunday in January will notice fragrant incense in the Chancel. This time it is the fragrance of the pine-tree decorations of Christmas which beautifully adorn Lectern, Pulpit and most of the Chancel.

For the Many, Many Christmas cards sent to the Rector and his wife, we thank the thoughtful members and friends of the Church. They are unusually expressive this year, and we return cordial friendship and love.

The Annual Diocesan Youth Service will be held on Sunday afternoon in this Church on March 3rd. Eight hundred youth are expected for the Church Service and for refreshments in the Parish Hall. This Church has become a meeting place for many Musical, Civic, Educational, Hospital and Diocesan gatherings. Welcome!

St. Luke and The Epiphany Publications: (a) "The Dignity of Man in America", being the Thanksgiving sermon of the Rector, is being sent to members of the Church, and many far and near. Its publication is made possible by Mr. Langdon W. Harris, Esq. (b) "The Healing of the Soul" has been sent to 1500 persons. One of the foremost physicians of America calls it the finest article he has read on healing by spiritual power, and by medicine. (c) Dr. Haushalter's book, "The Mystery of the Cross", has had extensive reviews. A visitor recently purchased eleven copies for mailing to friends. The book is specially designed to supplement Lent and Good Friday.

A Happy New Year be Yours! is the earnest wish of the Rector and the entire Church. The 365 new days will not be entirely in your control, but you can give them color and tone and beauty. An American Jurist once said, "God gives His children liberty because He loves them. He allows us to play with match-boxes because He knows that the frame-work of His universe cannot be set on fire". Use wisely God's indulgence to us to make our own lives. Come to Church as often as you can; extend the cause of Christ's Church into all you do. Then the year 1957 will give you some vast good beyond what you can now see.

CHRIST AND HOLY RUSSIA.

Louis Olivari now ranks as one of the chief topics of conversation in France, specially among those with bent for "Dialectic Materialism and Militant Atheism" of the Communists. Olivari went to the healing shrine of Lourdes and was cured of paralysis. He had been a red-cell leader, a scoffer at religion. He fell from a ladder and was paralyzed on the right side. Yielding at last to the pleas of his wife Olivari went to Lourdes and recovered full use of his arm and leg. Olivari naturally dropped Communism, and he now poses a severe problem to the Marxian atheists of France.

Russia, once called "Holy Russia", has many sad problems. The Communist economy does not provide enough bread and butter for Olga and Ivan. Besides, Olga and Ivan have relatives who died in the Ukraine and labor in the slave camps. Olga and Ivan are the real Russia, and the brutal rulers and the secret police and the army know this. Olga and Ivan have been paralyzed and millions like them know that only Christ can free Russia. The United Nations, the satellites, violent revolutions, may do something to liberate Russia. Like the redemption of Olivari in France, it is only the return of Christ to Russia that will quiet our fears and give peace to the anxious world.

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Capital Funds Program, for well over a million dollars to be used for extension of the Episcopal Communion, its institutions, chapels, churches, missions in the Diocese, is under way in all parishes. St. Luke and The Epiphany desires an honorable part. The Chairman for advance gifts in our Church is Vestryman, Mr. John Bahm. We trust you will lend serious attention to a letter that may come to you signed by Mr. Bahm and the Rector. If such a letter is not addressed to you do not feel slighted. Step up and indicate to Mr. Bahm your personal interest in the Diocesan cause which is the cause of every parish.

On the Second Sunday of February the name of Dr. Joseph Fort Newton, who served this Church so notably as Rector for twelve years, will figure largely. Dr. Haushalter will preach on a spiritual poem of Dr. Newton called "The White Presence". Dr. Newton died on January 24th, 1950 and the present Rector, his lifelong friend, succeeded him at once. The entire congregation are asked to make special effort to be present.

New Members in encouraging numbers have been added to the list of communicants recently, some by confirmation and others by letter. Confirmation may be had not only on the Bishop's annual visitation, but at frequent intervals in the Church year. Inquire of the Rector.

Honor to the Memory of the late Miss Josephine Clay is expressed in the following from Miss Leonora Hewitt, President of the Red Cross Unit: "The members of the Red Cross Unit have been saddened by the sudden death of our beloved Miss Josephine Clay. She was one of the original members of the Red Cross Sewing Unit when it was organized in January, 1942. Miss Clay was a faithful worker, and was seldom absent from the meetings."

"The Mystery of the Cross", the volume of the Rector, giving his Good Friday Meditations for 1955, is on sale in the Church office at two dollars per book. It has had a year's publicity and its proper season is the Lenten period. The book was sponsored by the Vestry. Whatever profits accrue from its sale return to the Church for further publications to advance the cause of St. Luke and The Epiphany. Among other publications of the Church ask for free copies of "The Dignity of Man in America", published by Mr. Langdon W. Harris and the Rector. Members of the Church can assist our progress by helping disseminate our literature which aims to further the gospel as interpreted by the Episcopal Communion.

THE CHALICE OF CHRIST

An ornate silver Chalice with beautiful carved portrait of Christ was unearthed by Arab workmen digging a half century ago in the ruins of ancient Antioch of Syria. This reliquary of silver protects an inner cup, a crude egg-shaped vessel of tarnished metal. Certain authorities on early Christian Art have concluded that the inner cup was used by Christ when He instituted the Holy Eucharist. This Chalice now resides in America. It was acquired by the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and is on exhibit at the Cloisters.

The pursuit of the Holy Grail, or the Chalice from which Christ drank at the Last Supper, was a favorite interest of Knights of the Round Table in the Middle Ages. The Parsival theme and many another romantic legend grew up around the pursuit of the lost Holy Grail, and the attempt to restore the precious vessel to Christendom. By making a visit to the Cloisters you might actually look upon the Chalice of the Last Supper. Maybe yes, maybe no. What you can surely know is that when you kneel at your own Altar you can touch with your lips a Chalice that the Real Presence of Christ extends to you.

LOVELIEST SPOT ON EARTH.

Junetime Meditation.

It is the Vale of Kashmir, travellers say, that is the loveliest vista to eyes, ears, smell and taste, beneath the sun. Leaving the terrible tyranny of the hot Indian plains one comes suddenly into the healing coolness of Lake Dal under the Himalayas. The entire valley is rich green, dotted with pinkness of the almond blossoms and the fragrance of lotus. Because the mountains change dress so often, now wearing the sun and then the clouds, Kashmir is called the Vale of Many Faces. But all its faces are beautiful. Perfume vendors have taken the name Kashmir as symbol of the rarest loveliness on earth.

Prepare for the shock: the entire scene is an ill-smelling mirage. In the foul streets of Srinagar, and out in the fields, ragged children with running sores and men and women bearing horses' burdens, tell of age-old famine, ignorance and the wars of fanaticism. The loveliest spot on earth is not Kashmir nor the Garden of the Gods. The loveliest spot beneath the sun is found where Love is, in the Church, in the humblest home, in your heart. You yourself can create the loveliest spot on earth, carry it with you into the streets and back again, by entertaining love, active forgiving love, the Love of God, in your own person.

EVENTS OF PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Diocesan Capital Funds Campaign will be presented to the Congregation from the Chancel on Pentecostal Sunday, when every member of the Church will be given opportunity to give. St. Luke and The Epiphany thus far, through individuals has contributed about twelve thousand dollars. On Pentecost all other members shall be asked to contribute, however great or small, to the Cause of the larger Episcopal Communion.

From the President of Episcopal Hospital, Mr. Joseph L. Wilmsen, comes an appreciative note thanking the Church for the gift from this parish on Thanksgiving Day, 1956.

The Red Cross Unit, through its President, Miss Leonora Hewitt, announces its final meeting for the year on June 5th. They wish to thank members unable to attend the meetings for home-work and generous contributions. The unit needs new members who can operate Singer electric sewing machines; they call for an enlarged membership when they resume in September.

During May the Church was host to many community organization meetings, notable among them our two neighboring hospitals. About 1200 persons attended the Graduation Services for the Pennsylvania Hospital. The Baccalaureate Services for the Jefferson Hospital were held, as traditionally, with the Rector delivering the address.

A Communicant of St. Luke and The Epiphany, Miss Florence Cowanova, has been given the Lafayette Baton Citation for the brilliance of her service as President of the Dance Masters of America, and for her development of American Ballet Culture and the Promotion of American Youth Ideals. Congratulations.

The Services of the Summer, July and August, will be in charge of Mr. Edwin G. Strang, Verger, who on all Sundays other than the first of each month, will read Morning Prayer. The Holy Communion will be celebrated on each First Sunday by Dr. Percy R. Stockman. Special music will be provided each Sunday from the Choir. Needed Clergy offices can be arranged through the office, where one of the Secretaries will always be present. The Rector and the Choir will conduct the Services as usual during the entire month of June.

AN INTERPRETER FOR LIFE'S DEEP MEANINGS.

September Meditation.

When the city-dweller on vacation steps a hundred paces into the thick forest he is startled, and then soothed by music. Far from the noises, he hears silence and then winds sighing through the pines, the gurgle of a brook, a thrush calling and distant thunder, all blended into a symphony. The native Indian living always in the forest has a profounder understanding than we of this ancient music. With most of us music is merely a stimulating emotion; we respond to Beethoven's Ninth Symphony with little comprehension of its intent or significance. A service to music appreciation is afforded in that we can now secure records of the Masters with symphony on one side and a recitative interpretation on the reverse.

Too many of us have a shallow appreciation and make only an emotional response to Christ and His proposals. We are like casual onlookers that met Jesus at a garden party in Cana, or heard words he spoke to a mass meeting in Galilee. The Apostles knew Christ intimately. Knowing an interpreter was needed, they wrote the Gospels. We urge on you a profounder understanding of this Greatest Character. Read interpreters like St. John, St. Bernard of Clarevaux, Matheson, or a spiritual preacher. Meditate on the Music yourself, and absorb its intent. Don't miss getting this deeper appreciation of the great Event and the great Person of history, "Whom to know is Life Eternal."

HEALING OF PSYCHOSOMATIC ILLS AT ST. LUKE AND THE EPIPHANY.

A New Program for Healing of psychosomatic ills begins this September at this historic Church, whose patron Saint has been St. Luke the Beloved Physician, and whose services for more than a century have been closely associated with Pennsylvania and Jefferson Hospitals. Dr. Haushalter, as Rector, will accept personal appointments for interview in the Church with any seeking solution of problems and healing of body or mind or soul through spiritual means. Dr. Haushalter has, of course, practiced spiritual healing through his entire ministry. Dr. Haushalter is giving larger prominence to this healing ministry now because of a tremendous increase today in tragedies from psychosomatic ills.

This specialized program at St. Luke and The Epiphany will work in harmony with scientific medicine, surgery and hospitals. Many apostate cults bearing the name Christian, and others openly pagan, now operate in disdain and contempt of scientific medicine, claiming miracles of healing by sheer power of will thinking or by mysterious formulas of mental manipulation. Mind cure philosophies of the Freudian variety are actually working havoc on a wide scale, and increasing the general illness now afflicting society. The program of St. Luke and The Epiphany will present the sanity of Healing through spirituality in the ambit of true scientific medicine.

For nineteen centuries the Church of our Lord has dealt at its altars and healing theophanies with the fears, guilts, hates, futilities, despairs, escape mechanisms, and all the other psychosomatic ills that afflict the body and soul. For the centuries the Church has dealt with the reclaiming of body and soul in sacred unity through a technique of spiritual power. Only in recent times has a secular, materialistic, un-Christian, atheistic, Freudian psychology reached out its harsh hand to snatch from the Church its ancient spiritual "Cure of Souls". Like many other Churches of Christ St. Luke and The Epiphany will not consent to having secular, materialistic, and often atheistic, mental manipulators snatch its communicants from the true spiritual healing given us by Christ.

Personal interviews with Dr. Haushalter will be completely confidential according to the standards of the Episcopal altars and priesthood. Appointments may be made through the Rector directly, or through the secretaries at the Church office. No fees will be charged for these interviews, but patients will be invited to make contribution of gratitude for publication of literature. The Rector does not accept pay for these services which are provided by his Church. Dr. Haushalter's "Healing of the Soul" has been published in several large journals and other publications will follow. Members of the Church and any receiving healing are asked to give extensive publicity to this new Healing Program of St. Luke and The Epiphany.

CONQUEST OF FEAR.

Lenten Meditation.

The "Croquemitaine" in the Dore Gallery is a terrifying picture at first glance, but on deeper penetration is full of hope for those of us possessed by fear. The dark sky is relieved only by lightning. A human figure clad in armor confronts a dragon leering over a wall. The picture tells the French legend, how Mitaine fled from the monster. When Mitaine fled the dragon came on. She sank to her knees. It stopped. She sprang up. The monster recoiled and fled. Then Mitaine shrugged her shoulders, smiled and calmly walked away. "It is as I expected", she said. "The monster was terrible to look at, but once confronted, fled".

Some of our fears are well-grounded in reality but many of them are illusory and imaginary. But whatever the fear, poverty, insecurity, ill-health, the striking power of evil, and even death, if we run away it will follow close on our heels. Fear in lonely hours is a veritable devil that bedevils us, but the Sacred Word assures us that if "we resist the devil he will flee from us". Once we turn on this enemy, confront him, face him, we find the claims of fear are a shabby pretense. The strong victory will come when, like Mitaine, we kneel and take on the power of God, or like the disciples absorb the fearlessness of Christ at the Last Supper.

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Visitation Program, launched before one hundred ten women of the parish on the first Sunday of December, is under way. Plans were extended in a Tea given by the President of the new Rector's Council, Mrs. Langdon Harris and Mrs. Walter Haushalter, for the formation of a central Committee. Members of the congregation will soon receive a letter with cards asking for information and recommendations for visits and for your pledges to make calls for St. Luke and The Epiphany. The sick, the lonely, members who have lost interest, outsiders who know little about the Church, friends and strangers, are the people we have in mind. Integrating souls into the Beloved Community is a heart-warming enterprise for those who make the visit and for those who receive. Into this Ministry of St. Luke and The Epiphany you are invited.

The Men of the Parish are invited to meet with the Rector before the Chancel on Sunday Morning, February 2nd, at ten-thirty, to hear about the new program of Visitation. One hundred ten women met on the first Sunday of December. While the visitation is to be directed by a women's Committee the visitation itself is congregation-wide and calls for fullest co-operation of the men.

Washington's Birthday Corporate Communion for men and boys occurs Saturday, February 22nd, 8:00 A. M. in St. Stephen's Church, 19 S. 10th Street, with address by Senator Monroney (over WFLN). Make reservation for tickets for breakfast at $1.25.

A Confirmation and Membership Class is announced in preparation for the Bishop's annual visit to the Church on Passion Sunday. Please indicate your interest to the Rector or to Miss Johnson, Parish Visitor. The benefits of completed membership in the Church are gladly admitted by all who have made the journey. If you have held out indecisively in the outer circle, why not during Lent come to a definite decision—and feel better.

Special Appreciations: (a) To Dr. Percy Stockman for preaching and Communion ministries to supplement the work of the Rector. (b) To Mr. John Bahm and the House Committee for keeping the vast physical building of this Church in almost perfect condition. (c) To Mr. Richard Town for his Sunday morning series of lectures on the Episcopal Communion. (d) To Mr. Milton Mitchell for his talented service as regular lecturer to adults at the ten o'clock Bible Hour. (e) To all Givers to the Christmas appeal for the largest charity contribution in ten years. (f) To a host of unnamed workers who daily spread the Goodness of the Church and whose reward is on High.

JESUS AND THE SPRING OF GABRIEL.

Junetime Meditation.

Nazareth, where Jesus spent thirty years of life preparation in the bosom of the Holy Family, sat on one of a circle of hills surrounding the fertile valley of Esdraelon. It was rural and secluded from the touch of the world. After many centuries of neglect it was revived by the Crusaders and the Franciscans built a Church. Maybe Jesus often climbed Mount Tabor a few miles to the East where legend says he was transfigured. Perhaps also he would stroll down to the battlefield of Megiddo and pick up helmets and broken swords as we boys did Indian relics. And maybe he meditated on the final Armageddon when he would lead the white-horsed host against Satan.

Among the childhood memories of the Saviour was an unforgettable scene of the Spring of Gabriel. Pilgrims can drink from it still today and there is evidence that it gushed its clear waters in the time of our Lord. There Jesus and Mary went often to draw water. The valley below was terrible with reminders of armies and battles but it held sweet memories of flowers and springs of refreshment. You and all of us have seen battlefields aplenty and we might now be standing under the shadow of the Armageddon St. John describes. But God now offers us the flowers of June and deep springs of Refreshment in the Church.

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

"Christ Above All" is the subject of a series of sermons to be given by the Rector during the five Sundays of the month of June. They are inspired by the heroism of the Apostolic Church following Pentecost when they were fired by the conviction of the supremacy of Jesus Christ and worked miracles in the power of His spirit. The sermons follow: Only Christ Can Save a Decaying Democracy; Only Christ Can Overcome Communism; Only Christ Can Clarify the Intellectual Chaos; Only Christ Can Change the Moral Downdrag; Only Christ Can Redeem the World. The present crisis in our lives has been created by reliance on secular instead of the spiritual means, reliance on politics and humanism instead of God. A few leaders believe that Christ, after the manner of a second coming, is specially asserting Himself in the world. The Rector shares this belief and expresses it in this series of sermons.

At the Diocesan Convention the Rector was again elected Chairman of the Board of Control of the Diocesan Library. This Library, which is located in the Church House, is specially created to meet the needs of Clergy and Laity. New purchases are being made of the best books in the field of devotion, spirituality, missions, with special attention to the Episcopal Communion. You are invited to register with Miss Dorothy Kohl, Librarian, and read in the Library or draw books.

The Choir and Choirmaster were given a Reception by the Congregation at the conclusion of the Service on the last Sunday of May. Refreshments were served in the Patio by a Committee of the Presidents of all the Women's organizations: Mrs. Langdon Harris, Miss Mildred Baird, Miss Leonora Hewett, Mrs. Edward Ross, Mrs. John Bahm. The Choir, directed by Mr. Clarence K. Bawden, has presented brilliant Musical Preludes on the concluding Sundays of each month of the year.

The Summer Services, from July 1st to the second Sunday of September, will continue as usual and offer attractions. On the first Sunday of each month Dr. Percy Stockman will preach and celebrate the Holy Communion. On all other Sundays the Verger and Lay Reader, Mr. Edwin G. Strang, will read Morning Prayer. Music will be rendered by organist, Miss Jean Staples, Contralto, Miss Emalee Earon, Soprano, Miss Madeline Stevenson. The Church offices will be open during weeks days as usual and arrangements for needed services can be made through the Secretaries. We anticipate a continuance of the fine attendance of the past few years.

SPIRITUAL COURAGE.

Contemporary Meditation.

In Swarthout's "They Came to Cordura" he undertakes to say where courage comes from. Much that passes for courage is bluff that crumples. Much that seems to be heroism is done by brutes or crazed and frightened men. The five heroes of this novel are a sorry lot. Major Thorn, who dies trying to save the five, is little better and when asked how he keeps going answers that he does not know. The long trek of hundreds of pages in search of the something which is above nature is a wearisome journey into nothingness. Save your time and read a few pages of the Sacred Word and you will find where courage comes from.

At the Last Supper Jesus described the terrors his disciples would encounter and then told them to "be of good courage". For a while after that they were a terrified and scattered crowd. But when Jesus rose from the dead and walked again with them they knew where courage came from, and what it will do for us. From there on they met head on and won over every obstacle. You need genuine courage today to meet depressions, Kruschev, and the anti-God forces. The real, dependable courage you can get in prayer, the Communion, the Church. It is spiritual, coming from God.

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

Ascension Day and Whitsunday, two of the four great Festivals of the Church, come this year in the month of May. These days have unusual importance in the Episcopal Church. Every member is asked to set aside social engagements and lend attendance in the Church. Ascension Day, which is mid-week, will be observed with Music, Meditation by the Rector, and the Holy Communion. Whitsunday will be observed with Corporate Communion and special rites.

A Series of Sermons is offered by the Rector during the month of May on "The Glories of the Episcopal Church". They will include "The Anglican Beauty", "The Anglican Sanity", "The Anglican Worship", and "The Anglican View of the Church".

The Altar Guild is now headed by Mrs. Edward Ross as President and Mrs. Newell F. Harris as Vice President. Mrs. John F. Bahm now becomes Choir Mother, to care for the vestments of a large Choir. The Altar Guild, composed of thirty women, and the Choir Mother do an extensive and consecrated service in caring for the many Offices of the Church. Miss Florence Marnie, for many years President of the Altar Guild and Choir Mother wins the deepest appreciation for her consecrated and efficient service.

The card party given by the Auxiliary and members of the Red Cross was a great success as it drew together the members of the Church and their friends for a pleasant social time. The results were most gratifying. The money made for the Auxiliary amounted to $184.55 and for the Red Cross from the sale of children's dresses $41.50 which goes to the purchase of materials from time to time. Mrs. Walter de C. Douglas, Chairman and Miss Mildred Lee Co-Chairman.

At the Easter Election the following were elected to serve as Vestrymen for the ensuing three years: Messrs. Charles F. Bonsor, Milton K. Mitchell, Robert L. Montgomery and Frank Wight.

The Easter Offering was the largest by some hundreds of dollars in recent years. The needs for charity in this section of the city and the economic recession place a heavy responsibility on the Churches. The response of this parish to these needs is most generous and the administration of the funds is both realistic and spiritual. Many thanks to you who have enlarged the Easter funds. The Good Friday offering was also larger than usual; it goes to Anglican work in Palestine.

Cards for Visitation have been sent to all members. If you have not returned yours, with suggestions for visitation, please do so at once. Extensive visitation has already been done for restoring interest, winning friends, inviting strangers, spreading the home spirit of St. Luke and the Epiphany. The work is under Mrs. Langdon W. Harris and a committee of ten and its purpose is to continue far into the future for the deepening and extension of the life of the Church.

"GRACIOUSNESS HATH THE POWER * * *"

Autumn Meditation.

"Graciousness hath the power, beyond beauty or wealth or cleverness or any other genius, to entwine the human heart and to hold it the longest." This quaint wisdom comes from the lips of Beaumont. It defies the shallow maxims of the cult of "personal power". It reaches deeper than the Hollywood art of beauty, the insinuations of social prestige or a display of wealth, in winning favor and loyal, tenacious friendships. Graciousness is an indescribable quality. It is of the nature of royalty, as we acknowledge when we speak of "Her Gracious Majesty".

We said that graciousness is indescribable, yet a cluster of words come to our minds that nearly reach the secret. Kindness, courtesy, compassion, humor, unselfishness, these are the manifestations of graciousness. But deeper than that, the inner reality is Grace, and that is a religious quality. It is said of God that "He is slow to anger and plenteous in mercy and graciousness." If you want this "power to entwine human hearts and hold them longest" you will find it in the Christian gift of Grace. "The Graces," says Beaumont, "sprinkle the faces of their darlings with laughter and nectar."

CORDIAL WELCOME TO THE COMMUNITY!

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

Call to the Congregation for the opening Sunday of September! The Rector, Choir Master, and Choir will render the Communion Service on Sunday Morning, September 7th, for the opening of the New Church Year. Every member is urged to make special effort to be present that the service may in the truest sense be a Corporate Communion. This is also a call for intensified Loyalty of all members and friends that this year shall be one of the best in the history of our dear St. Luke and the Epiphany. Will you examine your own record as to attendance, service, devotion to your Church. Ask, What would my Church be if all were as I? Intensify your Loyalty to Christ's Church and He will multiply the Blessings.

A Confirmation Class will be formed at once, anticipating the annual Visitation of the Bishop. On January 18th Bishop Oliver Hart will confirm. We desire a fine class of all ages to be formed at once for the Rector's Confirmation lectures. See Miss Isabel Johnson, Secretary, or the Rector after any of the Services and state your interest.

The Rector has been asked to serve as Chaplain to the Bishop at the Lambeth Conference meeting in London. The Lambeth Conference comprises all the Bishops of the Anglican Communion of the world; it meets for forty days every ten years in Lambeth Palace.

A Series of Lectures will be delivered, beginning in October, at ten o'clock each Sunday morning in the Chapel. They will be spoken by both Laymen and Ministers. They will be concerned with vital subjects relating to Holy Scripture, the Christian Life and the progress of the Church.

The Four Women's Organizations of the Church, headed by Mrs. Langdon W. Harris, Mrs. Edward Ross, Miss Leonora Hewitt, and Miss Mildred Baird, are Council of Visitation, Altar Society, Red Cross, and Woman's Auxiliary. Their activities, described on page four, are most important to the building of the Church. Every woman of the Congregation is urged to be part of one of these groups and to help merge them into unity and cooperation to advance Christ's Cause.

Appreciations for the Summer go to many for the maintenance of the July-August Services. First to the many who attended and the many who prayed with them at the Hour of Worship. Also, to the soloist, Miss Madeline Stevenson, Mrs. Emalee Earon Thompson, and guest organist, Miss Jean Staples. The regular Sunday Morning Services were cared for by Mr. Edwin G. Strang, Verger and Lay Reader. The First Sunday Holy Communions and Preaching were cared for by Dr. Percy R. Stockman. These Hours of Worship were well attended and spiritually uplifting as in years past.

"YE PLYMOUTH ROCK COMMUNITIE."

Thanksgiving Meditation.

When the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock in 1620 they began as a communism. Each was assigned to his work. The harvests were placed in the community storehouse and all shared alike. This was the collectivists' dream. "This," wrote Governor Bradford, "did breed discontent, for ye yong men did repine." The Governor broke up the communal society, assigned to each family a parcel of land, to plant their own crops and to prosper by their own labors. "The new policy made all hands industrious and there was no more famine." The quaint old Governor Bradford concludes with sharp words about "that vanity and conceit of Plato on taking away private propertie for the good of the communitie."

The fabulous wealth of Americans today and their dizzy height in the standard of living calls for new words not in the old dictionaries. Mathematics helps a bit. Three million owners of automobiles in New York City and thirty thousand in Moscow. Surpluses of food here and famines abroad. This wealth is shared by all. Even the incompetent are cared for by vast welfare funds. And America has given one hundred forty billions abroad since the end of the war. Our fabulous wealth is due to individual enterprise, and deeper still to Christianity. Christ calls us to labor, achievement, brotherly compassion. They were Christians at Plymouth Rock and they showed us how to make the wilderness into rich, powerful America.

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

All Saints' Day, in the Holy Catholic Church is celebrated in all Churches with a unique meaning. Come and share in this unusual significance of the Holy Communion in this Church on Saturday, November 1st at twelve o'clock. Special Music and Meditation by the Rector.

The Chapel Lectures each Sunday morning from 10:00 to 10:45 in the Chapel offer as special attraction for the month of November a series on Music in Church Worship by Mr. Clarence K. Bawden. Mr. Bawden, Choir Master, Teacher in his own studio and in the Catholic colleges, celebrated organist, is unexcelled in the interpretation of Music. The Chapel Lectures of Mr. Richard Town during October have been well attended. The lectures, introducing new personalities and subjects, will continue for eight months. The lecturers will include talented members of this church and the faculty of the Divinity School.

The Confirmation Class, which will be presented to the Bishop on his annual Visitation the third Sunday of January, promises to be the largest in some years. Children of ten are not too young and one is never too old to be Confirmed. The Rector conducts an advance Class for a series of ten o'clock Sunday morning studies at the Chancel. Those interested in Confirmation or membership in this historic Church please inquire of the Rector or of Miss Isabel Johnson, Parish Secretary.

A Survey of the Community is being undertaken, under the direction of the Rector. Students from the Episcopal Divinity School will visit homes and apartments in the Parish area. Their object will be to locate families whose religious needs may be met by this Church, to give literature and cordial invitation. The data arrived at will be sifted by the Visitation Committee directed by Mrs. Langdon Harris. Visits will follow with the object of extending this Church into homes of our community. Communities in the center of great cities have been dispersed by peculiar forces during the past fifty years. The Church is one of the few reconciling institutions that remain for restoration of "the Community".

The Annual Autumn Church Dinner occurs on Wednesday evening, November 19th at six-thirty o'clock. This event last November assembled in the Parish hall two hundred thirty friends for a brilliant program of music, greeting from Bishop Hart, commemoration of the Church, and spiritual fellowship. This year will offer you an equally rich program. The dinner will be served by caterers. Tickets must be reserved, at one dollar fifty cents each, at the Church office. Make your reservations at once. The occasion is not limited to Communicants. Bring friends and yourself assist in promoting the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany as a Family of Loving Friends.

BRINGING HEAVEN DOWN TO EARTH.

Christmas Meditation.

The prediction was made by a scientist before the 1958 Nuclear Congress that giant space ships would ascend from the earth and visit distant stars. His description of the joys of the heavens, for sheer materialism, outdoes the Mohammedans. The ships would have gardens, swimming pools, rare foods and travel so fast that time is reversed and the travelers grow younger. It is the nature of satire to exaggerate a folly so as to make the folly ridiculous. To take Dr. Daniel Posin's idea seriously would head one toward the asylum; he must have meant it as satire on the follies of egoistic man.

While many fear the terrors of the atomic age and wish to escape to the moon and the stars, Christ is always at work to bring Heaven down to earth. When Christ was sent of God and born in Bethlehem he brought heaven to earth. The good Lord Christ brought love and faith and hope to as many as would receive Him. And today the only sections of the world that resemble heaven are the cities and the nations that have welcomed Him. If anyone tries to sell you a ticket to the stars refuse, give the money to the Church to increase the citizens of Heaven here on earth. A trip to the Heavens may come later —for those of us who have Christ's gift of Heavenly citizenship here.

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Christmas Offering, given by the Congregation for the dispensing of charities throughout the year, will be made the subject of an appeal by the Rector in a letter to each member in mid-December. The Church needs a substantial sum for necessary channeled and emergency charities—and the plea is for you to be generous in the Spirit of Christmas.

A Coffee Hour for the entire Congregation will be served by the Women's Visitation Council, The Altar Society, the Woman's Auxiliary and The Red Cross immediately after the Morning Service on Sunday, December 14th in the Parish Hall.

A Visitation of the Parish is now under way by six students of the Divinity School who are trained to make calls and present the cause of the Church to all the homes of our community. They will record facts, distribute our Church literature and give cordial invitation to attend our Services.

The Church Dinner on November 19th drew more than two hundred guests. Superb food, the Choir Music, the address of Bishop William Roberts, the joviality and friendliness of this Church Family, will be remembered. Among other features a special honor was designated to Dr. John Redman for long service on the Vestry. Because of illness the honor and a cake were presented to Dr. and Mrs. Redman in absentia.

The Chapel Lectures held each Sunday from ten to ten forty-five in the Chapel, will be given during December by Mr. John Bieberbach of the Divinity School. The subject will be studies in the Advent of Christ and the Second Advent. John is our own student for the Ministry and every member of the Church should know him.

ROYALTY IN THE CHURCH.

New Year's Meditation.

While in Scotland this summer past we visited the artistic little Crathie Church where Queen Victoria and later English monarchs have worshipped through more than a century. It is on a hillside close to the summer residence of Balmoral. Queen Victoria for fifty years worshipped in the simple, quaint pew close to the Lectern. This today is also the spot where Queen Elizabeth takes Holy Communion, listens to the sermon, and meets the country people. As I knelt in Crathie Church I meditated on the stability given to English life and government and the halo of nobility shed over the "tight little isle" by a royal family that goes regularly to Church.

Shed a tear for the people in the Dictator countries where the rulers deride or try to destroy the Church. Offer a prayer that our country and the Christian people of the West shall not suffer the decline and havoc that always accompany neglect of the Church. And entertain a sense of alarm for yourself if the world has made sorry work of your intentions and made you neglect offering yourself weekly at the Altar. Too much of the world has inevitable downdrag on the best of us. You can maintain a sense of nobility in 1959 if on fifty-two occasions you meditate as the Good Queen in Crathie Church.

FINISHING THE PICTURE.

Lenten Meditation.

Under the majestic dome of our beautiful Capitol Building in Washington is a long frieze done by the painter-sculptor Brumidi. It depicts the great deeds of America up to the time of its painting in 1877. Among the scenes are stirring events of Colonial days, the Revolution, the Civil War. A section is left uncompleted, leaving space for the unfinished story, the America that is and shall be. Debates have been held in Congress concerning the completion of that frieze circled under the mighty dome. What shall the picture be and who is worthy to paint it?

Address your mind to the task of coming up with the answer and you will find you must declare what America must do now and what is our mission from God when civilization and Christianity are at stake. What should the picture be? Should it be a picture of vast prosperity, or maybe a multitude lifting hands in prayer? We suggest a picture not of rest, prosperity or meditation, but of decision and action. Why not the scene of a vast united army moving with trumpets and banners and following a Cross! Everything precious to our hearts and to the Kingdom of God is at stake today. Pray during Lent that America may be alert, decisive, sensitive to the Movings of God.

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

Our Lenten Wish for You is that this period of the Church Year ascending to Easter may have an unusual and pointed significance. We do not presume to assign to you any special duties as fasting or denial of old habits. We do urge on you regular attendance at the Church, participation in its Meditations and Communions. Then and thus will come to you your special Meaning of Lent.

On Sunday, February 1st, at four P. M. occurs in this church the Annual Service of the Episcopal Young Churchmen to celebrate the 175th Anniversary of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. The Preacher will be the Very Rev. Frederick R. Murray, Dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, Erie. Refreshments and a Social Hour follow in the Parish Hall. Last year 1100 youths attended. Welcome to all!

The Red Cross sent this past week a beautiful box of clothing and complete Layette to our Episcopal Mission station in Utah.

The Department of Worship of the Diocese invites you to an hour of "Spiritual Renewal" at the Bishop's House, 202 W. Rittenhouse Square, at ten o'clock on February 4th.

Mr. Hamilton Disston of this Church, a student of Lincoln and lecturer on the subject, will speak on Lincoln at the Chapel Service on February 8th at 10 o'clock.

The Corporate Communion for Men and Boys, held annually to commemorate Washington's Birthday occurs at eight A. M. on February 21st, in ten churches of the Diocese. The meeting place for our Church is at St. Stephen's, 19 South 10th St. Make reservation for the breakfast through the Church office.

Free Parking for Automobiles for persons attending the Sunday morning Service may be had at the "Cherry Parking", 1314 Spruce St. The large space will amply accommodate all cars. Our appreciation is to Mr. Becker, the Manager.

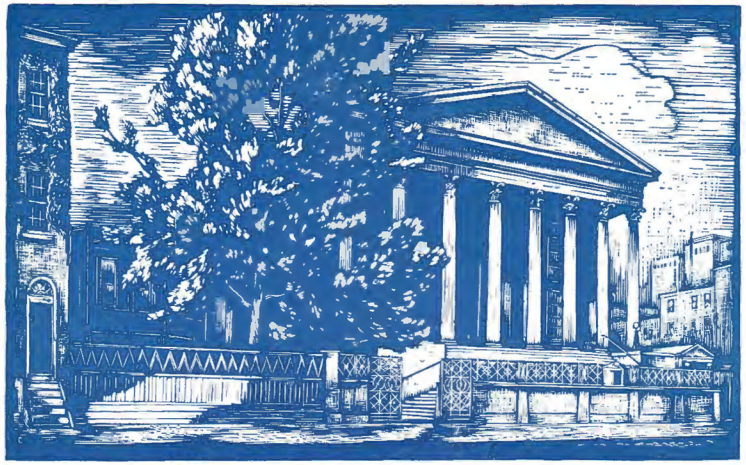

The Program of Lectures being given throughout the year in the Chapel on each Sunday from 10:00 to 10:45 has proceeded for three months with one month of messages from various personalities on different themes of Christian interest. The Chapel has been well filled for the occasions. The Lectures will be given during February by Mr. John Bieberbach on "Uses of Lent".

Holy Week Which Concludes Lent invites your attention. With its Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter it may well be called the Consummation of the Christian Year. On this Good Friday the Rector plans to bring a fresh interpretation of Calvary. The subject will be "The Unending Life of Christ". It will detail Christ's Pre-existence, Mission, Conflicts, Calvary, Resurrection, Continuing Life in the world, and His final triumphant life in the Eternal World. Make reservation on your calendar at this early date for Holy Week at St. Luke and the Epiphany.

"I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the House of the Lord." The Psalmist.

"The Household of God, built upon the foundation of apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus being the chief corner stone, groweth into a Holy Temple in the Lord; in whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God in the Spirit." Ephesians.

CHRIST'S CONTINUING PRESENCE.

Easter Meditation.

The unrelenting persistence of the Church is beyond all understanding until you see in it the realizing of Christ's Resurrection promise, "Lo! I am with you always unto the end of the world." The Church has been persecuted no end from Herod and Diocletian to Russia. It has often been treated contemptuously by science and sneered at by philosophy. Its teachings are so at odds with the world's way of doing things that far from being popular it gets neglect, suspicion and hostility. Yet the Church persists unchanged and ever increasing. "Crowns and thrones may perish, kingdoms rise and wane but the Church of Jesus constant will remain." It is because the Church shelters and is the Living Presence of Christ.

In the Church Christ's Presence is known in a trinity of ways. His teachings offer solution of the irrationalities of life, personal achievement of life's best, a grip on the Eternal so that His followers know He is the only path that leads to God. Christ's Real Presence at the Altar is unrelentingly continuous through the centuries and conveyed by His Sacraments. Finally Christ's spirit lives and throbs in His followers, the faithful, and shows forth His mind and will in this new and ever renewing Creation called the Church. Nothing in the world can compare in vitality or power with the Church because it shelters that vivid Presence that came out of the tomb at Easter.

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Special Easter Offering is presented herewith to the communicants and friends of the Church, asking your generosity to sustain our charities. Make your gift as an expression of the Stewardship expected of all Christians and also as an overflow of Thanksgiving for God's gifts to you. The necessary charities of this extensive parish are many. These charities are maintained largely by the Christmas offering and the Easter offering. These charities are ministered spiritually and realistically by the Rector in your behalf. Please know that your Easter Gift accomplishes lasting good in the lives of individuals and families of the church and the community. Make a joyful gift in the Resurrection spirit of Easter and receive God's promise of increased riches in heart and soul and material welfare.

The Rector's Lenten Book, "The Mystery of the Cross", may be secured in the Church office. It has been reviewed by a score of denominational journals and the reviewers recommend it as preparation for Holy Week.

The Chapel Lectures, held in the Chapel each Sunday morning from 10:00 to 10:45, will be given during March by Mr. Milton K. Mitchell, Vestryman of St. Luke and the Epiphany. Mr. Mitchell has done signal service in previous conduct of the Adult Class. The subject of the Lectures for March is "The Parables of Jesus". It is a dynamic subject, at the heart of Jesus' method and message, and Mr. Mitchell deals with his subject with high intellect and spiritual insight. Members of the Lecture Course: please invite your friends.

At the Wednesday Noon Communions for the remainder of Lent the Rector offers a series of commentaries on "The Penitential Office". One hundred five communicants attended the Ash Wednesday Communion.

The Red Cross, President Miss Leonora Hewitt, reports gracious letters of appreciation for their many baby and hospital garments sent to the St. Christopher Mission to the Navajo at Bluff, Utah.

The Canvass of the Community, made by six students of the Divinity School is complete. The reports covering a wide area, with details of hostility, indifference, welcomes, offer insights into central city Church work. For 140 years this Church has poured and continues to pour its life and message into its parish, using our equipment and financial resources for human betterment. In response to our concern we welcome a return of concern for the Church from the Community.

THE SIMPLE PERSONAL FAITH.

Easter Meditation.

We sat in the library of the Queen Mary in mid-Atlantic as the great vessel trembled under the impact of an approaching hurricane from the sultry South. Suddenly a tall figure stood there before us just gazing about the room. We recognized him as the Captain and he graciously spoke with us. "I think I'll be going back up", he said, "I'm going to try dodging the hurricane". Next morning we learned the Queen Mary had gone one hundred miles off course to avoid the center of the angry hurricane. I speak admiration for the Captain. Most of us know nothing of piloting ships. We place our personal trust in those captains that buffet hurricanes all night and bring us to port.

Don't let anyone deride you or make you feel inferior because you have a "simple faith" in Jesus Christ. Don't let some rationalist put you on the spot because you are not able to prove all the comforting things you believe about the saving power of Christ. Come with us and join the anti-intellectualists who know that the greatest affairs of life are governed by the heart and not the faltering brain. During the centuries Christ has satisfied billions of souls that He is a safe Pilot. When threatened with loss or illness, with hurricanes of fear, we commend that which transcends the mind, a simple heart personal faith in the Captain of our Salvation on the bridge.

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

Elections to the Vestry took place in the Parish Hall, according to By-Laws of the Church, on Easter Monday at four o'clock. The following were elected to serve terms of three years: Charles Stewart Wurts, Jr., Maurice T. Connell, Langdon W. Harris, Jr. and Hamilton R. Disston. At the March stated meeting of the Vestry, the Vestry elected O. E. Raezer, M.D. and Norris S. Barratt, 3rd to fill unexpired terms of members resigned or deceased. The Vestry now has its full membership of twelve lay members.

The Easter Appeal for the year-long Ministry of Charities of the Parish has been presented to the congregation. Most of the Communicants usually make their gifts on Palm Sunday or on Easter. If you have not yet shared in this ministry, mail your contribution or place it on the plates on your next visit to the Church.

The Women of the Church invite you to a Bridge and Canasta Party in the Parish Hall on Thursday, April 2nd, at two o'clock. A donation of five dollars reserves a table for four with tea. Candies and children's dresses will be sold for the Red Cross and the Woman's Auxiliary. Donations of saleable articles are most acceptable.

An Increasing Interest in the Diocese and the total Episcopal Communion was indicated recently by the Vestry in voting five thousand dollars from our funds for the Mission promotion of the Diocese. This Church gives largely to Missions of our own choice. Many of these will now be sent through the Church House and certain of these will be included in meeting our assignment of ten thousand dollars for extra-parish work.

Appreciations: (a) To the Choir and Choir Master for the superb music of the Holy Week. (b) To the Lady Ushers and the Operators of the tape-recordings of Good Friday. (c) To Mr. Milton K. Mitchell for continuance of the Chapel Hour each Sunday morning of April at ten o'clock. (d) To Communicants of the Holy Communion which continues each Wednesday at 12:10 Noon. (e) To all Good Souls who promote Christ's Cause in this Church.

A Meeting for Law and Order at the request of the Community, was held in the Parish Hall on Monday evening, March 23rd. Mayor Richardson Dilworth and Police Commissioner Gibbons were present. Downtown Philadelphia will be protected from crime and revitalized a little by garden clubs and art displays, but mostly by a strong surge of true religion and a strengthening of the Churches. There is no other way to revitalize a city except through the moral and spiritual power of the Churches.

The Annual Presentation of the Diocesan Church and School Mission Offering occurs at the Cathedral, 8630 Ridge Avenue, Roxborough, on Sunday, April 26th, at 4:00 P. M.

The Volunteer Service for the Blind, its directors and members, meet in the Church on Thursday, April 16th, at 2:30 P. M. This work for the blind does vast service in creating books for the blind; it occupies our House next door and is sponsored by this Church.

THE JOYS OF QUIET HEROISM.

Maytime Meditation.

The American atom-powered submarine, Nautilus, entered the icy waters of the Arctic less than a year ago. It overcame danger after danger in the lurking Unknown. It followed a deep valley in the ocean floor that led a thousand miles in a straight line till on August 3rd it was down under the Polar Cap at the top of the world. The men who did this, under the leadership of Commander William Anderson, were young, unafraid, devoted to their country, and from the account they talked of a "Higher Person" during the heroic Passage. You may be sure that JOY is the dominant emotion in those men, for they are activists, doers of deeds for all that is our true America.

No one of us is excluded, or need be excluded, from this roll call of those whom Wordsworth called the "happy warriors". Their deeds are duplicated a million times in the Army, Navy and Air Force, among citizens of our land and of Christ's Church. Why sit on the park bench, or stand on the curb as the army marches, or be a fireside complainer, when every day you can do a deed for your country and for Christ. Once get into action in this critical day and these rewards are yours—loss of fear, a sense of worth, and a JOY that you will know and your friends will know. Then, along with the Nautilus crew, you will have a sense of the "Higher Person".

William G. Curren, Maurice T. Connell; Norris S. Barratt, 3rd, alternate; Clerical the Rector. The Evening Session will be held in the Academy of Music to celebrate the 175th Anniversary of the Diocese. It is desired that every Parish be proportionately represented in this historic gathering. Inquire in the Church office for tickets which will be honored until 7:45 when the doors are open to the public. The program begins with Processional from Holy Trinity to the Academy at 7:30; it will feature an address by the new American Presiding Bishop Lichtenberger.

The Month of May for the Anglican Church flowers with the special significance of Pentecost and the Founding of the Church. In this Church the preaching is attuned with four Corporate Holy Communions and observed to celebrate the meaning of Ascension, Whitsunday and Trinity.

The Jefferson Hospital School of Nursing, as for the past twenty years, holds its annual Baccalaureate, the Rector giving the address on Tuesday evening, June 2nd, at eight o'clock in this Church. Last year the Class numbered about 100. This congregation is invited to attend.

The Red Cross, President Miss Leonora Hewitt, approaching the end of another year of vast services to Episcopal Missions and Hospitals, will extend its hours on Wednesday from ten to four o'clock during the month of May.

The Spring Ingathering of the United Thank Offering of the Diocese takes place on May 19th at Valley Forge Academy. Offerings should reach the custodian for this Parish, Miss Edith Ann Snodgrass, by May 15th. Mail your check payable to the United Thank Offering to the Church Office.

The Concluding Musical Prelude by Choir Master, Clarence K. Bawden, and Choir, occurs on May 31st at 10:30, preceding Morning Worship. The Congregation are urged to invite many friends to hear one of the leading Musical Groups and "one of the three best organs" in the city of Philadelphia. The Music Director and Choir make a profound contribution to the Church and deserve special mention for their service during Holy Week.

The Volunteer Service for the Blind held special social hour in the Church on April 16th with large attendance of directors and workers. This work is sponsored by this Church which furnishes the building for them next door. Active in this work from this Church are Mrs. Walter Price, Honorary President, the Rector's Warden, Mr. John F. Bahm, as Director, and members as workers. This is one of many ways in which St. Luke and the Epiphany invests itself in Missions and Social Welfare.

WATTS' PAINTING OF "LOVE AND DEATH".

In Memoriam: John Foster Dulles.

George Frederick Watts' painting, "Love and Death" hangs in a gallery in Manchester, England, but replicas of it may be seen in many art collections and its likeness clings in the memories of those who have seen. Watts represents a torn, futile figure of Love trying to keep an indistinct, menacing Death from crowding into an open door. It is well known that this is Watts' painting of a brilliant young friend who died slowly and painfully. But the picture is not fearful or depressing. It is consoling, for Death is a woman with tenderly outstretched arms. The famed artist once said of Death, "it is a kind nurse that puts us all to sleep at last, and beautifully, if we have lived well."

The death of men and women of nobility becomes a divine and heavenly act in that it multiplies the virtues of their living days in our awakened memories. This impresses us most where the death is one of suffering and injustice, as of Jesus, Joan of Arc, Charles the First or Lincoln. When they have passed beyond reach of vulgar enmities their vast contribution of Good smites our memories and their nobility is enlarged with the passing of time. Thus by the grace of God the death of John Foster Dulles is as valuable to America as was his life. The Episcopal Communion prays that we "follow the good examples of the saints who were the lights of God in their Generation". "Death as a tender nurse", as Watts said, took Mr. Dulles. It was in God's time, and for the enflaming of our memories.

Membership in The Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany may be secured by members of other Communions by Confirmation by the Bishop. All persons are welcome to the Services of this Church, welcome to attend and to participate. If members and friends from other churches desire to enter the "inner circle" of the Communicants make inquiry of the Rector as to the steps for Communicant status. You will find the Anglican Communion rich in historic tradition, deeply rooted in the age-old Faith of our Fathers, and eager to serve your spiritual needs. And you too can make a contribution of faith and service to the Beloved Community.

EVENTS IN DIOCESE AND PARISH.

The Program of the Church for the Summer follows. During June the Rector, Choir and Choir Master, will bring the Sunday services as usual. During July and August the Services will be under the direction of our Lay Reader, Mr. Edwin Strang. Mr. Edwin G. Strang will read Morning Prayer each Sunday except the first Sundays of July and August when Dr. Percy R. Stockman will preach and celebrate the Holy Communion. Music at the July and August Services will be rendered by Miss Jean Staples, Organist, and Mrs. Carole Wenner and Mr. George Boggs, soloists. On the first Sunday of September the Rector, Choir and Choir Master, will bring the Holy Communion Service. Special Offices, as Baptism, Marriage and Funeral, can be arranged through the Church Office.

The Choir and Choir Master were made the special guests at a Reception and Coffee Hour in their honor following the Morning Service on the last Sunday of May. The Music of this Church, with its "one-of-the-three-best-organs-in-the-city", is one of our finest attractions. The special Musical Preludes each month and the superb music of Holy Week deserve the highest praise and appreciation.

"The Women of St. Luke and The Epiphany" is the new name for the Woman's Auxiliary. The new name is adopted by the National Church because it indicates the inclusive membership of all women. The new President of this inclusive assembly in this Church is Miss Anna Hewitt. Their next meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 6th.

The Offerings of this Church, presented at the United Thank Offering at the Valley Forge Military Academy was $220, the gifts of 55 donors. Miss Edith Snodgrass expresses appreciation for the generous response to her appeal.

The Year Past presents a calendar, the regular services, baptisms, weddings, funerals, a multitude of social activities of the community, hospital commencements, Diocesan Youth gathering, several with 1200 in attendance. This Church labors in a difficult area. You are invited to understand your Church's problem and to enter heartily this next year to bring it to numerical and inner spiritual achievement and success.

A Bequest of One Million Dollars was recently received from Mary Frances Nunns, a Communicant of St. Luke and The Epiphany, by the Episcopacy of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. In her will Mrs. Nunns set up a perpetual Endowment to be administered for all time for the progress and advancement of the Episcopal Communion. The proceeds from so vast a fund can build Churches, help hospitals and homes for the aged, win men, women and children to the cause of Christ. Endowments at Oxford have gone on for centuries; so for all time the will and missionary concern of this good woman will work for Christ's Church. A charming picture of Mrs. Nunns will hang in the Chapel during June. Bishop Hart broke the news of the Bequest at the Diocesan Convention, calling the attention of the deputies to St. Luke and The Epiphany and its extensive Missionary Concerns.

THE CHURCHES AND THE WELCOME TO KHRUSHCHEV.

The Churches will comply with the request of our President to welcome the Russian by extending cordial Invitation to him to attend our Divine Services and join with us in the worship of God. We call to the attention of the Russian and those who invited him the insight of Daniel Villey: "One without religion is like a deaf man watching an orchestra play". If the Russian sees only munition plants, skyscrapers, industrial plants he will see the motions and miss the real genius of American power. The Power of America comes from the Christian Religion, from the Church, from Christ who claimed "all authority in heaven and earth". If the Russian is deaf to religion he cannot know America's power or intention.

Let us give urgent invitation to the Russian to attend the National Anglican Cathedral in Washington. St. Peter's Cathedral or St. Thomas Church would welcome him. Should he come to Philadelphia this Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany opens wide its doors to him and his friends. He would be asked to share with us the Prayers of Repentance and Thanksgiving. The Choir will sing the Te Deum and the Sanctus. The Rector will preach a sermon on "Holy Russia" and the peace and harmony of all nations when we love God and join hands as children of God. If our Russian Visitor will accept this whole-hearted hospitality of the Church he will come to know the secret of American power —obedience to God, freedom in Christ, respect and love for all our Brothers of Sin and Redemption.

THE HOLY COMMUNION IS CELEBRATED AT THE ALTAR ON THE FIRST SUNDAY OF EACH MONTH, SPECIAL HOLY DAYS, WEDNESDAYS NOON.

Anglicans consider the Eucharist so important that regular participation is necessary to Membership in the Church. All who Communicate in this Church are asked to observe Episcopal decorum by remaining until the final Benediction.

EVENTS IN DIOCESE AND PARISH.

Church Attendance is a matter of deep concern to a true Episcopalian, especially regular attendance at the Holy Communion. If any member of this Parish has grown cold and indifferent you are asked to begin the new year on a high level. Attend your Church at least two Sundays a month and every Sunday if possible. For years the Autumn Services began on the Second Sunday of September. This year the Choir and Rector open with Holy Communion and Preaching on the FIRST SUNDAY OF SEPTEMBER. You can make it a Happy Beginning by being part of a Complete Congregation on September 6th!

Special Prayers Every Day at the Altar
Concerning the Russian Anti-God
And Protection of America
Will Be Offered Unrelentingly in This Church.

Members and friends are asked to come into St. Luke and the Epiphany every day and pray to God that the visit of the anti-God leader of Russia shall not be a triumph of atheism, compromise and surrender in America. Christians look with horror and alarm on the approaching visit of this anti-God Russian who has destroyed Christ's people and Christ's Churches on a vast scale. Wild demonstration for the anti-God are expected in the streets; at such times Christians are asked to go into their Churches and pray to God for the Conversion of the anti-God to Christ. Pray God for our Rulers; pray God that we may negate the shame and degradation visited on the Church; pray God that some good may come by the turning of the anti-God destroyer to Christ our Lord. This Church is open every day; prayers will be held unrelentingly by Clergy and congregation and friends that Christ may triumph in America during this ordeal.

Items: (a) The Gift of One Million Dollars by a member of this Church, Mrs. Mary Frances Nunns, to the Episcopate of this Diocese, will be spent only as to income and will thus build the Church "through the ages". (b) The Mid-week Holy Communion will be resumed in October, but the service is always available to individuals or a group. (c) Appreciation to Dr. Percy Stockman and Lay-Reader Edwin G. Strang for their Ministry during July and August. (d) Hundreds of replies from eminent scholars are being received by the Rector commending his recent book, "Victory of the Francis Lieber Document". Thousands of copies have been sent to the Libraries of Europe and America. The book details the triumph of twenty scholars through twenty-nine years of battle for Truth. Copies are available on request.

OCTOBER MEDITATION.

In Memoriam: John Foster Dulles
In Arlington Cemetery.

To patriotic, Christian Americans it lingers so vividly that it seems yesterday that John Foster Dulles was buried in Arlington. His pain-wracked body, worn in the service of his God and country, was honored in the Episcopal Cathedral on Mount Albans and then laid to rest near the tomb of the Unknown Soldier. This "Greatest Secretary of State" had issued solemn warnings. And then, in an unbelievably short time, the Anti-God who had cursed Dulles with unprintable names was welcomed with military salutes, banquets, and unending days of newspaper adulation. In May we predicted the spirit of the great Christian would save America; now in October his name is almost unmentioned.

Does this mean that the great Christian has gone down to defeat before the Anti-God? While it will take a long time for us to recover we do not believe that permanently the memory of John Foster Dulles will be buried with his pain-torn body in Arlington. Let us remember that Jesus Christ after his Resurrection did not immediately win. The Church was persecuted for years and its recovery from Calvary was slow. But it was certain. So, let us hopefully believe that the Spirit of John Foster Dulles as voiced that day in the Washington Episcopal Cathedral shall fire our souls. "When the captains and the kings depart; still stands Thine ancient sacrifice, a humble and a contrite heart". In Memoriam: John Foster Dulles!

EVENTS IN DIOCESE AND PARISH.

Christians Must Attend Their Churches for prayer, repentance and courage if the Church is to survive the inunderstandable and dark ordeal through which America and other Christian nations are now passing. The realization is ours now that no political agencies can be depended upon, that salvation comes only from Jesus Christ and Holy Church. No person, official or private, in America was consulted or forewarned of the Ordeal and none can foresee the consequences. Let all Christians unite in Christ, pray and act that the Church here shall not suffer the slavery of millions of Christ's people in the slave-states of the visiting Anti-Christ.

Events in the Diocese: (a) Garden Party at Smith Memorial Home, 1010 S. Concord Rd., West Chester, Thursday, Oct. 1st, from 11:00 to 2:00 with Buffet Lunch. The Bishops will greet you. Make reservations. (b) Episcopal Young Churchmen of the Diocese at Christ Church, Oct. 4th, 7:00 to 9:30 P. M. (c) House of Rest, 5919 Wayne Ave., Germantown, Donation Day with Open House and Tea, Oct. 14th, 2:00 to 5:00. (d) South Philadelphia Convocation, Oct. 14th, 3:00 to 9:00 with dinner. Make reservations.

Events in the Parish: (a) The Holy Communion each Wednesday at 12:10. (b) Autumn Confirmation Class meets each Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock before the Chancel. The Rector will welcome any who desire to learn the meaning of the Episcopal Church. (c) Women of St. Luke and the Epiphany, President Miss Anna B. Hewitt, meet Tuesday, Oct. 6th, at 2:00 P. M. (d) The Altar Society, President Mrs. Edward H. Ross, Choir Mother Mrs. John F. Bahm, meet Monday, Oct. 26th, at 11:00. (e) The Red Cross, President Miss Leonora Hewitt, meets each Wednesday 10:00 to 4:00. The Choir brings special Musical Prelude 10:30 to 11:00 Sunday, Oct. 25th.

The Red Cross, President Miss Leonora Hewitt, does an astounding Missionary Service in creating more than 3,000 articles during the past year. They were sent to Episcopal Missions to the Indians in Arizona, New Mexico, S. Dakota, Utah. Also to Episcopal Hospital, Seaman's Institute, Maine Seacoast Missions, and American Red Cross. More workers are needed and will be welcomed.

In Response to congratulations sent to Senators Bridges, Dodd, and Douglas for their heroic defense of American Christianity in our present Ordeal, the Rector received warm letters. These letters will be prized as monumental efforts to turn back the Anti-God tide now threatening to engulf Western Civilization. Even a few such men may help to lead our confused nation back to the Church and to God.

TRUMPET ON THE CATHEDRAL

Advent Meditation.

At the highest reach of those ancient and monumental Cathedrals of Europe stood an Angel with Trumpet. There on the easternmost pinnacle, facing the East, it stood in all kinds of weather, reminding the earth-pedestrians below of the voice of God proclaiming the Second Advent. Then came the fanatical Reformers. In their zeal to destroy all images they burned priceless illuminated books and hundreds of ecclesiastical buildings. They battered out the stained glass portraying the Saints and Apostles and Angels. Of glorious sculptures they made hitching posts. In those pathetic days Rheims, St. Mary's at York, Saulsbury and hundreds of other church edifices were well-nigh ruins.

The zeal of the Protestant Reformers, however, never destroyed the Angels with Trumpet on the Cathedral pinnacles. They were too high to reach. And there they still stand in our day with the ancient reminder of the voice of God recalling men to the Second Advent. Life for us in our day is much the same as for those quaint burgers of the Middle Ages, who walked beneath the Cathedrals of Canterbury and Rheims. Life is still busy or monotonous, good or bad, dangerous or secure. The difference is that for us life is more comfortable and less religious. Since John first spoke of him in the Revelation the Angel with the Trumpet has ever been with us. Let him announce something significant to you at this Advent Season.

CHRIST'S DOMINION WORLD WITHOUT END.

Autumn Meditation.

Statement is made frequently by the English historian Toynbee that we are now living in the "Post Christian Era". That is, we of the West for 1900 years have lived in the Christian Age, dated our lives and deeds from Jesus Christ who once walked our streets, shared our troubles, and gave us the path of salvation to God. But that is past, says the brilliant Oxford historian; we now live in the age of Freud or Science or Space dominion. We still have reminders of Christ, but He is on the wane and will soon take His place among the statues in the park. This sentiment is entertained by many "intellectuals" and without sadness or regret.

When the American "Lincoln Brigade" fought with the Communists in the Franco-Spanish War the Communists tore down the statue of Christ in Madrid and set up that of Stalin. But when Franco won, the majestic figure of Christ was restored and again watches over His people in Madrid. In the 1900 years of the Christian Era billions of souls have followed Christ and five hundred million love and follow Him today. Christ's faithful have found Him sufficient in ages past; we find Him sufficient for this Blood-curdling, crazy day; and we know He can lead His own into peace and love and goodness in His own higher world which is without end.

ATTENTION! SALUTE! FOR 1960

New Year's Meditation.

"What can we do for the United States Army?" This was the inquiry of two eager-eyed boys of six and eight years who had entered a United States Army Recruiting office. The Recruiting officer looked up, brightened up, and then stood up. "Attention!" he said, "Salute! First I will have you take the oath of allegiance". When they were at ease he instructed them that they could help the Army by assisting their parents and teachers, being little gentlemen of courtesy, and then—"tell anyone you meet that our country is in danger and that all Americans must show their Loyalty to the United States."

What can you and I do for the Church? Christianity is under vicious attack all over the world and to some extent within our own land. Take oath of allegiance to the army of God. "Like a mighty army moves the Church of God". Paul exhorts us to be good soldiers under "Jesus Christ, the Captain of our salvation". "Put on the full armour of God, the helmet and the sword". How can any of us lounge as a buddistic pacifist in this tense hour of danger to Christ's Church! If two small boys can do an alerted service for the United States Army what is possible for strong men and women for Christ's Cause. Attention and Salute for the New Year 1960.

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Christmas Offering. If you have not yet made your Gift to the Christmas Charities, January is not too late. It is the Christmas and Easter offerings to the Rector's Discretionary Fund that enables this Church to discharge a duty of Charity throughout the entire year. Out of these your gifts we share in the work of fifty organizations and assist many many individuals. Your generosity has never failed this Church.

A Series of New Year's Sermons will be delivered by the Rector during the month of January. Among your resolves for the New Year include a steadier attendance at your Church.

During a Long Stay in the Hospital during November the Rector came to appreciate as never before the kindly attention of the Congregation, the many cards and flowers, and most of all the prayers. We are thankful for medical skill and the Healing Grace of the spiritual Physician. Returning for the first Sunday of December the Rector feels he has better health than in many years past.

The Beautiful New Flag of the United States which hangs in the Church opposite the Church Flag was given by Mrs. Margaret C. O'Shea. The Church expresses appreciation and invites inquiries by friends concerning a new Church Flag.

Episcopal Decorum, marked by beautiful music and the profound and spiritual readings and prayers of the Book of Common Prayer, is known throughout the religious world. Members of this Congregation are asked to help maintain this high Episcopal standard by refraining from unnecessary talk during the Divine Service.

The Convocation of South Philadelphia of Episcopal Churchwomen will meet in this Church on Tuesday, January 26th, at 10:30 A. M. The Rev. Melvin G. M. Cole, English Missionary to British West Africa will speak, and Mrs. Birchall Hammer will describe her collection of Madonnas. All women of the Congregation are invited. Bring a box lunch and dessert and beverage will be provided.

The Philadelphia Council of Churches is asking for forty hostesses to foreign students attending the Colleges around Philadelphia who have expressed a desire to be received into American homes. Episcopalians are urged to cooperate in this Christian service. For further information telephone LO 3-7854.

CENTER OF ATTENTION ON THE CROSS.

Pre-Lenten Meditation.

With the coming of Ash Wednesday on March 2d our understanding of the Forty Lenten Days will be enriched by the symbolism of Lvovsky's "Kyrie". In this superb Chant, sung on the eve of Holy Rood, the phrase "Lord Have Mercy on us" is repeated seventy-five times. The Bishop stands in the center of the Church holding the Cross as high as his arms can reach. As he lowers it the Choir sings in decreased volume until it reaches the floor when the music becomes so faint it seems far-away. As the Cross is raised again the music attains a crescendo of power and petition.

During the Forty Days of Lent the communicants of Christ undertake a voluntary intensification of our holy faith. During the rest of the Christian year the Cross is there, as always, but many of us see it only infrequently in the processional or on the Church steeples, or on the Altar when we casually attend. But during Lent we enter the Retreat and take a refresher course on the significance of that ugly and beautiful Cross on the Hill where Christ died for you. During Lent the Cross has the center of the Christian's thought and he will help swell the Kyrie chorus, "Lord, Have mercy upon us."

This is not too early to anticipate Lent. Plan for some great good during this Holy Season for your Church, for your friends and for yourself.

CHURCH OF THE WHITE DOVE

Lenten Meditation

It is hard to believe that two hundred years ago a massive Moorish-Byzantine Cathedral was built in the desert regions of the Southwest. This work of Spanish missions, in the Santa Cruz to the south of Tucson, has sounded out the Gospel for two centuries. The Bell still tolls for worship from the high tower. The trees and flower gardens are still watered by the ancient fountains. It is St. Xavier with walls six feet thick for defense. The Indians called it del Bac—the White Dove, for it gave them peace and defense from their enemies of the desert.

During Lent please look upon your Church as a Retreat for peace and defense. If you are not aware of it you have many enemies in the world and in yourself. Your enemies are secularism, lure, glamor, paganism, the devil, and the deadly indifference. Visit your Church again and again. Share in the life of the congregation, in the Holy Communions. Sing the hymns and look carefully to see if you can make out the Presence in the Chancel and at the Altar. The Psalmist spoke of his "high tower of defense". During this Lent go to your Church often and think of it as del Bac—a place of renewal in peace and security.

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE

Ten Years of Ministry were concluded by the Rector of this Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany with the end of January, 1960. Dr. Joseph Fort Newton passed to the Higher Life on January 24th, 1950, and the present Rector began his ministry here on the first Sunday of February, 1950. In the ten years many communicants have passed to the Higher Life and many new ones now attend. In the ten years the finances of the Church have greatly increased and strengthened, and the parish has made progress in integrating itself in the larger work of Diocese and National Church. An unusually large Congregation attended the Corporate Communion of February 7th to commemorate the Tenth Anniversary.

During March the Rector will preach a series of Lenten sermons on the Lenten Messages of Masterpieces of Music. These are not meant to be lectures on Music. The Rector does not use this pulpit for Lectures on music or economics or even religion. The Pulpit is for Preaching. After each sermon the Choir will sing the majestic Masterpiece that has been the Theme of the Preaching.

Ash Wednesday occurs on March the Second, and from there on Lent reaches on to Easter. The Ash Wednesday Service of Holy Communion is a "must" with most Episcopalians. Attend it this year and let Ash Wednesday begin a new and lovely Chapter in your Christian experience and in the life of the Church.

Events: A. The Rector can arrange your Confirmation for any Monday in the Bishop's House. B. Miss Isabel Johnson, Parish Secretary, has spent a week in the Hospital undergoing surgery and is making splendid progress toward recovery. C. The Diocese has already received forty thousand dollars from the million dollar memorial to the Episcopate made by Mrs. Arthur Lysaugh Nunns of this Church. D. St. Luke and the Epiphany contributes annually about four thousand dollars toward educating young men for the Ministry.

The Women of St. Luke and the Epiphany held its annual Bazaar and Card Party on February 9th. The Parish Hall was well filled with guests and the sales from the tables will be used for Missions. Miss Anna Hewitt and Mrs. Walter Douglas (President and Chairman) wish to thank all contributors and those who lent their presence to one of the finest social occasions of the Church year. The Women of St. Luke and the Epiphany, once called the Auxiliary, is this year manifesting as fine a progress as has been known in ten years.

OBERAMMERGAU MIRACLES.

Maytime Meditation.

Overlooking the beautiful Valley of Ammer in Germany is the quaint town of Ober-ammer-gau where again in 1960 is enacted the Passion Play. In 1632 the inhabitants were threatened by a plague then devastating Europe. Going to the altar of the Church they vowed, if spared from the scourage, to stage the Calvary of Christ every ten years. A miracle occurred; those who were ill recovered. The vow has been kept for 326 years and the drama now has international significance.

The greater miracle connected with Oberammergau is the effect of the Passion Play on the players and the citizens. Men and women give up secular pursuits and vie for the roles of the sacred characters. For months they practise and are called by the names they assume. None but noble characters are accepted. Most of the profits go to hospitals. This year the Play begins on May 19th. Imagine the effect on your own city of a year's absorption in the Life and Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ!

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Diocesan Convention meets in Holy Trinity Church on May 2nd and 3rd and the prayers of the congregation are asked for spiritual harmony in its sessions and for the advancement of the Episcopal Communion. Pray for our Bishops, Lay and Clerical Deputies, our schools, churches, hospitals, homes and missionary enterprises.

The Deputies from this Church are Messrs. John F. Bahm, Norris S. Barratt, III, Wm. G. Curren and the Rector. You may attend and listen from the gallery. The public Diocesan meeting occurs on Monday evening at eight o'clock when Bishop Oliver J. Hart delivers his message. On this occasion the Choir of St. Luke and The Epiphany will furnish the music.

The Services of Holy Week, specially favored by the Lord with good weather, were excellently attended and the spirit reverent. The attendance on Maundy Thursday was the best in years, and the communicants at the Easter Communion were the same as ten years ago. Special appreciation is due to all givers to the Easter offering for Charities which, to date, is one of the largest in the last ten years. May the Easter spirit continue, as with the Apostles when, "for forty days after Easter Jesus contiuued with them until Ascension."

Mr. John Bieberbach, for seven years the Divinity student of this Church, was commended by all the Vestry for Ordination on graduation this spring. It is planned that after his Ordination John will serve as Curate in one of the suburban churches of the city.

The Spring Ingathering of the United Thank Offering of the Diocese takes place on May 17th at Valley Forge Academy. Offerings should reach the custodian for this Parish, Miss Edith Ann Snodgrass, by May 15th. Please mail your check payable to the United Thank Offering to the Church Office.

Items: (a) At the Vestry Meeting Mr. John F. Bahm was appointed Rector's Warden; Mr. Norris S. Barratt, 3rd, was elected Accounting Warden. (b) The total gift of Mrs. Mary Francis Nunns of this Church to the Diocese is announced as one million one hundred fifty thousand dollars. (c) "The Validation of the Lieber Document" by Dr. Haushalter is acclaimed by Dr. McKeel, head of the Evangelical Churches, as one of the most helpful contributions to modern Christianity.

Pictures of The Church of The Epiphany. Acknowledgment is made of the gift from Leonora and Anna B. Hewitt of two framed pictures of The Church of The Epiphany, in memory of their uncle, Edmund Stirling (1861-1948), who was a member there. The Church of The Epiphany, which formerly stood at the northwest corner of 15th and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, was consecrated in 1834 and closed in 1898, when the congregation joined with St. Luke to form the present Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany.

SAFETY IN THE SANCTUARY.

Contemporary Meditation.

In one of his best known poems Robert Burns, the Scottish bard, expounds an ancient legend that no evil spirit can pass over a running stream. He may reach the middle but he cannot get across. Burns' hero, Tam O'Shanter, is pursued by Cutty Sark, a malicious devil, because Tam had disturbed a dance of the devils at Alloway Kirk. Before the devil could catch him Tam crossed the river Doon and found safety.

Satan and the devils are prominent in Holy Writ. Jesus said Judas had a devil and trained His Disciples to cast out devils. Maybe you are a rationalist and have banished devils from your world. But demoniac and satanic forces are on a rampage today, from Khrushchev to the daily irritations. You can find sweet relief and safety by sharing in the redemptive work of Christ. The Church of our Lord is a "river of Life from the throne of God" and no evil spirits can cross the swift current of goodness to harm you in the Sanctuary.

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Month of June offers attractions for full Communicant attendance at the Church. June is beautiful this year with the Holy Communions of Whitsunday and Trinity. June 14th is Flag Day and on the third Sunday the two new flags, American and Episcopal, will be consecrated. The American flag has been given by Mrs. Margaret W. O'Shea in memory of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton and the Church flag by Mrs. Clara Vietri in memory of her grandmother Mrs. Margaret Gallagher. On the concluding Sunday, Coffee Hour in the patio follows the morning service. The Rector preaches at all services and the Choir brings special music.

The Summer Services will be enriched this year by preaching on all Sundays of July and August. Dr. Percy R. Stockman will preach and celebrate the Holy Communion on the first Sundays of July, August and September. The Rev. Jerry G. Carpenter will preach on all other Sundays of July and August. These will be full Church Services with organ and special music. A worthy attendance will encourage the continuance of this program in summers to come.

The Rector has been invited to preach on a summer visit to Europe in the Anglican Cathedral of the Holy Trinity in Paris, France.

Items of Interest: (a) Miss Edith Snodgrass, custodian for this Church, reports St. Luke and The Epiphany giving $265.00 to the Spring United Thank Offering. (b) The Presiding Bishop asks all Episcopal Churches to observe May 29th as a Day of Prayer for South Africa. (c) Rev. John Bieberbach, just graduated from the Divinity School, will serve as Curate at St. George, Ardmore.

The Choir and Organist Clarence K. Bawden will attend an annual buffet supper in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Haushalter on the evening of June 17th. Dr. and Mrs. William Sunderman will be special guests.

The Three Women's Groups, the Altar Society, Red Cross, Women of St. Luke and The Epiphany, will meet for a Social Afternoon in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Haushalter on June the 2nd. The Rector pays tribute to these three groups that they are now at their best in the ten years he has been Rector.

RUGGED FULLGROWN PERSONS.

Autumn Meditation.

The inventive Japanese brought on the beautiful Dwarf Trees of all kinds ranging from the Cherry to the Oak. They are real trees too, though only one foot high. Tiny saplings are placed in flower pots. Periodically they are taken out and the main roots cut. With only the smallest roots left to gather wee bits of nourishment from the surface soil you have at the end of ten years a cherry or an oak tree one foot high. They are artistic little artifacts.

Civilization is one long search for citizens, human beings, Christians of rugged strength and dependability against droughts and storms. Society is downright desperate to find these power persons for business, education, politics, the Church. Whenever one is found he will have his roots deep in Holy Church, the national heritage, the community of God's work. St. Paul pleads for Christians "rooted and grounded in the Truth", and that we "attain to the fullness of the perfect man in Christ". If your soul has become dwarfed hasten back into the Church for its Ancient Power.

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

Appreciation for the Summer Services is expressed by Vestry and Congregation to the following: Dr. Percy R. Stockman, preacher and Celebrant of the Holy Communion, The Rev. Jerry G. Carpenter, preacher, Mr. Edwin G. Strang, Lay Reader, Miss Jean G. Staples, guest Organist, Messrs. George P. Boggs, Russell Basler, and George Mallams, soloists. The attendance during this summer was the most encouraging in recent years.

The Preaching of the Rector during September will be concerned with Commemorations of St. Augustine, St. Matthew, St. Michael and All Angels. These Saints talk straight at us; they are as contemporary and up-to-date as You and tomorrow's newspaper.

The Baccalaureate for the School of Nursing of the Jefferson Medical College and Hospital is held in St. Luke and The Epiphany on Friday evening, September 9th, at eight o'clock. This has been an annual occurrence in this Church for more than thirty years. Last year there were ninety graduates. It is always largely attended, the music is inspiring, the address is by the Rector.

You Are Asked to make effort this year for steadier attendance at the Services of public worship. In the Office of Instruction (Book of Common Prayer, p. 291) an Episcopalian is asked as to his "bounden duty as a member of the Church". Among other replies the good Episcopalian pledges himself "to worship God every Sunday in his Church". Beyond this, the Episcopalian finds such beauty and meaning in our Services that he rises above duty and attends for the glorious Privilege.

Concerning Your Will: Please study carefully the following from the Book of Common Prayer, page 320: "The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the People, while they are in health, to make Wills, arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and, when of ability, to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses."

The Rector will welcome invitation from communicants to discuss with them the spiritual uses of wealth in the Episcopal Communion. One member of this Parish, Mrs. Arthur L. Nunns, by her Will this year left One Million, One Hundred Fifty Thousand dollars to the perpetual uses of this Diocese.

THE MARBLE IN THE SEVILLE CATHEDRAL.

October Meditation.

Standing in the Lincoln Cathedral we were awestruck at its immensity. Innocently I said to the Canon, "This must be the largest cathedral in the world." "No," he said, "St. Peter's is largest, then Seville, then Lincoln." The The Cathedral in Seville is one of the most magnificent Gothic Structures in existence. It contains the archives of Columbus and the discovery of America. But the most unique feature of the Seville Cathedral is the nature of the marble.

The marble, extracted from the quarries centuries ago, does not disintegrate with time. Under the assaults of time, heat, cold and tempest that marble coheres and hardens. Here lies also the nature of the Church and the Christian. The present persecution of Christianity by the anti-God, demoniac forces is making Holy Church more the militant fighter it must be. The non-Christian cannot take much hardship. But the true Christian flourishes under hardship, grows finer in body, mind and soul. We are in for more hardship these days ahead, and let us praise God and take on greater strength as the marble in the cathedral of Seville.

November 1st—ALL SAINTS' DAY.

12:00 A. M. HOLY COMMUNION.

Special Music and Meditation by the Rector

IN PARISH AND DIOCESE DURING OCTOBER.

The Preaching of the Rector during October will be directed to intensely spiritual subjects. It will deal with the "saints" in the Episcopal Calendar for October. In comparison with some of the tawdry characters who strut the world stage of today St. Francis, St. Edward the Confessor are brilliant lights of spirituality and guidance. They are modern and far ahead of us. Come for spiritual renewal and meditation on the glories that our Holy Religion can add to your life.

The Women of the Diocese, under the presidency of Mrs. Edward J. Parnam, will meet in the Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany for observance of the World Day of Prayer on October 31st. The entire Church is at their disposal from 10:00 A. M. to 2:00 P. M. Luncheon will be served. This Church has the honor of welcoming several of the Diocesan gatherings during the year.

All Saints' Day is observed on November the 1st throughout the entire Anglican Communion. It has been an immortal event in the calendar of the Holy Catholic Church. This is a celebration of importance. It is observed in this Church at twelve o'clock noon with Celebration of the Holy Communion, special music and a brief address by the Rector. The names of all who have departed this parish to the Higher Life in the past year will be read from the altar and in the Cathedral. All who wish to commemorate their sacred dead are specially invited.

A Special Diocesan Convention is called by the Bishop to meet in Holy Trinity Church on Monday morning, November 7th, at nine o'clock. The purpose of this Convention is the election of a Coadjutor Bishop. From this parish, as from all parishes, the representation will be: three lay deputies who collectively have one vote, and the Rector as clerical deputy. All deputies are asked to vote with intelligence, with utmost devotion to the highest good of the Church, and under the influence of "the Holy Spirit".

Donation Day, open house and tea at the House of Rest occurs on Wednesday, October 12th. Mrs. Walter S. Ritter requests contributions be sent to the Church Office.

An Autumn Dinner and Social Gathering for all communicants and friends of St. Luke and The Epiphany occurs Thursday evening, November 17th from 6:30 to 9:30 o'clock. On the two last occasions of the Parish Dinner the large Parish Hall was filled to capacity. Anticipate a splendid Caterer-served dinner, superb St. Luke and Epiphany Music, distinguished guests, including notable guests—and YOU. Make your reservations early through the Church Office.

OUR ONLY MEDIATOR AND ADVOCATE

November Meditation.

In "What Is Wrong With the World" G. K. Chesterton makes clear why we are worn and half crazy with confusion. It is secularism. "To hear people talk of education," he wrote, "you would think it was a magic chemistry whereby you can produce a man by hygiene and freehand drawing." Our forefathers would be horrified at modern secular education which has the audacity to make supernatural claims without even having a God. Chesterton concludes that "no man was ever educated and no man was ever made and no soul was ever saved without God."

Make out your will to the school that presents Christ to students. Vote for the candidate that will do most for Christ and Holy Church. Wherever possible deal only with God-loving business men. Make your social fellowships among Christians who converse and act for high religious ends. Huddle together, as did the early Christians, in Church, knowing that "Jesus Christ is our only Mediator and Advocate". Do this and you will find relief from the dizzy confusions of the secular world, and you will take on steadiness and comfort and courage.

ROSES IN DECEMBER.

Christmas Meditation.

Brigadier General Quentin Roosevelt, son of the great Theodore, died in the first wave of the Normandy invasion in 1944. He was later awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor for Gallantry. He loved life and wanted to live, like the rest of us. Crossing the Channel he wrote a last word to Mrs. Roosevelt. He feared they would not meet again but "in our years together we have packed enough for ten ordinary lives". Quentin drew upon the ancient wisdom of the poet—"God gave us memory that we might have roses in December."

At Christmas the Christian journeys nineteen centuries back into holy memories and gets even better than roses for December. Christmas is packed with memories of the Child in the Manger, angels with songs of peace, the Incarnation of God in a man, the glory of womanhood in Mary, and the beginning of a new Kingdom that already has seven hundred million citizens. Pack Christmas with Holy memories or it will be just more of the "empty blah that now afflicts the world". We can have what Spenser offered England in the Faerie Queene—"roses in December that our minds so much did glad".

IN DIOCESE AND PARISH.

The Christmas Offering for the charities of the Church, along with the Easter Offering, enables the Rector in your behalf to discharge throughout the year a far reaching service of benevolence. For 120 years this Church has reached the helping hand to thousands of the needy. The pressures of our day, the high cost of living, make severe problems for those needing medicines, food, and spiritual guidance. Make your offering generous this year and realize that your loving gift enables Christ to be the better known. If you cannot be present on Christmas Day mail your check to the Church office.

The Church Dinner was attended by more than two hundred. It was beautifully served by a Caterer and made brilliant with the music of Mr. Clarence K. Bawden, Dr. William Sunderman and Mr. Herbert Alburger and the community singing. Many pronounced it the "best ever". Such beautiful occasions help build the Church as the true Family of Christ's people.

The Confirmation Class prepared by the Rector with a series of lectures will receive Confirmation at the hands of Bishop Oliver J. Hart on Sunday morning, December 18th, at the Bishop's Visitation. Effort will be made to get all those confirmed during the Rector's ten years of ministry to attend.

Billy Graham will open an Evangelist Crusade in Philadelphia from mid-August to October, 1961, the meetings to be held in the Municipal Auditorium and the Stadium.

Items of Interest (1) John Bieberbach was ordained to the Priesthood on November 26th and on the Sunday following celebrated his first Holy Communion at the Altar of this, his, Church. (2) The Rev. Jerry G. Carpenter of this Church has been appointed Chaplain to the Episcopal Hospital and will be installed on Dec. 7th at 11:00 A. M. in the Hospital Chapel. (3) To the Diocesan Thank Offering this Church through the Chairman, Miss Edith Snodgrass gave $307.00. (4) The U. S. Government requests you to cooperate in sending Christmas mail early. (5) The 20 largest givers of the Diocese, of which this Church is one, meet with the Bishop for Dinner at the Diocesan Center on Dec. 7th at 6:30. (6) At the Divinity School the students present on Dec. 9th and 19th at 8:15 P. M. a Christopher Fry Drama. Admission $1.50. HEAR THE CHURCH BELLS IN 1961.

New Years Meditation.

"Oh, my dear! Oh, my dear! I just heard the birds singing out there in the garden!" This was the ecstatic hysterical cry of a wife to her husband as she ran into the library from the garden. Her hearing, lost many months before, was restored by some new treatment. Her experience was that of many persons of the Gospels whose ears the Lord Jesus Christ touched. They too cried out with delight at recovery of that precious flood of knowledge and delight that comes to us from God through the ears.

Equally pathetic and harder to cure is mental and spiritual deafness, preoccupation with sordid interests, the wilful exclusion of music, sympathy, spirituality, and the very voice of God. This turning of the deaf ear Jesus called "having ears and hearing not". Vast numbers of the pagans and heathen spend Sunday sleeping off a headache, spending the hours in cheap and inferior pursuits, having no ear for the Church bells that toll out our freedom and peace. God grant that during 1961 you may not join the army of the deaf, that you may hear Church Bells and the songs of birds in the Garden.

IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR we pray for you, your family, your friendships and business, your Church. Happiness is not inconsistent with hardships, problems, difficulties to be overcome—in fact it thrives best where we meet the severe experiences heroically. 1961 will have the usual number of hardships and perchance a few more. But in Christ you can be victor and make 1961 a Happy Year of personal progress and peace.

The Christmas Offering toward the charities of the Church is again brought to your attention. If you have not yet given, send your check through the mail or place it in the plate in early January.

For Many Beautiful Christmas Cards Dr. and Mrs. Haushalter express deep appreciation to all friends and members of the Church. The cards will be treasured as sort of a touch on the hand from many friends.

At The Conference Center in early December Messrs. Wm. Curren, John Bahm, Norris Barratt 3rd, and the Rector met with Bishop Hart and eighty laymen and rectors of twenty Churches. The subject was the Missionary Budget for this Diocese and the National Church. The Church will soon be informed of our "expected" share in the program.

The Women's Aid of the South Philadelphia Convocation will meet in this Church on Tuesday, Jan. 24th, at 10:30 A. M. All women of the Congregation are cordially invited to attend. Mr. Ivan M. Czap in the afternoon will speak on Ikons and show beautiful slides of Mt. Athos, Greece. Bring a box lunch; dessert and beverage will be provided by the women of St. Luke and The Epiphany.

The Annual Card Party and Bazaar of the Women of St. Luke and The Epiphany occurs on Tuesday, January 31st, 1961, at 2 P. M. in the Parish Hall. A donation of six dollars reserves a table for four, individual reservations are $1.50, including light refreshments. Make checks payable to Mildred W. Lee, Treasurer, and mail to her at the Church office. Donations of articles to be used as door prizes will be appreciated, and should be left at the Church office before January 30th. All members of the Congregation and their friends are cordially invited to attend.

"THE MOST VALUABLE THING IN THE WORLD".

Lenten Meditation.

In the solemn service of Coronation of English sovereigns a copy of the Holy Bible is given the monarch with these impressive words: "To keep your Majesty ever mindful of the Law and the Gospel of God as the rule for the whole life and government of Christian Princes, we present you with this Book, the most valuable thing that this world affords. Here is Wisdom; this is the Royal Law; these are the lively Oracles of God".

We suggest for your Lenten reading that portion of Holy Writ called the Gospel of St. Suke, which Renan called the "most beautiful book in the world". We urge you to read it meditatively, not less than ten minutes a day, endeavoring to cover the entire Gospel before Easter. This "most valuable thing that the world affords" is read by the good and beautiful Queen Elizabeth as a devout Anglican. It strengthens her sanity, her goodness and charm. If it does such noble service for Royalty, might it not be during this Lenton Season it will do as much for you!

IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Observance of Lent holds great significance for Episcopalians. This has been true historically and it is vital for today. The Lenten emphasis is so much a "natural" that many of the non-conformist bodies of Churches now follow the Anglican lead. Members of St. Luke and The Epiphany are asked during Lent to set aside social engagements that interfere with attendance at the Church, to undertake special readings and prayers, and to lead themselves to frequent observance of the Holy Communion.

The Annual Youth Service for all the parishes of the Diocese will be held in this Church on Sunday afternoon, February 5th, at four o'clock. This service has been held here for some years past and the attendance is usually about one thousand young men and women. The theme of this gathering is "Into All the World Together". The speaker is Ralph Norman Mould of the Field Service Board of Christian Education of the United Presbyterian Church. Social Hour follows in the Parish Hall.

A Picture of the interior of the Church of St. Luke taken about 1880 has been presented to the Church by Miss Anna and Miss Leonora Hewitt and will hang in the gallery of portraits in the Chapel.

Mr. Richard Town, Lay Reader and Seminarian, will offer during Lent a series of lectures on the doctrines of the Episcopal Church. The lectures begin on Feb. 12 at ten o'clock in the Chapel and continue until Easter. These lectures will be of special interest in their examination of the Evangelical and Catholic elements in the Episcopal Communion.

The Altar Guild requests the interest of the congregation in certain new appointments for the Altar. Four sets of Chalice Veils, in four colors to represent the seasons of the Liturgical Year, are being purchased. The cost of each set is about fifty dollars and members of the congregation are invited to talk to Mrs. Edward Ross, the President of the Altar Society, or to the Rector about providing one of the sets as an In Memoriam to some dear one. The Altar Society has just placed a new Missal on the Altar and Mr. and Mrs. Max Bieberbach are presenting it to the Church as an In Memoriam to Mrs. Bieberbach's father, Mr. John Villa.

PARADISE REGAINED.
Easter Meditation.

Because of the immense space and importance accorded to Satan in Paradise Lost and Regained Milton is frequently accused of making Lucifer the hero of his Epic. Milton's Satan is a gentleman highly endowed of God. He is not given to murder or sordid lust. The Devil's sin is self-glorification, freedom from law, contempt for any restraint on self-will, rebellion against God. Satan makes himself God to determine alone what Satan shall do. So Satan and his angels are thrown over the parapets of heaven into the void where the Hell of freedom is—well, read it in Milton.

Is Milton writing about us? Is he describing the millions in our day who brush God off or utterly abolish Him? Is Milton writing of the self-determining anti-God nations, the youth in rebellion against all authority save their own desires, the clamor for Liberty! Liberty! in the swirl of our present chaos? Read Milton again and read the daily papers. Is it possible for us to get rid of the Satanic delusion that we are able to govern ourselves? Only Christ, the Christ of Calvary and Easter, can bring the world to God, His love, His rule, His Kingdom. Only Christ can keep us from being tossed over the parapet of Heaven by returning us to God.

IN DIOCESE AND PARISH.

The Easter Offering bids for your favor and generous gifts. For many years this has been a special gift of the Congregation to care for the Charities administered in our own Parish and community. Over the entire year your gifts care for many individual cases of need and also lend help to more than a score of Christian organizations. Make your gift as generous as the Spirit moves you for the needs are great, and pray that your Rector may have patience and spiritual understanding in the administration.

The Preaching of the Rector during the month of April, beginning with Easter, is concerned with the historic Faith of the Church as expressed in the Nicene Creed. It presents the Profound Nature of the Act of Faith, the Virgin Birth, the Nature of the Heavenly Life and other articles of the Faith of our Fathers.

The Election of Vestrymen occurs on Easter Monday, April 3rd, at four o'clock, when the Congregation is invited to come to the Parish Hall. The Vestry consists of twelve men, four of whom are elected each year for a term of three years. The Vestrymen whose terms expire this April and who are recommended for re-election are Mr. Charles F. Bonsor, Mr. Milton K. Mitchell, Mr. Robert L. Montgomery, Jr., and Dr. F. William Sunderman, M. D.

The Women of St. Luke and the Epiphany, President Miss Anna B. Hewitt, invite the members of the Congregation to their meeting of Tuesday, April 4th, at two P. M. in the Parish Hall. The Speaker is Mrs. William R. Talbot, Executive Secretary of the Pennsylvania Society to Protect Children from Cruelty. Tea is served afterward, with cordial welcome to all.

Special Events: (a) Mr. Clarence K. Bawden and the Choir will bring the Special Music for the Diocesan Convention in early May. (b) The Church School Missionary Offering will be presented by all Parishes of the Diocese in a great outdoor Service, on May 7th at 4:00 P. M. at the Cathedral, 8630 Ridge Ave., Roxborough. (c) The American Version of the Passion Play of Oberammergau will be presented, April 4-9, in the Arena, 45th and Market Street, by a group of celebrated artists. (d) The Billy Graham Crusade comes to Philadelphia in August and September of this year and preliminary motion pictures of the Graham Crusades will soon be presented in this Church.

THE ASCENSION OF CHRIST AND HIS HEAVENLY SPACE AGE.

Ascension Day Meditation.

Materialism's boasted "new day for mankind in the sputnik space-age" was first heralded and ridiculed by Mother Goose with a humor that only children can understand. "Hi diddle, diddle! The cat and the fiddle!" What devil's tune did the cat play on that fiddle, to frighten the dog to run away, the cow to jump over the moon, and the dish to run away with the spoon! The race of sputniks, hoaxes, competitive terror, the President of DuPont calls "gee-whiz stuff". Worse still, you are now losing your dishes and spoons in a tax tobogan toward national bankruptcy. Beyond keeping abreast or getting ahead in the terror bomb race, what can Holy Church do to awaken dullwitted rulers and people, who understand neither Mother Goose nor Christ, to this fraudulent "new age of mankind"?

The only genuine new age for mankind that history knows anything about came through Jesus Christ, his descent to our chaotic earth, when God knocked a "hole in the sky" and sent angels to tell of love and peace in a new Heavenly Kingdom. "No one shall ascend into heaven," said Christ, "but he that descended from heaven" and those reborn into the heavenly life. Forty days after Easter Christ ascended into Heaven, not to remain but to return and keep open the skyway to God. "Christ hath ascended on high and returns to give gifts." For 1900 years the Life-Giver has given hospitals, schools, wealth, liberty, salvation. Let us pray that this shabby, menacing space age may not darken the glory of the only genuine New Age ever given mankind by the Ascension of Christ.

The Preaching of April and May is in response to the Pastoral Letter of the House of Bishops asking that the Episcocal Communion reaffirm strongly the Articles of our Faith, specially the Nicene Creed. The House of Bishops is concerned, alarmed, at the spread of a devastating atheism and secularism among nations and in society that may seriously effect the Church. During May the Rector will preach on the Communion of Saints, the Second Coming of Christ, the Holy Catholic Church and the Forgiveness of Sins.

WITHOUT A SPIRITUAL PURPOSE, BOREDOM AND EMPTINESS.

You cannot live with a sense of dignity and self-approval until you become concerned with the cares of God, the sorrows of Christ, and the troubles of fellow-men. You may exist into ripe old age; you may eat, sleep and breathe for a span of history that whirls the earth eighty times round the sun; you may take on smartness and more money than you can use. But unless you take on some spiritual purpose to relieve the sorrows of God, of Christ and of the world, you will some day soon find yourself afflicted with boredom and you will gaze into the mirror at a figure of lonely emptiness.

There are many lesser purposes that men and women use and labor at in order to give existence a beauty and worth. There is the pursuit of money, its capture, security, power, its pomp and glory. Many find relief for bleak days in garden clubs, culture circles, political crusades. But unless you will relate these lesser goals to God you will still stare into that mirror and find the pathetic, lonely emptiness. After all you do have a soul and God sent you into the world for something more than eating, breathing and living to old age. Some day every one of us has to jar himself loose from too much earth, share in the sorrows of God, of Christ, of the Church. Then the days have such a glow that life becomes a sort of Eternal Life.

YOUR FACE IN THE CATHEDRAL.

Autumn Meditation.

Lawrence B. Saint, designer of the stained-glass windows of the Washington Cathedral, this Dean of American artists who rivalled the great of the Renaissance, died a few months ago in his Pennsylvania country home. Saint used living people for models. The face of his son, who died tragically as a missionary in Ecuador, modelled at the age of three for one of the rose windows in the Cathedral. The Saints, father and son, are doubly saints as they speak to us and to those yet to be from the windows of our Cathedral.

The chances are against your face modeling for one of the "eternal places" in one of the Cathedral windows. But you can secure a better nitch of appreciation and remembrance in the living Church, and you don't need to be a Hollywood beauty. The Book of Common Prayer says your face should be in Church every Sunday. A face of kind strength at the Service can promote the glory of God like a sermon or an anthem. Let us admit it, every one, we would cherish a place of loving and permanent remembrance. Better than your likeness in a Cathedral window will be your steadfast smile and hand of friendship in the life and Communions of Holy Church.

With Appreciation we mention the name of the printing firm of S. R. Larzelere who have shown such interest in the Billy Graham Crusade as to cancel their bill for nearly one hundred dollars for printing extensive literature of this Church for promoting the Crusade.

The Rector during September will preach messages in tune with the Billy Graham Crusade on themes dealing with Revivals of Faith, Hope and Love, the Theological Virtues of St. Paul.

The Baccalaureate of the Jefferson Hospital School of Nursing will be held in this Church on Friday evening, September 8th at eight o'clock. PRISONERS OF THE FROZEN EMOTIONS.

October Meditation.

My unforgettable meeting with Ernest Hemingway a few years ago was in an elevator in Naples. This man with the large bearded head gazed at me with piercing eyes and I gazed back. I did not recognize him until he had disappeared into the lobby. As I recall it now, after reading in Osservatore Romano about a Roman Priest giving him Absolution on the battlefield and attending to his funeral in Idaho, I believe Hemingway thought me a Roman Catholic Priest and his mind was probably quickened by a sharp memory. That incident of the battlefield was the only faint touch he had with the Church until the lonely scene in Idaho.

Hemingway was one of the vast army of lonely souls, "Prisoners of the frozen emotions". They are often gifted intellectually, anti-social, self-concerned, erratic, lonely. They are lonely because they have avoided God, dodged God around every corner. Ultimately they grow tired of themselves and then the universe is empty. He was a good man, after pagan standards, gifted and successful, but lonely, empty and frozen. As I recall his intent gaze at me that day and his probable remembrance of a touch of the Church, I sorrow that a gifted man should choose to be so lonely in a world so full of God and His Children.

IN DIOCESE AND PARISH.

A Series of Sermons is offered by the Rector during the month of October concerning "The Love of God". No Rector or Congregation need fear getting tired of this subject on five successive Sundays, for the nature of God is of unending fascination.

On October 22nd, Sunday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock, this Church will dedicate a beautiful cemetery stone at the grave of Mrs. Arthur Lysaght (Mary Frances) Nunns in the cemetery of St. James the Less. Her Gift will be used perpetually to promote Christ's Cause.

MEMORIALS TO THE GLORY OF GOD.

November Meditation.

Near the village of Penrith in North England stands a pillar on the roadside with this inscription: "This Pillar was erected in the year 1656 by the Countess of Pembroke for memorial of her pious mother, whereof she hath left an annuity to be distributed to the poor of the Parish of Brogham, every second day of April, for Ever. Laus Deo". Wordsworth in "The Countess's Pillar" tells of watching pilgrims read the inscription, "Fastening on those lines an eye Tear-glazed and with filial sigh ending with a 'God-be-Praised!'"

There are memorials and memorials, flowers on the altar, tombstones, monies, tears. St. Mark tells of the woman in Bethany that tearfully poured costly perfumes on Christ, annointing Him for His Ordeal, that the Lord made sure the world would never forget this "Memorial of her". Most of us would like our friends and communities to remember us graciously in the days beyond. It is possible, and the Lord would like it, that you too shall have a nitch of remembrance. It will be enduring and unending if it be an unselfed gift to the Glory of God. Laus Deo!

HOLDING STEADY AND SANE IN THE GIDDY WHIRL.

Closing 1961 Meditation.

In Moby Dick, one of the greatest Sagas of the Sea since Homer's Iliad, a rough sailor called Noah gets sick in a frightful storm. Nauseated and hardly caring to live he lies on a cot in his dirgy cabin. In the heavy seas the ship rolled all but upsidedown. Then Noah observed the lamp hanging from the ceiling, that it was the only steady object in the giddy whirl, that by the lamp he could judge all other objects and motions, and from the steadiness of that lamp he knew the ship was safe. So Noah regained his own steadiness, sanity and a quiet rest.

For those that have no steadying Lamp from Above, no inner Light from Heaven, it drives one crazy to observe the giddy moral chaos of the world, the threats of the anti-God nations, the cowardly neutralism of "east of the Suez where the best is like the worst." Only those who have the steady Lamp of God's word, Christ the Light of the world, can feel assured that the demoniac storm will wear itself out. Believe this, that the storm will submit to the mighty Moral Order known as the sovereignty of God, that God's will and truth shall prevail, and it will keep you steady and sane, and give you a joyous Christmas and New Year.

EVENTS IN DIOCESE AND PARISH.

A Generous Christmas Offering over a period of many years has been given to the Church by its members and friends. This Christmas gift, along with a similar gift at Easter, is for the purpose of caring for the Parish and community Charities throughout the entire year. The administration of these gifts is complex and multiple. Members of the Church, transients in extreme need, gifts for medicines, bloodbanks, food, clothing, are among the items. Out of this fund, which amounts often to several thousand dollars, contributions are made to a score of Humanitarian Causes. Through the Rector and other members of the Staff your monies are used practically and spiritually.

Situated as this Church is these Charities are necessary. They meet needs that no outside-the-Church charities can meet. St. Luke and the Epiphany has never failed in this expression of Love to its community. That our splendid reputation for Concern may continue you are asked to again, give generously at the Christmas Season.

In the Diocesan Church News for November an article by the Rector describing the placing of a head-stone by the Vestry at the grave of Mrs. Mary Frances Nunns, was published with illustrations. Mrs. Nunns two years ago left more than a million dollars to the Diocese. Her grave is in the cemetery of St. James the Less. Copies of the article are free to you in the Narthex of the Church.

The Lectures of The Rev. Samuel Hoyo on Sunday mornings in the Chapel brought messages during November on Christian Missions in Japan and the Orient. The Rev. RECOVERY AND RENEWAL IN 1962.

New Year's Meditation.

The celebrated painting of Leonardo da Vinci called the Last Supper has just been restored to its original beauty. Time had played havoc. The Masterpiece was painted in 1497 on the wall of the Santa Maria Delle Grazia in Milan. In the long centuries Old Time did its work—cracks, faded colors, a war-bomb dropped in the street, neglect. An Italian artist, Pelliccioli, labored on it for years with a genius almost equal to da Vinci's. The Last Supper is now restored to its power and brilliance.

With the coming of another New Year, as we take inventory of the past and a shy glance into the future, some of us will dare to think of a Precious Something we lost along the road, and of its possible recovery. You had an ideal, an ambition for yourself that was sort of romantic. Time, rubbing against the world, busyness with things, yes, neglect, have left marks you have been sort of afraid to look at. Restoration is possible. But it will require spiritual meditations, Holy Communions, and frequent journeys to the Church. Why not! During 1962!

ORDEAL IN THE DEPTHS.

Lenten Meditation.

When our submarine the Squalus made her last dive and lay three hundred feet deep on the bottom of the Atlantic the 33 men of her crew knew that the ship was helpless and done. They sent up smoke flares, buoys, prayers and waited for rescue. Her sister ship, the Sculpin, found the red smudge. Then the ten ton diving-bell went down again and again and on the final eleventh trip the last of all the 33 men were rescued. If any atheists were present they forgot it and gave thanks to God.

Have you ever been down in the depths—I mean the real depths, the emotional bottom of loss and sorrow. If not you have something coming to you before life is done. Several eminent saints of the "Inner Life" taught and counselled that these depths, which David cried out against, are kindly severities of God to educate His choicest children for the life of Nobility. We don't need to stay on the bottom or depend on our own frail strength to come up. This is the purpose of the Ordeal, said the Saint, to make us reach up to God, to get the lift, to recognize God, and then to give the thanks to Him.

IN DIOCESE AND PARISH.

The Holy Season of Lent begins with Ash Wednesday, March the 7th, and continues for the Forty Days until Easter, April the 22nd. Among the forty million communicants of the Anglican Church Lent has special significance for Devotion and Recommitment to the Church. Plan to make Lent this year an intensification of your Faith.

At the Holy Communion Service of the first Sunday of February occurs a Consecration Service for an Altar Chalice Veil presented to the Altar Guild by Mrs. Frank Brooks Evans, Jr. This is a handkerchief used by Mrs. Evans as a bride at her wedding before the Altar of St. Luke and the Epiphany. Similar gifts have been made in years past and many of the adornments of the Altar, Chancel and Sanctuary are fragrant with holy memories.

A Confirmation Class is offered by the Rector and friends of the Church may inquire at any of the Services concerning Communicant membership in the Church.

The Rev. Samuel Hoyo will bring Messages dealing with the great characters of the Old Testament to all who wish to assemble in the Chapel each Sunday at ten o'clock during the month of February. The Rev. Hoyo is an Episcopal Rector from the Church of Japan. He has been studying in this country, and lately under our sponsorship at the University of Penn, for teaching in one of the Episcopal Seminaries in Japan. He is a delightful and informative speaker and you are cordially invited.

The Annual Washington's Birthday Corporate Communion is held on Saturday, February 24th. It will be addressed by The Rt. Rev. Henry I. Louttit, Bishop of South Florida. Fuller details will be announced from the Chancel.

The Women of St. Luke and The Epiphany wish to thank the members of the congregation who responded so generously to the appeal made in October for contributions to assist in carrying out the missionary work of the Church.

The Annual Card Party and Bazaar of the Women of St. Luke and The Epiphany occurs on Tuesday, February 6, 1962, at 2 P. M. in the Parish Hall. A donation of six dollars reserves a table for four, individual reservations are $1.50, including light refreshments. Make checks payable to Mildred W. Lee, Treasurer, and mail to her at the Church office. Donations of articles to be used as door prizes will be appreciated, and should be left at the Church office in advance of the party. All members of the Congregation and their friends are cordially invited to attend.

THE TEN MILLION DOLLAR DARK SCENE.

Lenten Meditation.

An Italian motion-picture, about to be released in America, depicting the Dark Scene of Christ's death on Calvary, cost ten million dollars. It is adapted from Christopher Fry's Play, based on a Nobel prize-winning novel. It is called "Barabbas" but it deals little with Pilate's convict and most with the Redeemer. The Crucifixion scene was filmed during an actual eclipse of the sun in 1961. Rome is critical of most screen representations of our Lord as the "cowboy Jesus" or the Tragedian.

"Barabbas" will soon be offered. It will be banned in some quarters, wondered about by Protestants, attended and talked about by the multitudes, and then forgotten. However you may judge it, it is most significant that the industry would wait for an eclipse of the sun and spend ten million dollars to portray the Death on the Hill. Some good will come even to the careless and unthinking as they get their only glimpse of Good Friday. And great, great good can come to us who will read St. Luke on "the darkness that covered the earth" and realize it has something to do with you, with us, today.

EVENTS OF PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Forty Days of Lent in the Anglican Communion are always observed as a special season of self-denial and commitment to the Church. If you cannot figure out for yourself a major or minor blessing for Lent come to the Ash Wednesday Service on March the seventh at high noon. The Service offers you the Holy Communion, beautiful music and a meditation by the Rector. This is always a lovely occasion in St. Luke and The Epiphany. Come seeking and inspiration will be given you.

The Musical Preludes which have been given for several years by Mr. Bawden and the choir will, for the remainder of the year, be moved to the first Sunday of each month.

The Volunteers Service for the Blind, which is made possible by the grant by this Church for their use of our property at 332 S. 13th Street free of cost, are now undertaking a very large project, the Braille Edition of the Ladies Home Journal. The service will provide many blind readers with a wide range of educational material.

Women of the Church holding offices of leadership are Miss Anna B. Hewitt, Miss Mildred Baird, Mrs. John F. Bahm, Miss Mildred W. Lee, Miss Janet Baird, Miss Theodora S. Butcher, Mrs. Edward H. Ross, Miss Edith Ann Snodgrass. Serving on Committees of the Diocese are: Mrs. Albert H. Yarnall, Miss Mildred W. Lee, Miss Edith M. Bache, Miss Ruth Purinton, Miss Elizabeth D. Hoffman, Miss Leonora Hewitt, Mrs. Jerry G. Carpenter, Miss Mildred Baird, and Mrs. Walter M. Haushalter.

The Pennsylvania Hospital will again hold this Spring its Commencement in this Church. The meeting usually fills the Church to its 1200 congregation capacity. Several plaques bearing the names of Dr. David Steele, Mr. Malcolm Lloyd and other members of this Church are found in the hospital. For one hundred twenty years the relation of intense cooperation has prevailed between these two Healing Institutions.

CHRIST'S VISITATION.

Post Easter Meditation.

You will join the rest of us in amazement that the first historian of our time, Toynbee, names St. Bernadette the greatest personage and Lourdes the greatest event of the 19th Century. Bernadette was a peasant girl in a small French village who in February, 1858, claimed "Visitations" from God. Because of supernatural appearances of the Virgin now millions of pilgrims visit Lourdes each year and hundreds of millions on February 11th celebrate the Feast of the Visitations at Lourdes.

Toynbee is decidedly not a Christian, not a Catholic, and yet he by-passes Napoleon for Bernadette of Lourdes. So, Joan of Arc makes us forget the Kings, and Christ overshadows the Emperor, and twelve fellows in Palestine who became Apostles and Saints are the great event. In our 20th Century the "greatest person and event" may be some lowly one with a Visitation of God to save the floundering from destruction in the atom-space age. And for you and me the supreme event of life must be the Visitation of God. Why is it that the Visitations come only to the Lowly?

IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

The Generosity of the Congregation, shown for many years in the Easter and Christmas offerings, was manifest again this year. The sum contributed is about twelve hundred dollars, which along with the Christmas gifts enables the Church to discharge our charities over the year to many needy individuals and to many benevolent organizations.

The Pennsylvania Hospital holds its annual Commencement in the Church on Friday evening, June first, at eight o'clock. The Church is usually filled for the occasion by friends of the Hospital but members of the Congregation are welcome.

The Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania is held in Holy Trinity Church beginning on Monday evening at four o'clock, April 30th. The Monday evening Service at eight o'clock, when Bishop Oliver Hart delivers his Message, is open to all members of the Diocese. The Tuesday session begins with Holy Communion at eight o'clock and continues until five o'clock evening. The Lay Deputies appointed from this Parish are Rector's Warden, Mr. John F. Bahm and Accounting Warden, Mr. Norris S. Barratt, III, and the alternate, Mr. William G. Curren. The Clerical Deputy is Dr. Haushalter.

The Members of the Vestry elected to serve for another four years are Messrs. Maurice T. Connell, Hamilton R. Disston, William A. Fish and Edward H. Ross.

The Diocesan United Thank Offering Service will be held Wednesday, May 16th, at ten-thirty o'clock in the Washington Memorial Chapel at Valley Forge. Bishop Oliver J. Hart will celebrate the Holy Communion and the preacher will be The Rt. Rev. J. Brooke Mosley, Bishop of Delaware. Gifts for this Offering, in which this Parish always shares generously, may be sent to our sponsor and presenter Miss Edith Snodgrass.

The Church Services for the Holy Week were well attended, specially for Good Friday and Easter. Beyond the number in attendance the Spirit of the Congregations was in the lofty tone of the Passion Week. The offering of Good Friday for Anglican work in Palestine was the largest in years. For all this the Ministry of the Church expresses deep appreciation.

WHY WALK ALONE IN DANGEROUS '63?

New Year Meditation.

The celebrated Alpine Guide, Adolph Berungs, conqueror of Matterhorn, Mount Blanc and a dozen more, met death in December in a solitary attempt at the summit of Mt. Eiger. Twenty-two climbers to date have perished in assaults on the "killer wall of Eiger". Berungs had conquered Eiger often, but always with companions. Only two men, Brewster and Berungs, ever took on the treacherous ordeal alone and neither one returned. Dangerous living we can understand, but why the solitaire?

From a sensible look into 1963 we had better anticipate dangerous living and ordeals affecting your business, health, security and even your very sanity. Our Holy Religion refuses to promise you 365 days of serenity. Holy Church promises you marvelous rewards among the dangers of 1963 and chiefly, that you need not, you must not, try it alone. Our Lord knew about dangerous living but also confident living when "I am not alone for the Father is with Me". Better men than we have tried it solitaire. Had they another chance in 1963, surely they would face the ordeals with a Companion, the Great Bishop of our Souls.

WALTER M. HAUSHALTER, Rector.

EVENTS IN PARISH AND DIOCESE.

For the Year 1963 we earnestly wish for the Communicants and Friends of the Church joy and the deepest satisfactions of the spiritual life. The word "happiness" is too shallow a word. Our prayers for you are better couched in Faith, Hope and Love and all good that flows therefrom. The Rector will preach a series of four New Year's sermons for the four Sundays of January.

The Visitation of the Bishop on December 23rd was most gratifying to him and to us all. One of the largest congregations of the year greeted Bishop and Mrs. Hart. Eight persons were confirmed or received. The Message of the Bishop, the usual beautiful music of the Choir, the spirit of the communicants made it an unforgettable occasion. For the achievement the work of Mr. Edwin G. Strang deserves special mention.

The Autumn Contribution of the Women of St. Luke and The Epiphany to the United Thank Offering was about $390, the largest in several years. The congregation is indebted to Miss Edith Ann Snodgrass, custodian, who presented it on the evening of November 28th.

For the Many Christmas Cards sent to their home Dr. and Mrs. Haushalter express Gratitude. They were unusually beautiful this year with all the beauty of the superb Art of the creators of Symbols. Most of all we appreciated and reciprocate the beauty in the exquisite expressions in words of the Christmas Love.

The Christmas Offering for the Charities of the Church still appeals to you if you have not as yet participated. Due to the inclement weather of Christmas Day and absence of many on long journeys we anticipate further response. The uses of your benevolent monies fan out over a wide area of congregational, institutional and community needs. By supplying adequate Charity Funds at Christmas and Easter we obviate the old custom of frequent appeals from the Chancel.

The Women's Aid of the South Philadelphia Convocation will meet in the Parish Hall of this Church on Tuesday, January 22nd, 1963, at 1:30 P. M. All women of the Congregation are cordially invited to attend. The Reverend William J. Shepherd will give an illustrated lecture on "The Episcopal Church in Puerto Rico." Following the meeting, the Women of St. Luke and The Epiphany will serve afternoon tea.

"MONA LISA" AND "THE MADONNA IN THE GROTTO".

February Meditation.

After nearly five centuries of quizzical smiling Mona Lisa visits America to be gazed at and perhaps to gaze deep into us with questioning eyes. Mona is a portrait of the wife of Giocondo of Florence. Over four years Leonardo tried repeatedly to paint significance into the face and at the last called it incomplete. "Leonardo employed musicians and gesters to produce expression." Perhaps the lady was weary, shallow or plain bored. With all the music and jesters the immobile face achieved only a whimsical smile. Leonardo would scarce have selected Mona for the Atlantic trip and the Washington adulation.

The greatest of Leonardo's paintings are religious and the greatest of all "The Madonna in the Grotto". The dark grotto, symbolizing the "darkness of the world", enhances the radiance of the Mother of Christ. The joyful intelligence of her serene face comes not from music and jests but from Something out of Heaven. Had the Louvre, which possesses both paintings, sent the Madonna along with the Mona we might have seen side by side our own prevailing secularism and the spirituality of the High Italian Renaissance. In Mona's face Leonardo painted the whimsical sadness of merely human experience; in the Madonna's face we read of our human ways infused with Heaven.

Kilmer Myers of Trinity Parish, New York, author of the recent book, "Light the Dark Streets". The Brotherhood of St. Andrew also makes use of this occasion for evangelism and the fellowship of recent new members of the Church. Make the necessary reservations for the breakfast through the Church Office, the place and hour of the Corporate Communion are Prince of Peace, 22nd and Morris Streets, at Eight A. M.

In Memory of Mr. and Mrs. William Ross a beautiful Bible for the Lectern was presented by the Ross Family at the Morning Service of January 20th. The Bible was consecrated by the Rector and placed on the Lectern by Mr. Edward H. Ross and Mr. Albert E. Ross. A large number of the family attended from far and near. The Gift bears the date "All Saints Day 1962." The former Bible was presented by the Women of St. Luke in 1869. Both Bibles are the "King James" in the great Tradition of this Church.

On Neuclear Disarmament Canon John Collins of England will address a luncheon at Christ Church Neighborhood House at 12:30 on Tuesday, February 12th. Reservations are necessary at two dollars and fifty cents. Inquire at the Church Office.

During February the Churches for many years have given special attention to the Commemorations of Lincoln and Washington on the Sundays nearest February 12th and 22nd. These two Leaders hold holy memories, call up necessary safeguards for our preservation, and answer in many ways to the values expressed by the great Christian Saints. The month of February is a good time for us to consider the foundations of dear America and its Christian place in the world. To this end the Rector brings his February messages.

You Are Invited to Pray for the peaceable and just solution of labor-management troubles in which the public and the Church have a great stake. Some industrial companies have a daily round-table for discussion of the problems of labor and management, where they come to cooperate as mutual partners. Let us shun partisanship and pray and work for the harmonious cooperation of all elements in American industry, for the good of the nation, the public and the Church.

"I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the House of the Lord." The Psalmist.

"The Household of God, built upon the foundation of apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus being the chief corner stone, groweth into a Holy Temple in the Lord; in whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God in the Spirit." Ephesians.

YOUR EXPECTATION OF THE HEAVENLY WORLD.

Easter Meditation.

During his long imprisonment while awaiting his beheading Sir Walter Raleigh wrote a compendious History of the World. From his dingy window he saw only a dingy bit of London. But this Nobleman had explored the New World, fought in the Spanish Wars, was a Court favorite of Elizabeth, and he knew a great deal about the world. His fabulous good looks were his undoing. In a tiny note found in his Bible after the execution Sir Walter deplored this treacherous world and longed for Heaven.

Don't you think you owe it to yourself to explore your world, not so much the past or tangled present, but your future world you must enter rather soon! Don't be afraid to do so. You are not under "Sentence" of death, and you don't know the "Hour" as did Jesus, but meet it you must. Stir the fires of faith and hope, visualize heaven as beautiful and desirable, and fear gives place to joy and confidence, as it was with Raleigh in the Tower. Looking out of our tiny windows beyond this mixed world we in Christ get the Heavenly vision. Easter is the best time for you to get friendly with the Eternal World of Christ.

EVENTS IN DIOCESE AND PARISH

YOUR EASTER OFFERING along with the Christmas Gifts, enables the Minister of the Church to discharge a great duty of spiritual help to members, friends, the community and to share in the needs of about forty benevolent causes. Your gifts are specially needed now for Cuban Refugee Relief, hospitals, blood banks, medical studies, Episcopal homes, ministerial relief, acute individual needs for food and shelter. We pray you may give generously as in former years.

The City Council, President the Hon. Paul D'Ortona, has passed a resolution, part of which follows: "On Good Friday all Christians should contemplate the significance of the death of Christ. We urge the people of Philadelphia to observe Good Friday and that they demonstrate their faith by joining in public worship, withdrawing from all worldly affairs that day".

Dr. Charles H. Long will conduct the summer services of this Church during August. Dr. S. Tagart Steele, Jr. will conduct the services of July and Dr. Percy R. Stockman the first Sunday of September. Dr. Long has served the Diocese with great honor for many years and we welcome him as the Preacher for Maundy Thursday.

The Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Communion of America, Bishop Arthur Lichtenberger, has announced that he will have to retire because of serious illness. This Church is asked to share in prayers for his recovery. The Office of Intercessory Prayer for those ill mentally, physically and spiritually is commended by our Lord. The congregation are asked to share the prayer ministry of the Altar in their own private devotions.

Mr. Edwin G. Strang our Verger wishes to express his thanks for the prayers, good wishes and the many beautiful cards he has received from all his friends at St. Luke and The Epiphany.

The Holy Week, with the special services of Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter can be of great value to you. We should look upon this intensification of our Faith not as a duty but as a joyous privilege. The entire Staff of the Church with Music, Messages, and Worship work devotedly to present our Holy Religion at its highest and best. Your presence and your influence in bringing friends to the Services will improve the tone and richness of your life. This the Lord promises to you—and a Happy Easter.

THE HOLY SPIRIT.

The month of May is notable for many things. Warm spring breezes, gentle rain and sunny days bring increased life and joy to nature and human nature alike. We bask in the blessings and bathe in the beauty of the season of flowers and fragrance.

The Church celebrates Pentecost and the glory of the Holy Spirit's flowering in the lives of prophets and people, past and present. In ways beyond our understanding, God works in history and personalities. He creates and makes new. Ever He comes in the quiet ways of growing or the spectacular freeing of our frozen gifts of mind and heart. Fire is the Holy Spirit's symbol; but so is wind and water, the tongue and the dove, and the still small voice. God manifests Himself to all who have eyes to see and ears to hear.

Our lives need not be wintry bleak and barren, impoverished or useless. The Holy Spirit guides, blesses, infills, restores and relates. Our openness is His opportunity.

May the brightness of His Glory be in us and work through us for the healing of all that is bruised or broken to the glory of God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit.

FREDERICK R. ISACKSEN.

ANNIVERSARY YEAR

By Frederick R. Isacksen, Rector

St. Luke—125th year Epiphany—130th year

United in 1898 to become

The Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany

Anniversaries are opportunities. They, like Janus, the two-faced god of ancient Rome, look in two directions. We look back with remembrance and thanksgiving; we look forward with imagination and anticipation.

The fabric of a parish is woven of many strands, and only the finished product portrays a total picture. In this sense no parish is complete, for day by day, year by year, the picture changes. The loom shuttles back and forth, adding new faces and new events as time and circumstances may dictate.

But certain elements remain constant. Usually the buildings endure from generation to generation. The traditions of a parish are also preserved—the ways to which we are accustomed and which we desire to perpetuate. Memories remain, like a "River of Years", to hallow and to bless. Our richest possessions are the people, who through days gone by have worshipped and served our church with love and loyalty.

It is to these faithful and devoted people, those who rest with the saints in the heavenlies, and those who now serve in the Church Militant, that we turn our thoughts and sing a "Te Deum" of praise. With grateful hearts we humbly say, "Our deepest thanks to you. Accept our love and thanksgiving as a small measure of our appreciation of you and yours."

It is only as God has blessed us that we come to this very hour. To Him must our hearts go out in adoration and worship. This is His House; we are His children. By Baptism we are members of His Church, heirs of God and joint-heirs with Christ. What blessing He has poured upon us! Words cannot express our gratitude to Him, but deeds may help.

Our response to God's Love must ever be increased devotion and a deeper willingness to obey Him. So may our Anniversary be a Dedication. Let us rise up, each of us, and affirm anew our Baptismal vows, our Confirmation Commitment, to follow our Lord Jesus Christ to the end, that His Kingdom may come, His will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.

A BRIEF HISTORY

By Charles Robert Ritchie

Near the north entrance to St. Luke and the Epiphany, fastened to a wall, is a recently dedicated plaque, declaring the church a historical site. This plaque indicates not only recognition by the Philadelphia Historical Commission of the architectural value of the Church, but more importantly it is a tribute to the proud role St. Luke and the Epiphany has played as a community servant and as a place of worship for countless thousands of Philadelphians for over a century.

It would not be unfair to describe St. Luke and the Epiphany as a "miniature" of church history in center city Philadelphia. Distinguished communicants from all walks of life—many of them of city, state and national prominence—have worshipped within its walls for generations.

The list of rectors who have graced the pulpit of St. Luke's reads like a Who's Who of the Protestant Episcopal clergy: Dr. George Kingsolving, bishop of Texas; Dr. M. A. DeWolfe Howe, bishop of Harrisburg; Dr. Joseph Fort Newton, whose writings and sermons were widely respected and reached a readership of thousands; the late, beloved Dr. Walter M. Haushalter, whose writings achieved national acclaim.

St. Luke and the Epiphany began originally as two separate churches. The present church, a union of two churches, was formally organized in 1897-8.

The Church of the Epiphany, the older of the two and razed when merged with St. Luke, was founded in 1834. St. Luke, erected by the architect Thomas S. Stewart, was organized in 1839 and opened in 1840. Dr. Stephen H. Tyng, an outspoken opponent of slavery, was Epiphany's first rector. Rev. William W. Spear was St. Luke's first rector.

At the beginning of the Civil War, under the ministry of Dr. Richard Newton, kinsman of the later rector Joseph Fort Newton, a secret conference of great historical importance was held in the church. At the conference churchmen of North and South met and agreed to preserve the unity of the Episcopal Church during the war years.

For more than a century, St. Luke and the Epiphany has remained a steadfast neighbor in a changing environment. Baccalaureate services for the Jefferson Memorial Hospital have been held there. The church has extended use of its facilities for such groups as the Cerebral Palsy Group, the Spruce Street Improvement Association, Work for the Blind, the Taylor School, and the Pennsylvania School of Nursing.

THE CROSS AND THE CROWN

Our Lord went from Calvary to Paradise. The Cross was temporary, the Crown permanent. This, too, is the path each Christian must follow. The Highway of Holiness begins at the foot of the Cross. We must kneel, to begin our pilgrimage, at the Cross, and there find the cleansing and forgiveness through the shed blood of God Our Saviour.

We are broken at the Cross, as Jesus was broken. Rising from the Cross we begin our journey. As we look back the Cross sheds its beams of Light and Love upon our path ahead. The moment of humiliation has become a lifetime of illumination and thanksgiving.

For us, too, the Cross leads to a Crown. "Come ye blessed of my Father and inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Enter thou into the joy of Thy Lord." For Our Lord the Cross meant death. For us His Cross means Life.

"In the Cross of Christ I glory, Towering o'er the wrecks of Time."

Announcements

Hearing Aids—A hearing-aid system has been installed in the church, at present with only one outlet. Others who need a little help to hear properly can have a set installed where you usually sit, by speaking to the Rector or to an usher. Any number of these fine sets may be put in use as needed now that we have the amplifier and microphone in place. The one set now in use has been enthusiastically endorsed by the user.

Parking Lot—The church is now in the process of settling for our own parking lot, Northwest corner of 13th and Pine Streets. This is now a filling station. The pumps will be dismantled, and the lot open on weekdays for community and business parking on a fee basis. But on Sundays the lot will be wholly reserved for church use. Estimated time before we are in possession is 60-90 days. This will be a great benefit to the church, now and in the future.

The burial office was read on Saturday, March 13th in the presence of a large congregation assembled in her memory. It was Katherine's wish that contributions be given to the Rector's Discretionary Fund in lieu of flowers. A most generous offering has been received for this purpose and reflects her thoughtfulness and the great esteem of the many who loved her. Katherine is greatly missed. Our loneliness at her departure is relieved in part by the knowledge that she is with God and beyond suffering and pain. Our deepest condolence and our love and prayers continue to dear John and Lois and the members of her family.

Young People's Activities—A wonderful time was had by our young people on Friday evening, March 26th, when the group attended a performance of the Ringling Brothers Circus at Convention Hall. Mr. Alan J. Edmiston was in charge of the group.

This month the group is planning a bowling party. The date will be announced soon. We also hope to go to a baseball game, soon after the Phillies open their new season.

SIMPLICITY

That we are living in a complex world of tension and conflict hardly needs saying. We are beset on all sides by mounting problems on a world-wide scale.

What we hear and see may be only a small part of the picture. Like an iceberg, troubles and problems hide much below the surface. The Titanic was sunk by an unseen mass of ice, much bigger and more dangerous than the visible portion above the water. In our day, we must deal with the visible and the invisible aspects of our troubled world with no easy panaceas but rather, with creative and deep insights and understanding.

The Church has much to contribute. But our danger may be trying to do too much, rather than too little. It would be better to do two or three things well, than a larger number of things in shoddy fashion.

Here is the need for simplicity. The frantic and frenetic activity about us must yield to the balanced and peaceful state of heart and mind, centered in God, and quietly obedient to His Will. Giving in to neither despair nor lethargy, the Christian of today can walk with God, through storm or sunshine, in simple trust that He who made us and redeemed us, is Lord and Master of today and tomorrow, whatever they may bring to us.

Coming Events

The newly decorated interior of our church is beautiful to behold. To Mr. Kenneth Q. Walker, and the men who worked with him, our hearty "Thank you."

It calls for a little celebrating to properly accept this fine restoration of our church. Let this be done on the first Sunday in October, at the 11 o'clock service. By this time our summer vacation absentees should all be back. A short dedicatory service, special music, dedication of memorials and a fellowship hour and tour of the property will all help to make this a memorable experience. Let us all make a special effort to be present.

Two dates have been given us by the Bishop:

1. October 10th, Bishop DeWitt will be here for a "Visitation". The purpose of the visit is to assist us in our problems and our program in anyway he can. He will conduct the Holy Eucharist service at 9 A.M. Then he will have breakfast with us and meet with the vestry. At 11 o'clock he will preach.

2. November 21st, at Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square, at 4 P.M., Bishop Tsu will confirm people from several churches, including ours.

If you have not spoken to the Rector about Confirmation, do so as soon as possible.

Sunday services will be on the winter schedule the 12th of September, when we return to the newly decorated church. The first Sunday of September the services are at 9 and 10 A.M., as during the summer. The winter schedule is 9 A.M. and 11 A.M.

Our weekly schedule of Holy Eucharist on Wednesdays, Healing Service on Tuesdays, and noon-day prayers resumes the week of September 12th.

The church choir will return to us on September 12. We all look forward to the grand and heart-lifting music of our choir and organist. Our appreciation is extended to the soloists, the organist Miss Virginia Homeyard, the members of the vestry who ushered, the Altar Guild members, and the clergy who served throughout the summer.

Church School

The church school and adult class will begin the first Sunday in October. We will leave the adult class meeting hour as it has been—at 10 A.M. Dr. Horner will continue as the teacher. For children, the Rector would like to have the following arrangement: all children attend the first part of the 11 A.M. service, to get the beauty and meaning of our regular services, and then go to classes for instruction the balance of the hour. Parents could then be with their children part of the service and all be provided with the best we have to offer. The nursery would also be in session, every Sunday, for the 11 o'clock service, for babies and pre-school children.

World's Fair Trip

Despite sore feet, all who made the trip to the New York World's Fair agreed it was a wonderful experience. The air-conditioned Greyhound bus and the cool weather made the trip especially pleasant. Since so much enthusiasm was generated about the Fair trip, perhaps we can plan a sight-seeing trip to New York or Washington next Spring.

Acolytes

The younger boys of our parish are always welcome to serve as Acolytes. Anyone wishing to serve should contact the Rector or leave his name at the church office. Experience is not necessary; our Seminarian, Mr. Edmiston, will be happy to train newcomers.

Annual Bazaar and Card Party

The Women of St. Luke and The Epiphany are planning to hold their annual bazaar and card party in October, the probable date being Wednesday, October 20th. They will be happy to receive any articles which members of the congregation may wish to donate for sale at the bazaar. Such items may be left any time at the church office, marked for the attention of Miss Anna B. Hewitt.

Garden Club Anyone?

With the lovely garden of the Church in full bloom we can see how much flowers and shrubs mean to us. If you are interested in being part of a group to over-see (a fancy word for "work") the gardening needs of our Church, write or call the Rector. We can then get together and organize the group properly, according to your desires.

ORGANIZATIONS AND MEETING DATES

The Red Cross Unit meets every Wednesday from 10:00 A. M. to 3:30 P. M. Miss Leonora Hewitt, Chairman.

THE LAW AND THE GOSPEL

The month of May this year begins with "Law Day" and ends with Whitsunday—a vast spectrum of events and people comprising the rainbow of our faith.

From the shouts of "Freedom Now" to the liberty of the children of God in Christ there is contrast and challenge if not continuity. Let no man consider his "freedom" apart from the Law and the ethics of our heritage. The structure of our society is rock-ribbed with stern demands of restraint as well as clear calls to communal responsibility. Freedom apart from Law is Anarchy. And Anarchy is the death of all Freedom.

"Hammer away, ye hostile hands.
Your hammers break, God's anvil stands."

In our anxiety to bring in the Kingdom of God, let us not forget "the strait gate" nor abandon the ancient landmarks. Our God is a God of order, of law, as well as of grace. "What God hath joined together let no man put asunder."

MEMORIES

November comes to us with its memories of Summer and its promises of Winter. It is a hardy month with the tang of cider and the bang of college football and the beginning of skiing in the north-country.

Memory is the Mother-Muse in Greek mythology. How we remember is one of the great miracles of God's making in the mind of Man. It is for most people a happy faculty, most of the time. But alas, there are bitter memories, too; and often the ache needs God's healing balm to erase the pain and guilt.

If more of our people knew the true meaning of "Absolution" and its efficacy, there would be fewer mental break-downs. There always has been a place in the Gospel and in God's Church for spiritual Counseling (Confession) and for the Grace of Penance and Absolution.

Any good can become "Mechanical" and routine and so lose its purpose and power. It is our task to revive and restore (and keep it responsive and refreshing) the Cure of Souls. Healing our memories is part of that Cure.

THE RECTOR

WAR and PEACE

No subject is closer to our hearts now than the war in Viet Nam. To say we feel frustrated is to say what many of us feel. The judgment of our national leaders to help South Viet Nam seems right in the face of Communistic aggression. What price tag this help carries is heavy with suffering and sorrow.

To pray for peace is not to countenance evil or injustice. May the peace which must come be a peace which can be lived with by both sides of the conflict. To this end let us pray for all who are involved, both North and South Viet Nam, for China, for Russia, as well as for our own Country, and more especially for our men faced daily with death in a strange land. Let them who bear the heat of battle know we have not forgotten them.

May the New Year bring to us the precious gift of Peace.

TOWARD LENT

"Jesus knew that fear is often the deep-seated cause and origin of sin, its tap-root and spring. He said more about fear than He said about sin. 'Why are ye so fearful? Where is your faith?' He asked His disciples, when they were frightened by a sudden storm. Two little by-words were often on His lips, 'Fear not,' and 'Cheer up;' He did not lose hope for any man, and He did not allow any any man to lose hope for himself. Jesus knew no fear—here is the chief fact about Him; He knew—nay, He was and is—the truth that sets us free from fear, and when fear ends life begins."

SPRING AGAIN!

Ah, yes. It's spring again. At long last, the grip of winter relaxes and the promise of spring is in the air. How beautiful it is! How we respond gladly to the new life in flowers and trees, as they send up their shoots and little leaves, And they do this with so little help from us. Yes, we can help in our home gardens with enriched soil and pruning shears. But for the most part the glory of spring returns without any help from us. We merely try to improve on what is already a very sure and certain thing.

The Parable of Spring is a constant reminder to us of God's Providence and Creation. He is at work in His Universe, always and everywhere. Man, too, is included in His Plan.

Flowers and trees say "Yes" to God. And new life flows over the earth's surface. When we, too, say "Yes" to Him, our lives are fruitful and beautiful. To say "No" is to refuse our manifest destiny, and wilt as the branch cut off from the tree.

"Abide in Me, and I in you," said Jesus. "So shall ye bear much fruit."

THE POWER OF THOUGHTS

A millionaire on a recent TV program said to a young man, more interested in happiness than in money: "Let not your thoughts interfere with your peace of mind." If "peace of mind" is the greatest good, as many believe, what a man thinks is of utmost importance. It is the "pure in heart" who see God; it is the "right-thinker" who has "peace of mind." Thoughts are things, as real as the Taj Mahal or the Rock of Gibralter. They can make life a heaven or a hell.

It is for the Christian to put depth and height into the millionaire's prescription, rather than deny its validity. Thoughts are the seeds of our destiny. "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he." Even in our prayers, what we really desire, makes our prayers effective, or condemns them to failure. Desire is king. Lip prayers, without the will in back of them, are as the dew upon the grass, which disappears before the rising sun. "Keep, therefore, the heart with all diligence, for out of the heart are the issues of life." Thoughts of failure engender failure; thoughts of goodness, greatness and success engender conditions favorable to accomplishment. Happy thoughts make happy people. No wonder Our Lord said in so many ways: "Cheer up!" and "Fear not!" Christianity is not against happiness. It is for us to discover that the Cross leads to the Crown and that Resurrection is Fulfillment.

GOD'S WORLD

Some say we live in a polluted world. Here are some major pollutions we hear much about—polluted air, polluted water, polluted food, polluted politics, polluted soil. What about polluted lives, polluted movies, polluted books?

And for the Church we have polluted theology!

Man has been called "an eczema upon the face of a second-rate planet". So much of what he does is tainted with evil. (This is one of the arguments against the existence of God.)

But there is also so much good, in the world and in Man. How do you account for that? Before you write off God, first explain where "good" comes from.

And in conclusion: You are the guest in this world, not God. He is our gracious Host. As God's guests, we have acted shamefully. A house has many rooms—including a bathroom. But why spend all our time in that room to the neglect of all the rest of the House?

St. Peter had a good idea. He said: "I'm going fishing." The sky and the sea, the stars and the sun, are good therapy—even when you don't catch a fish. "The heavens declare the glory of God." Come, come, Man. So should you.

United Thank Offering

Sunday, May 7th, is United Thank Offering Day for our Church. Bring your offering that day and place it in the Offering (properly marked) or if unable to be at Church, send it to Miss Edith Snodgrass, Custodian of the U. T. O., care of this Church. Let us make a generous offering for this worthy work —from men as well as women.

The Dioceson Service will be on Wednesday, May 17th, at 10:30 A. M. at the Chapel of Valley Forge Military Academy in Wayne. Luncheon tickets are $2.50. Make reservations with Miss Snodgrass (care of St. Luke and The Epiphany).

Easter Offering

A most generous response from the Congregation this Easter makes the offering $1,151.05 as of this date (April 19). The Rector warmly thanks each of you.

The following men were re-elected on Monday, March 27th, for a three year term on the Vestry of our Church: Messrs. Charles F. Bonsor, Robert L. Montgomory, Jr., Milton K. Mitchell and F. This is the remaining portion of the major repairs we began about three years ago. When completed we may indeed rejoice in the beauty of our church, inside and out.

OUR SAVIOUR

The following statement is by one of America's leading scientists. It is a truly relevant thought.

> "The fundamental problem of nuclear weapons is how man can be saved from himself. And the only answer to that is, as it has been for two thousand years of Western history, and however irrelevant it may sound to us now, that 'there is none other Name under heaven given to man, in whom, and through whom, we may receive health and salvation, save only the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ.' This is hard teaching for modern man caught up in the illusion of his own self-mastery, but it is just as true as it ever was."

We Meet In The Chapel

We regret the necessity of having the services this summer in the Chapel. There is no substitute for our beautiful Church proper and its organ.

But the last portion of our reconstruction program is now going on in the Church: new rug, re-upholstering and painting of the pews. We will rejoice in the beauty this will bring to our Church, as we return there the second Sunday in September. Some additional work is also to be done in the Sacristy, the Rector's Office, and area around the rest room in the Parish House.

The Rector, Mrs. Isacksen and the Church Staff wish to all of you a happy and refreshing summer wherever you may be.

VACATION or HOLIDAY?

Summer is "vacation time". All who can do so go to their favorite spots. Some find that home is more desirable than anywhere else, and have no formal vacation plans. But a change is good for anyone. Whether we travel or visit nearby beauty spots, there is something refreshing about getting away from the familiar, seeing something new or different.

Perhaps the English use of the word "holiday" conveys a slightly different meaning than "vacation". Both "holy" and "whole" come from the same root-word. Something of both is intended in the meaning of "holiday". To be healed and made whole is God's will for us. And anything which God does is holy, as He is Holy.

Too often we limit our thoughts of holiness. They need to be broadened and deepened, until they compass heaven and earth, and all therein.

May your "holiday" then, be soul-stretching and mind-refreshing and body-strengthening to the end that all of us be "whole", in body, mind and spirit.

TEMPEST-TOSSED

Vacations are wonderful when you are doing what you most like to do. Fishing is my favorite sport and running a boat is part of the fun. Our boat is a twenty year old, 26 foot Chris Craft, in excellent shape. You can sleep and cook on it and visit places like Peconic Bay at the east end of Long Island, or Sailors Haven, a new National Park, on Fire Island.

One Sunday we left for home about 8 P. M., with a storm coming which hit us with rain, wind, and lightning. Darkness came. A trip of one hour stretched to over two hours before familiar landmarks allowed us to breathe easily. We were indeed tempest-tossed.

Our times are stormy, too. Our nation and the world reel from tempestuous dangers. The winds of adversity, war, riots and crime rock our Ship of State. Our ship careens as if rudderless and without compass or chart. Safe harbor seems remote and the darkness deepens.

St. Paul once said, as his ship was battered and in danger, "We cast four anchors to the stern, and prayed for the dawn." So too can we—anchors of faith, courage, hope and love. This is not a time to give up, but to look up, and to say, "I know not what the future holds, but I know Who holds the future."

After many years of faithful service, Miss Mildred Lee has retired from taking care of the Altar Flowers and Mrs. Milton Mitchell is now the person to contact when asking for flowers to be placed on the Altar in memory of your loved ones. Such items may be left at the Church Office, marked for the attention of either Miss Anna B. Hewitt or Miss Mildred Baird.

The Church Choir will be with us on September 10th. We all welcome once again the most inspiring and heartlifting music of our Choir, under the capable direction of Mr. Bawden. We offer our sincere thanks to the soloists and the organist, Mrs. Virginia Homeyard, as well as the vestry members who ushered, the Altar Guild members and the clergy who served throughout the summer.

Home Coming

This year, as the Fall season begins, we come home to a Church resplendent with color in new rugs and seat-cushions to match the lovliness we already have in nave and chancel. Every Church should be sweet and clean, and as lovely as circumstances permit. We rejoice in the finishing of the work begun three years ago, which makes our Church, inside and out, a landmark of beauty in our city and neighborhood. The Rector looks forward to greeting you, and rejoicing with you, the second Sunday of September. Plan to be present, and bring along a friend or two, as we worship together and thank God for His manifold blessings.

Dear Friends:

A note to express my gratitude to all of you for the privilege of spending three very happy years with you at The Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany.

The example, advice and guidance (and sometimes patience!) of The Rev. Mr. Isacksen has made a lasting impression upon me. I will always refer to him as "my" Rector because, for nearly fifteen years, he was at the helm of my home parish, St. Marks' Church, Islip, Long Island. The Communion set presented to me at the final coffee hour of the year will provide me with a permanent memory of my association with you.

With every good wish and blessing to you, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Alan

THE CREED

This month the Rector will preach on the Apostles' Creed. Everybody has some "creed" by which to live, even those who claim in the name of freedom they are "atheists". Non-ritualistic churches have a ritual—the absence of form. Non-believers posit their negativity as their creed. The Christian Creeds are far from sufficient. But they are guide-lines, skeletonized to be sure, around which we may build our Faith.

Nearly 2000 years of the Church's History cannot be lightly dismissed. It is far better that we seek to understand and to live the Christian Faith, than to be classed with the termites seeking to change it or destroy it.

Jesus said, "Upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

When a soldier enters the Army he puts on the uniform. When a Christian enters the Church, he too accepts a uniform and wears it as he fights against sin, the world and the devil. Part of that uniform is the Faith preached by Christ, formulated by the Church under the direction of the Holy Spirit, printed in Bible and Prayer Book, and blessed by the shining lives of believers of all ages. Keep the Faith, and the Faith will keep you.

DEMONSTRATIONS AND PEACE MARCHES

None of this is "my cup of tea". Some of it is downright objectionable to the point of being disgusting and even treasonable. Any of it which interferes or down-grades authority and law and order is irresponsible and dangerous, to the undermining of the very fabric of government and society itself.

What we need instead of cries of "police brutality" is every form of encouragement we can think of for our police, our judges and our courts. Strengthen the hand of the law; don't weaken it. Give your support to your police force and let them know you are with them, not against them.

Many are being used as dupes by the sly communist strategists ever lurking in the background to create dissension, division and revolution. No wonder the cold-war has slackened somewhat! The communists are getting their work done for them by well-meaning but misguided non-communists, including members and officials in our churches.

Stabbing our servicemen in the back, while they fight in Vietnam, is a strange brand of patriotism. Such actions should be stamped U.S.S.R. not U.S.A. The next time a draft card burner lights up his card, better add to the flame his country's Constitution and his citizenship papers. He is a man without a country.

THE CHRISTIAN'S HOPE

From the days of Our Lord's earthly ministry, through the centuries to now, there has burned a candle of Hope in every believer's heart.

In the Church's Liturgy it is called "The Second Advent". Others call it "The Second Coming".

Whence came this strange idea? What does it mean? Jesus told us He would come again, in the same manner as His Ascension, on clouds of glory, for all to see.

Remember, nothing Jesus ever said or did has been proven to be false. We may be sure of the truth of His Second Coming, for He said it. The "how" we know; the "when" is known only to God the Father.

What a comfort this is to all who love the Lord Jesus. And what a fearful thing it is to all who oppose or hate His Truth. There is to be a Consumation and a Judgment.

In the dark days of the year, when the sun's heat burns low, and the nights are longest, Christ Jesus came in lowly humility to be born of Mary in a manger. One day He shall return as King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Every knee shall bow, and every heart in which His Spirit dwells shall say, "My Lord, and My God." Even so, come, Lord Jesus. May Thy Church make ready and be ready for Thy Second Coming as we celebrate Thy Natal Day.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Some thoughts to ponder as the New Year of 1968 dawns upon us:
"God give us grace to get ourselves off our hands, to be free to love and serve Thee and our fellow-men."
"A man has just about as much faith as he uses."
"No man is an island unto himself."
"Do not be surprised when you spray the perfume of happiness on others, if a few drops fall on you."
"You say you don't have time? Ah, no, you have all the time there is. Be honest and say, "I don't have the interest." Interest accrues when principle is wisely invested. No principle—no interest."
"The law of the King is service, and the kingliest serve the most."
"The devil's most potent weapon is to convince a man to procrastinate. Do it now! Tomorrow is often too late, and for many, never comes."

LENT, 1968

On February 28th, Lent will begin again for us on Ash Wednesday. The years come and go, too fast, I fear for some of us. Each season of the Church Year would remind us of some aspect of that which is Eternal, which stands unchanged amidst the changing scene.

Lent reminds us of both our frailty, in that sin is forever a part of our nature, and of forgiveness which is forever a part of God's nature. The central fact of our Lenten meditations is the Cross on which Our Lord died. To those who crucified Him, it was an emblem of torture and shame. To us the Cross is the symbol of our Faith and the assurance of God's love and forgiveness. It is also part of our obedience to Him who calls us to be His disciples—"Take up thy cross, and follow Me." Let nothing keep us from making this Lent a time of prayer and of dedication to Our Lord and His Kingdom.

Part of that commitment to Him is to worship God every Sunday in His Church. I expect every one of you to do your duty out of love to Him who gave His life for you.

Frederick R. Isacksen

HEALING LEAVES OF PRAYER

For some time now the Rector has been writing little vignettes called "Healing Leaves of Prayer". The text for this title comes from the Book of Revelation, the Vulgate translation: "The leaves of this tree shall be for the healing of the nations." It is my hope to finish enough material soon so that a book can be published.

I believe prayer to be America's greatest asset—for too many, an unused asset. Greater than the power of atom and hydrogen bombs is this power of prayer. Rightly understood, and faithfully used, prayer can change us and change the world.

With the disciples of old let us say, "Lord, teach us how to pray." To this let us add, "And give us a hearty desire to pray." To "know-how" let us wed "desire". For to know and not do spells the ultimate tragedy of a wasted life.

EASTER JOY

The long sad days of Lent are past with the coming of Easter morning. How wonderful it is to come to Church Easter Day, amid the flowers, and sing our songs of faith and rejoicing!

We come with thanksgiving to worship Our Living Lord, and to take home with us new life and new hope.

Whatever may be said on Easter, at the heart of it all is the assurance that God has the last word, not death. And that Word of God to us is this: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die."

What he read then (the Epistle for the Day) is a valedictory far greater than any of us could give. Read it (see Prayer Book, p. 253) and then give your prayer of thanksgiving for this giant among men, this saint of God.

LAW DAY

The first week in May is dedicated to honoring Law and our judiciary. Your rector was requested by "The Living Church", a national publication of the Episcopal Church, to write a full-length article on the subject of "Law and Order". The article was written, and appeared in the April 14th issue, copies of which many of you have received.

I do not wish to change one word of that article, except to make it stronger, if possible.

These words are the spirit in which I closed my treatise. I believe they are pertinent to whatever may be said or done this month as we honor the Law of the Land.

"God grant that we may see in our day the love of the law, and the law of love, united in a sweet reasonableness, devoid of excesses, and devoted to fulfilling our Lord's dream of brotherhood for all mankind."

"Let us keep faith in one another. But more importantly, let us keep the Faith —all of it—which has been committed unto us. That Faith includes both Law and Gospel."

The Women of St. Luke and The Epiphany will meet at the home of the Misses Baird on Tuesday, May 7th. Address—547 Forrest Ave., Drexel Hill. Cars will leave the Church at 1 o'clock.

United Thank Offering—Sunday, May 12th is United Thank Offering Day for our church. Bring your offering that day and place it in the Offering (properly marked) or if unable to be at church, send it to Miss Edith Snodgrass, Custodian of the U.T.O., care of this church. Let us make a generous offering for this worthy work—from men as well as women.

The Diocesen Service will be on Wednesday, May 15th, at 10:30 A. M. at the Chapel of Valley Forge Military Academy in Wayne. Luncheon tickets are $2.50. Make reservations with Miss Snodgrass.

Easter Offering—A most generous response from the Congregation this Easter makes the offering $1210.63 as of this date. The Rector warmly thanks each of you.

Vestry Election—The following men were re-elected on Monday, April 15th for a three year term on the Vestry of our Church: Messrs. Hamilton R. Disston, William A. Fish, Edward H. Ross and Kenneth Q. Walker. Our sincere congratulation to these men and to our new Vestryman, Robert M. Atkinson.

Charles F. Bonsor—Mr. Charles F. Bonsor's passing leaves our church bereft of not only a long-time, faithful vestryman, but also a loyal and conscientious churchman. Few members could boast of a better attendance record. Right up to the last weeks of his fatal illness, Charles sat in his accustomed pew, Sunday after Sunday. He was an inspiration to his Rector, and to us all. Plans were being made to do something special on his 100th birthday, this coming August.

Now we can only thankfully remember him for his years of service among us. "May the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace and light perpetual shine upon them."

OUR MEMORIAL GARDEN

Last month we dedicated our Church Garden and unveiled a plaque which read—

"This Garden is thankfully dedicated in loving memory of all members and friends of this Church, the living and the dead, whose faithful service hallows the past and gives hope to the future."

On the death of Mrs. Kathryn Bahm, the family requested that gifts be made to the Rector's Discretionary Fund, in lieu of flowers. A most generous response provided the means for making the garden, and at the Bahm family's request, the garden has been made a memorial for the entire Church.

The seasons come and go; the flowers fade and die. But the Garden goes on. Loving hands repair the ravages of weather and time. New flowers appear amidst the evergreens, and the old tree spreads out her leafy arms in prayer. Truly it has been said—

"One is nearer God's heart in a garden
Than anywhere else on earth."

We are God's gardens, and the Master Gardener tills our souls, to make us grow and be fruitful.

OUR NEW PRESIDENT

All patriotic Americans will pray for President Richard M. Nixon now and in the days to come. In our Church the President of the United States is remembered each week with prayers for his well-being and the guidance of God for him and for the nation. President Nixon faces many grave problems, including the state of the country, the war in Viet-Nam, and the trouble spots in our own economy and the world about us. No man needs or deserves our prayers more than the President at this time. May all citizens put the welfare of the Nation above politics and prejudice. May the bright hope of freedom and liberty which our Country represents shine with renewed splendor and brightness throughout the world. God bless America! indeed! for our sake, and the sake of all those who look to us as the bastion of the free world.

WHITHER LENT?

There has been some discussion of late among churchmen concerning the traditional Lenten Season. Some suggest a shorter Lent—perhaps a season of only a week or two. Others are searching for a format which fits our changing times. Some good may come of this. For it does seem to me, the Lenten program I have followed in my former parish does not fit us here at all. What I have suggested before I suggest again. While we do not have a lot of "special Lenten services", the theme and spirit of Lent can be followed week by week in our regular services. What we can all do is make a special effort to be present at all Sunday services, and as many services during the week as possible. If we will do this one thing, we shall come to Easter Day prepared in spirit for what is always the high tide of our Christian Year and our Christian experience. It is not a question of "how many services" but rather a question of "how much nearer God". Wearing a hair shirt may help some enrich their spiritual lives but others will only develop an itch.

OUR EASTER FAITH

Our bodies need vitamins to live. A doctor has said that Vitamin B-12 is manufactured in the air and washed down on the earth by the rain, which may explain why the flowers and shrubs spurt up after a shower.

Think now, of what marvelous provision is made for our life and health upon this earth where we dwell. Is it not reasonable to extend the providence we find here into the unseen realm of eternity? What God provides for us in our earthly life is a portent and a promise of greater things to come.

Faith is built on the seen and the unseen. On Easter Day our faith is both a hope and a fruition. The hope is what we expect when our day on earth is done. The fruition is what we know from the rising of Our Lord, victor over sin and death.

Rejoice, dear heart! Sing, my soul! The Lord reigns, now and forever and ever!

THE SPIRIT SPEAKS

This month we observe the Feast of Pentecost, and the glory of the Holy Spirit's action in the lives of the early Christians. There is much to be learned from the study of the Scriptures concerning the action and work of the Holy Spirit. Today's needs are the same as those of other years and eras. The Voice of God must be heard in our tumultuous times. But to hear we must listen. What is God trying to tell us? We can be sure it is important. Let us have the humility to say with Samuel of old, "Speak, Lord, for thy servant heareth." Too often our attitudes are not conducive to listening, and could be reflected in these words, "Listen, Lord, your servant speaketh." In listening and obeying we open the way for God to work—in our hearts, and in our world.

The Christmas Mystique

Silence reigns, but it is like thunder, in power and awe, compressed, compelling. For this is the night of the Saviour's birth. The holy hush is deep as the sable black of the womb of night before the birth of light. All of nature waits in silent adoration. We sing "Silent Night, Holy Night" in quiet reverence—and the heart beats the rhythm and our tears dim the flickering candle glow. The Child is born anew.

Christmas is here. Walk gently, speak softly for the earth we tread is holy ground made sacred by His Holy Presence.

Frederick R. Isacksen

*BEAUTITUDES FOR FRIENDS OF THE AGED

Blessed are they who understand my faltering step and palsied hand.

Blessed are they who know my ears today must strain to catch the things they say.

Blessed are they who seem to know my eyes are dim and my wits are slow.

Blessed are they who looked away
when coffee was spilled at table today.

Blessed are they with cheery smile who stop to chat for a little while.

Blessed are they who never say
'You've told that story twice today.'

Blessed are they who know the ways to bring back memories of yesterdays.

Blessed are they who make it known
I'm loved, respected, and not alone.

Blessed are they who ease the days on my journey home in loving ways.

*Is this a "printer's error"? If so, we have a delightful idea that "Beatitudes" are "Beautiful" as well as "Blessed."

HOME AGAIN

Like wanderers of old we travel by air and sea and land to the far corners of the world. We live out of suitcases and marvel at how few things we really need for our daily necessities.

The compasses of our lives have been turned north, south, east and west. Then one day they turn in the direction of home. The traveling is over and to each of us comes that peculiar feeling expressed in the words: "It's good to be home again." Truly, there is no place like home, "be it ever so humble."

Our country, our flag, our home, our church—each takes on added beauty and meaning for the days of separation we have been absent from them.

Souls wander, too. Far from God, who is our true home, we are restless until we find our rest in Him. 'Tis then, wherever we are, soon or late, we each can say deeply and happily, "It's good to be home."

God's loving hands reach out for us to grasp and hold and His words are warm and gracious, "Pilgrim, welcome home."

The Rector "borrows" the following from the bulletin of Christ Episcopal Church, Woodbury, New Jersey.

"PROJECTS UNDREAMT OF BY PAST GENERATIONS will absorb our immediate descendants: forces terrific and devastating will be in their hands; comforts, activities, amenities, pleasures will crowd upon them, but their hearts will ache, their lives will be barren, if they have not a vision above material things. And with the hopes and powers will come dangers out of all proportion to the growth of man's intellect, to the strength of his character, or the efficacy of his institutions. Once more the choice is offered between Cursing and Blessing. Without an equal growth of Mercy, Pity, Peace, and Love, science herself may destroy all that makes human life majestic and tolerable. There never was a time when the inherent virtues of human beings required more strong and confident expressions in daily life; there never was a time when the hope of immortality and the disdain of earthly power and achievements were more necessary for the safety of the children of men."

Altar Guild—Mrs. Albert Ross and Miss Margaret Nelson are on Altar Duty for the month of October.

The Altar Society meets the last Monday of March and October at 11:00 A.M. Mrs. Albert Benson, President and Miss Catherine Jones and Miss B. Jane Fish, Choir Mothers.

The Red Cross meets every Wednesday from 10:00 A.M. to 3:30 P.M. New members welcome. Miss Anna B. Hewitt, Chairman.

You Are Invited—The Episcopal Renaissance asked if they could hold their October meeting in our church. The Rector and Wardens decided they could. This is an open meeting to which all are invited. Date: Tuesday, October 14th. Time: 8:00 P.M. No doubt some matters to come before our annual convention will be discussed. It should be a lively evening.

The Choristers Are Coming—The Choristers are a group of men dedicated to their avocation of singing Evensong in our churches. They have been well-received wherever they have gone. We are fortunate to have them at St. Luke and The Epiphany on Sunday afternoon (4 P.M.), October 19th. The Rev. John Roak of Gloria Dei will preach. Plan now to come. You will thoroughly enjoy the experience.

Quiet Day Coming—On Tuesday, the 11th of November, Mrs. Miriam Price of South Africa will conduct a Quiet Day at our Church. More detailed plans will be presented in next month's Bulletin. There will probably be a morning session, the Healing Service at noon, followed by luncheon and an afternoon session.

New Elevator Being Installed—Rainy weather delayed the contractor in building up the well for our new elevator, at the North entrance of the Church. Considerable work also had to be done inside the Church to accommodate this fine addition to our facilities. But the elevator people are now at work and hope to have the job finished sometime in October. This will be a great boon to those who find climbing a number of stairs a handicap.

Our Annual Bazaar—Last year our Bazaar was a grand success—the best in years. Plans are maturing now to make this year's affair even better. The date selected is Thursday, October 30th, 1:30 P.M. Any goods you have for the various tables may be brought to the Parish House for marking. We look forward to seeing you at the card party, held in connection with the Bazaar. Plan to bring some friends with you. Reserve a table for them if you wish.

Notice of Convention—The 186th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will be called to order at 4:00 P.M., Friday, October 17th, 1969 at the Gymnasium of the Valley Forge Military Academy, Wayne, Pennsylvania.

After Convention Thoughts

The 186th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania was held on Friday and Saturday, October 17 and 18, at the Valley Forge Military Academy. We never got through the proposed agenda of business. One subject took over most of Saturday's time (one reporter said six hours)—the question of a program to lift the level of life for black people. This should have had easy sailing and would have, except for divided sentiment on "The Black Manifesto" and "The Black Economic Development Conference."

Many feel, with your Rector, that the Church has a responsibility to make sure no funds are put in the hands of those groups committed to violent revolution. If the final decision has been postponed, it will come up again. If funds are to be solicited, for whatever purpose, there must be a guarantee that the money goes only to groups whose philosophy and conduct are squarely Christian. Any other course is subsidizing the enemy and putting the Church on the side of atheistic Communism. This must not happen. The end does not justify the means, now or ever.

"New Occasions Teach New Duties"

In the New English Bible there is a text: "When, therefore, a teacher of the law has become a learner in the Kingdom of Heaven, he is like a householder who can produce from his store both the new and the old." Elton Trueblood calls attention to that word "And." He says it is the most important word today as we face "renewal."

We cherish the old and the familiar, and rightly so—tradition, the amenities, the treasures of the years. These should not, cannot, be lightly cast aside. The poet, however, reminds us "That new occasions teach new duties." We face new challenges, new obligations, new responsibilities. To these we must bring the wisdom of the past, and openness to the guidance of the Holy Spirit. So then shall we produce "both the new and the old," wedded by the alchemy of the Spirit, to become God's Word for our todays and tomorrows.

RENEWAL

Lent comes to us this year with Ash Wednesday on February eleventh. Whatever we make of the six weeks of Lent depends on what each of us feels to be important. A good Lent means a meaningful Easter. For the sacrifices we make in Lent can give to us a proper understanding of Our Saviour's Love—His Cross and His Crown—His Crucifixion and His Resurrection. We must walk with Him through the sad hours and rejoice with Him in His Victory.

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." (St. John 15:13) Try to make this verse a test of your love, for Christ and for the world He died to save. Perhaps Lent can help show us what really counts, and what it costs to really be a Christian.

LIFE AFTER DEATH

Many people go to Church to see if the Clergyman believes in life after death. They know what the Good News is which Christ taught. He said, "I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. And whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die."

But does the Church truly believe this, and teach it? If so, then hungry souls want to hear it. On Easter Day, and all days, the true Church proclaims the Glad Message of Life after Death. On Easter Morning, in this Church, we shall rejoice and be glad. The Good News from the Good God is true. He loves us and has redeemed us. Rejoice and be exceeding glad! Alleluia!

"PUT ON A HAPPY FACE"

"Put on a happy face" is a line in a popular song. The ladies know all about what to do with their faces. I am told that you "put on your face" when you go out. Some of the results are weird, others wonderful. Billy Graham was asked by a lady if a Christian should use lipstick. He replied, "On you I think it would look good." Styles are always changing and, after all, there is only so much you can do with what you have to work with.

More important than "what we put on" is what you are under "the put on." A happy face will shine in spite of powder. The spirit just gets through anyway. That happy face is the best, the most beautiful of adornments, and should be your daily gift to a gloomy day, or a glum world.

ON PRAYER

The weekly Bulletin of Christ Church, Woodbury, N. J., has the following quote on "Prayer". I commend it to you. (The Rector)

In Solving a Problem by Prayer it is usually necessary to take certain practical steps as well. Wise action must be added to prayer. Pray about your difficulty but also claim Divine Guidance, and then take any steps that common sense dictates. We cannot remind ourselves too often that what we call common sense is itself an expression of Divine Wisdom. It is foolish to pray for help while neglecting some obvious and handy stepping-stone.

Many people seem to have the idea that taking some "material" step shows a lack of faith in God and lessens the power of the prayer. They ask if that is not trying to serve two masters.

The exact contrary is the case. We all know that an action is but the outer expression of a thought, and that a wise action is the expression of a wise or true thought, and so to take wise steps is but the proof that one is thinking rightly, and is, indeed, a part of the prayer itself.

We must learn to see God in our words and our deeds, as well as in our thoughts.

COMING EVENTS

Sunday, May 10—At 4 P.M. the Choristers will be with us to sing Evening Prayer. It is their 20th Anniversary. Dean Chattin of Trinity Cathedral, Trenton, will be the speaker. Orchestral accompaniment.

Sunday, May 17—The Rector and some of our members heard Merv and Merla Watson, at the Order of St. Luke services at St. Stephens last Fall. They will be with us for the Bible Class at 10 A.M., and then give a concert in the church from 10:30-11:00. They are a most vital young Christian couple, making music their means of preaching Christ. You will surely want to be present this Sunday.

This Year's U.T.O.—There will be no "campaign" this year; but any member wishing to contribute, may do so by writing your check to us, marked U.T.O. We will forward the offering to the Diocese in a lump sum, and receive credit for it. This should be done before May 13, the date of the Ingathering at Valley Forge. Any wishing bus tickets (bus leaves from Rittenhouse Square 9 A.M., May 13th) should send $1.00 to Episcopal Church Women, 202 W. Rittenhouse Square, to be received by May 5th. The luncheon is $2.75 at Valley Forge. One check may be sent for both bus and luncheon tickets to the address above.

The Church Library—Mr. Haller has given the Rector a number of good suggestions. We will work them out. There is to be a Library Committee to oversee the Library and furnish one librarian to be on duty each Sunday. The best part of the Library will be moved to a more accessible location, in the main vestibule, near the elevator. New books will be added regularly. Use this facility often. There are many excellent books on hand, and there will be more.

The Women of St. Luke and The Epiphany will meet on Tuesday, May 5th at 2 P.M., at the home of the Misses Baird, 547 Forrest Ave., Drexel Hill. This is the final meeting of the Season. Transportation from the church and return is available. Please contact the church office as soon as possible, if you want to leave from the church.

AN ALTERNATIVE

The Rector is one of several trustees for a movement in the Church called "Episcopalians and Others for Responsible Social Action" (EORSA). You will receive a letter this month from me asking you to make a generous contribution, with illustrative reasons for doing so. Those who will not contribute to groups advocating violence (such as the Black Manifesto organization), and yet want to help Negro or Indian causes, especially where they are trying to help themselves, have EORSA as a viable alternative. I can recommend EORSA completely to you as I am involved personally and know first-hand those who are chosen for aid. Each recipient is approved only after a stringent investigation, and the issuance of a clean bill of health. We should be involved in helping meet the great needs of our time.

We must be both responsive and responsible in our giving. This is what EORSA believes and practices.

GOOD DAYS AHEAD

Winston S. Churchill has written well when he says: "I avow my faith that we are marching towards better days. Humanity will not be cast down. We are going on—swinging bravely forward along the grand high road—and already behind the distant mountains is the promise of the sun."

Let this be our faith, too, as we face a new year together. A favorite hymn comes to mind: "This is my Father's world, and to my listening ear, all nature sings, and round me rings, the music of the spheres." Yes, God is yet the Ruler, and in Him we may put our trust.

AUTUMN GLORY

The days of Autumn are upon us. Pilgrimages to the Poconos and New England are regularly made by thousands to see the changing foliage of leaf-bearing trees. There is a bit of sadness to the scene, for summer is gone and the cold winds of winter will soon be here. (I am reminded of Keat's "A Drear Nighted December.")

But the beauty outweighs the bane, and the blessings outnumber the fore-bodings. Faith sings its steady anthems whatever the season may be. The God of All Seasons remains changeless and sure. As falling leaves soon change to falling snow, we exult in Him who faileth not, and who, by His Grace, lifts all who fall to New Life, and New Hope, through Jesus Christ, our Risen Redeemer.

Frederick R. Isacksen

THE QUEEN IS DEAD!

Theology was once called "The Queen of the Sciences." But today there is a dearth almost to the death in this once respected field of study. Yet we need to know all we can about God. And "theology" means just that—the study of God. Doctrine is not at the top of the ten most popular topics of the day. "How" is considered more important than "Why" or "What." We live in an age of pragmatism, where a plumber earns more than a Ph.D.

I'm all for good plumbing, and ecology, and home economics. But what about beauty, goodness, truth? The ephemeral has its day and passes away. But the Eternal is forever and ever. To save ourselves from being frittering friars of the frivolous we must dig into the doctrines of the Divine Medicine of the Ages—God's Being and Nature—and let THAT Truth guide us into ALL Truth.
